CLINTON, JEWELER AND OPTICIAN.

OPEN EVENINGS UNTIL AFTER CHRISTMAS

SCHILLER & CO.,

Prescription Druggists

First Door North of
 First National Bank

C. E. Linden, of Sutherland, was a Tribune caller yesterday.

Carrie Walton, a character around town, died at the Pulver hospital Saturday of pneumonia.

Furnished house keeping rooms. Inquire at 501 E. 6th street.

Miss Maud Owens, who is attending school at Lincoln, is home to spend the holiday vacation.

John Fenwick and Ernest Rincker, who are attending school at Quincy, Ill., will be home this week to spend the holiday vacation.

See Rincker's line of toilet sets. They make an acceptable gift.

The wedding bans of Charles Austin and Miss Katherine Krick were published at St. Patrick's church Sunday morning.

Fine Line Fancy Box Perfumes. Good Odours at Schiller & Co.

A masquerade ball will be held at Sutherland on Monday evening of next week. A number of North Platte young people are planning to attend.

Lost—Child's gold Bracelet. Phone 533 for reward.

The Farmer Burns athletic entertainment did not prove a very strong drawing card at the Lloyd Saturday evening, the attendance not exceeding a hundred. Burns and Wasson wrestled, the former of course winning out.

Gift books and Christmas cards in endless profusion at Rincker's.

"The Newlyweds and Their Baby" was presented to a capacity house at the Keith last night. The play, with its snappy girl choruses, elegant costumes, fine stage settings and really amusing comedy, seemed to please every auditor.

Holly Wreaths, Choice Loose Holly 20 cents per pound.

C. J. Pass, Florist.

Farmers in the south part of this country and in Frontier county have lost quite a large number of cattle from the corn stalk disease. Nearly every farmer who turned his stock into the stalks lost from one to half a dozen head.

No matter what you have been paying for hosiery, you will never get such wear as our Armour Plate stockings give. Don't take our word for it—ask your neighbor—she's wearing them and she buys them for the entire family.

SMALL, The Big Shoeman.

The Union Pacific railroad is unloading steel rails of the largest class now in use at the Watson ranch and will relay all the old track on the main line from Kearney to North Platte. Ninety pound rails (90 pounds to the yard) will replace the old seventy pound rails. The work will not be delayed. The new north track recently completed is constructed of ninety pound rails.—Kearney Hub.

E. T. Tramp is selling fancy Wisconsin cabbage for $2.25 per hundred.

John Burke will go to Denver Friday to spend Christmas with his family.

John Bratt went to Omaha last night to transact business for a day or two.

Fancy Wisconsin cabbage, $2.25 per hundred. E. T. Tramp.

Miss Ruth Streitz will return from Omaha tomorrow to spend the holiday vacation.

Miss Nellie Buckley left last night for Davenport Iowa, where she will make a protracted visit.

Anyone wanting to rent a house will do well to see R. E. Loudon.

License to wed was granted yesterday to Floyd Shaner and Miss Iva P. Young, both of Maxwell.

A carload of Oregon apples was received yesterday and distributed among several of the grocers.

Rincker's carried the best line of Kodaks and talking machines.

Mrs. James Jenson, who had been visiting relatives in town, returned to her home in Omaha last night.

Judge Elder yesterday united in marriage Herbert Michelson of Mayflower and Minnie M. Prossie of Vallyrange.

Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Cunningham will entertain the members of the Birthday Club and their husbands next Tuesday evening.

Rooms for rent—Inquire at 404 West Fourth street.

Mrs. Fritz Waltemath and two children are suffering with typhoid fever. Mr. Waltemath has but lately recovered from a serious siege of the disease.

Just Out—"North Platte and its Associations," by A. R. Adamson. Price $1.25. On sale at the book stores by Theodore Lowe, and the Author.

Mrs. R. H. Langford has rented the remodeled Neville house on west Fourth street and will remove thereto as soon as the improvements are completed.

Lost—A bunch of keys between Fourth and Front Sts. on Chesnut on or about Dec. 7th. Please return to this office for reward.

L. Carpenter, of Buchanan precinct, says a good many farmers of that section do not have enough corn to carry them through. Already corn is being shipped in at a cost of forty cents per bushel.

For boys and girls—grown ups, too, there is no hosiery like Armour Plate. They give twice the wear and save darning troubles. We have a fine stock and all the sizes.

SMALL, The Big Shoeman.

At the express office and the post-office the shipment of Christmas packages is reported heavy. And by the way, are you using Red Cross seals on your packages? If not, do so, and financially assist the crusade against the white plague.

For Sale—Six horse power upright steam boiler in good condition, only been used ten months. Reason for selling, am putting in a larger one. Just the thing for a feed cooker or for power on a farm or ranch. Inquire at Star Bottling works, North Platte.

DR. H. C. BROCK, DENTIST.

Over First National. Phone 148

Henry Fulk, of Hershey, transacted business in town yesterday and left last night for Glenwood, Iowa, on a land deal.

John Frazier, who will superintend the ice harvest on the U. P. lake east of town, says the thickness of the ice was five and one-half inches. Zero weather is needed to give the ice the required thickness.

A dozen or more creditors of the Greek store on east Front street served attachments and garnishee proceedings on the stock and on money in the bank yesterday. The claims it is said, aggregate over one thousand dollars. Several of the creditors were paid after suit had been instituted.

The attorneys of the plaintiff, themselves, asking the court to dismiss the case of Giersdorf against Henry Schuff, Grant Hadlock and Myron Campbell, for $15,000, was the unusual proceeding in the district court at Grand Island Saturday. Giersdorf is an itinerant minister who, with his family of five or six children, the youngest 3 or 4 years of age, became involved in an altercation with the authorities last spring and was twice arrested, somewhat riotous scenes attending the arrest. Schuff is the mayor of the city and the other two are police officers who, as testified to by Giersdorf himself, had twice ordered him to desist blocking certain streets, had arrested him when he continued to use the main street, but had afterward released him.

Road No. 237.

To all whom it may concern: The commissioner appointed for the purpose of viewing for the purpose of a change in road 237 and the location of a public road between Sections 17 and 20 as follows:

Commencing at a point on Road No. 237 about 15 rods north of the North side of section 17, Township 10, Range 28, and about 5 rods west of the Section line North and South of Sec. 8 and running thence in a southerly direction about thirty rods until it strikes the present traveled road which is supposed to be road No. 237, and then commencing at a point on road 237 about 225 rods north of the south section line of Section 17, thence in a southerly direction about 225 rods following the present traveled road on west side of fence, to the South side of Section 17, thence east on section line between Sections 17 and 20, T. 10, R. 28, connecting with road No. 169 and terminating there, and the vacation of that part of road No. 237 located between above mentioned points, has reported in favor of the vacation and the establishment of the above petitioned road and all objections thereto must be filed in the office of the county clerk on or before noon on the 25th day of February or such road will be vacated and established without reference thereto. Dated North Platte, Neb., Dec. 20, 1910.

F. R. ELLIOTT, County Clerk.
