

CHRISTMAS AT DIXON'S

There are only ten more shopping days. Shop early. The rush of Holiday trade is demonstrating again the strength and position of this store. We are giving our patrons the most convenient store, the freshest and best classified stock in our city, giving the greatest values honest mercantile industry can provide.

A Few of Our Many Appropriate Gifts.

- |                |                   |                  |
|----------------|-------------------|------------------|
| Cut Glass      | Chaffing Dishes   | Hull's Umbrellas |
| Signet Rings   | Toilet Articles   | Traveling Sets   |
| Electric Lamps | Watches           | Necklaces        |
| Hand Bags      | Diamonds          | Locketts         |
| Mirrors        | Foot Gloves       | Carving Sets     |
| Clocks         | Cuff Buttons      | Suspenders       |
| Leather Goods  | Baking Dishes     | Candle Sticks    |
| Karnak Brass   | Casseroles        | Fountain Pens    |
| Brooches       | Crumb Trays       | Souvenir Spoons  |
| Mesh Bags      | Shaving Sets      | Gold Jewel Cases |
|                | Pickard Art China |                  |

You should be a patron of our Store for we are giving better values and better service than you can get elsewhere in our city. Let us show you. STORE OPEN EVENINGS UNTIL AFTER CHRISTMAS.

DIXON, The Jeweler.

DR. O. H. CRESSLER, Graduate Dentist.

Office over the McDonald State Bank.

Ex. Sheriff Link Carpenter transacted business in town yesterday.

Wanted—A girl for general house work. Inquire 121 West 4th St.

Mrs. and Mrs. Arthur Peters leave tonight for a visit with relatives in Wisconsin.

J. W. Liles, of Nichols, has concluded to make another trip to Texas, leaving about the third of January.

Rincker's is headquarters for all classes of dolls and doll cabs.

J. W. Clemens, of Nichols precinct, who was in town yesterday, reports the sale of a two-year-old Norman colt, weighing 1400 pounds, to Dell Brownfield for one hundred and eighty dollars.

Wanted—Someone to feed and care for a stallion on farm for balance of winter. See W. V. Hoagland, North Platte, Neb., right away.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Strahorn arrived from California yesterday and will visit Mr. Strahorn's parents for ten days. For several years past Arthur has been in the employ of the government as soil chemist and located at different points on the Pacific coast.

Supt. Jeffers, of the Utah division, spent Sunday in town while enroute home from Omaha.

For Sale—Some fine Plymouth Rock roosters. John Tollison.

Supt. McKown has taken a vacation and will spend the holidays at points in Texas and at New Orleans.

See Rincker's fine line of China. Suitable presents for Christmas.

Rev. Porter went to Gandy today to hold quarterly meeting for Supt. Chamberlain. Thursday he will go to Brady on a similar mission.

Conrad Anderson, who had a light attack of small-pox and was quarantined for several weeks, returned to service as a fireman Monday.

Seal-shipt oysters now on tap at Buchanan Co. Grocery.

Chief Lowell picked up a stranger Saturday who had made a get-away with a pair of shoes from the Wilcox store, and which he later attempted to sell. He was arraigned in the police court yesterday forenoon.

Miss Jessie Blankenburg will organize classes in China painting. Those interested may call at 102 West 6th St. Also a line of hand painted china and other hand decorated Christmas gifts for sale, and orders taken.

A new motor car of elegant design and much longer than those heretofore sent west, passed through Saturday. With a total length of 130 feet the motor had an engineer's room, a baggage room, postoffice department and a smoking room in addition to the usual passenger compartment. It is a product of the McKean works at Omaha.

Mrs. J. D. Shaffer left yesterday for a visit with her son Roy in Denver.

A. O. Kocken returned yesterday from a visit with old-time friends in Wisconsin and also in Omaha.

Safety Razors, Pocket Knives and Purse for holiday gifts at Schiller & Co.

Dave White, Henry Fulk, J. R. White and A. A. Reazer, all of Hershey, were visitors in town yesterday.

For sale—Single comb white leghorn cockers. Price $1.00 Mrs. H. A. Weil.

Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Murphy left last night for Burlington, Iowa, where they will visit friends for a week. Enroute home they will stop over in Omaha for a few days.

See that Bunch of Bargain plates at Buchanan Grocery.

Train No. 19, which carries nothing but express matter, went through last evening in two sections of six cars each. Christmas packages are evidently many in number.

Everything in the bakery line. Take home one of our fine fruit cakes. Your Xmas dinner will not be complete without one these cakes.

ENTERPRISE BAKERY.

W. M. Baskins came in from his Logan county ranch yesterday and will go to Omaha tonight on business, returning Thursday, when he will take his family out to the ranch to spend Christmas.

FREE MASONS will find the interesting history of Platte Valley Lodge racyly told in Mr. Adamson's book. On sale at the book stores.

At the last meeting of the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen the following officers were elected: President, F. J. Ware; vice-president, Floyd Passmore; secretary, R. E. Biggs; treasurer, W. H. LeDoyt. Mr. LeDoyt was also elected delegate to the National Convention to be held at Harrisburg, Pa., next May.

