LOCAL MENTION.

Harry Worell, of Sutherland, was a business visitor in town yesterday.

Mrs. Frank Dickenson and Mrs. Wm. Eves, of Hershey, were visitors in town yesterday.

Fred Rasmussen, employed on the Ogallala News, spent Sunday with his family in town.

County Commissioner Springer came up from Brady yesterday and spent the day mingling with friends.

Frank P. Hoy, of Garfield, was in town yesterday enroute home from a visit at his old stamping ground in Pennsylvania.

Henry Peterson, of Oakland, Cal., will arrive in town Saturday. He is in poor health, and will probably remain here for a number of months.

The spirit in which the Christmas gifts are given counts for all. We would rather have a person give us a ten-cent collar button freely than a diamond ring grudgingly.

Steve Papus, who gave Clara Cook $300 to bind a promise to wed, after which Clara balked, has recovered $200 of the amount paid. Whether he will make attempt to get the other $100 is not known. Perhaps he will consider the experience worth the hundred.

The county commissioners of Hall county have voted to ask the county attorney to enter a nolle prosequi in the case of George Poell, who, about six years ago, when firing on the railroad, saved a child's life at the cost of a leg and other injuries to himself. Though a republican, he was nominated and elected county clerk on the democratic ticket and later reelected. He defaulted with a certain amount of county money, and was deposed from office. Now the commissioners have granted the request of a large number of petitioners, who remember Poell's brave act, and wish further persecution dropped. It is also hinted, and Poell claims, that others got the money, and he was merely a tool, but he refuses to divulge the names of the guilty parties.

There was a significant paragraph in the after-dinner talk of Theodore Roosevelt at the New Haven chamber of commerce banquet Tuesday evening, which gives an accurate hint of his state mind since the recent