A gift for mother, sister, or daughter that express love and joy—a box of beautiful roses or carnation. Delivered Christmas morning. Phone order now. Prices from $1.00 per box up.

C. J. Pass Florist.

License to wed was granted by Judge Elder Saturday to Steve Coll and Bertha L. Carroll, both of this city. The couple went to Hershey Saturday night and the following day were married by Rev. Johnson, an uncle of the bride. They returned to town Sunday night. The groom is in the employ of the Union Pacific and the bride has made her home in this city for some time past, and for a short time past has been clerking at the Wilcox Store.

ESTRAYED HORSES.

Estrayed December 15th from my farm south of Maxwell, at head of Box Elder canyon seven head of horses. Four sorrels branded M on left jaw, one bay mare and one brown mare, both branded as above, and one gray colt with tail cut square. Ten dollars reward for recovery of horses. Notify E. Stewart, Maxwell, Neb.

DR. W. F. CROOK, DENTIST.

Graduate Northwestern University. Office over McDonald State Bank.

Mrs. VanLue Denies.

Editor of Tribune, North Platte, Neb.: I notice in your paper that one, Steve Pappas, has been circulating a report that I had agreed to marry him and that he was to pay me $300. I desire to brand this as being absolutely false and wholly unauthorized in every manner what so ever. I am a married woman and did not have any conversation what so ever with Mr. Pappas relative to the subject of marriage.

CLARA COOK VANLUE

Nothing nicer for a Christmas gift than a delicate piece of china. Make your selection at the Tramp Grocery

Cy Vroman Dies.

A telegram received in town Sunday, announced the death of Cy Vroman, in Oklahoma. Death was due to typhoid pneumonia. The deceased was born in North Platte and lived here until a short time ago, when he went to Oklahoma, where his father has been located for a year or so. Friends of the young man regret to learn of his death.

Clarence Vroman went to Oklahoma Sunday night and with other members of the family already there will accompany the remains to this city for interment. The funeral party will probably arrive Friday.

Notice

The annual election of officers of the Maccabees will be held at the K. P. hall December 29th, 1910, at 8 p. m. All members are requested to be present. C. M. NEWTON, Record Keeper.

Mr. Skovgaard, the Danish Violinist, who will play at the Keith tonight. Mr. Skovgaard never fails to please his audience. He stands the peer of "Old Bull" and other masters of the violin.

KELIHER

Has the Most Complete Line of Christmas Candies, Nuts and Confections in the City.

As usual, our goods are the best in their respective lines. Choice assortment of Huyler's, Allegretti and Dreibus brand of Edelweiss and Maraschino Cherries; better than which there are none.

Salted Almonds and Salted Peanuts, fresh daily.

Large variety of pure Home Made Candy.

Highest grade pure sugar fondant for sale.

Empty Candy Boxes, pretty pattern, just the thing for packing your own candy.

Special Christmas packages of cigars in all the popular makes

Orders now received for our famous "Marcel" fruit ice cream, chocolate ice cream or sherbet ice cream for your Christmas dinner.

We keep Ice Cream the year around.

The Girls Friendly society will meet with Miss May Walker tonight.

The Christian aid society will meet Thursday afternoon with Mrs. F. R. Elliott.

Mr. and Mrs. Mark Atchinson went to Kearney this morning to spend Christmas with relatives.

Don't forget to leave your order with Louder for your fatted turkeys and chickens.

Skovgaard, the violinist, will be the attraction at the Keiths this evening. He is accompanied by an accomplished vocal soloist.

E. R. Smith and Dr. McLeay, of Gandy, are in town today. They came over last evening and saw the pretty girls at the show last night.

Choice Cigars in Xmas boxes at Schiller & Co's.

Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Cole, of Redfield S. D., are the guests of Doctors Ames, and will remain until after Christmas. Mrs. Cole is a daughter of Dr. A. J. Ames.

All members of Bradford Division No. 200 are requested to be present at the next regular meeting in the K. P. hall Friday, Dec. 23rd, at three p. m. Etta F. Bonner, Pres.

Treasurer Langford says personal taxes are being paid very freely, which of course affords him satisfaction. He dislikes to be compelled to issue distress warrants upon those who do not pay.

Weather forecast—Partly cloudy tonight, moderate Wednesday. Maximum temperature yesterday 47; one year ago 15. Minimum temperature this morning 26; one year ago 3.

CRYSTAL THEATRE

To-Night

MOVING PICTURES:

"A Flash of Light", "Ma-zeppa", the horse of Tartary, from Byron's Poem.

VAUDEVILLE:

G. C. Roberts & Co., magicians and illusionists.

10 and 15 Cents.

Are Your Feet Cold?

Perhaps you don't indulge in winter sports, such as skating, sleighing and the like because of cold feet. Properly fitted shoes will not hinder circulation, but will keep your feet comfortable. That's the kind you get in our store. Come in and we will sell you a pair that will warm your heart toward the bargains and your feet as well.

SMALL, THE BIG SHOE MAN.

521 Dewey Street, North Platte, Neb.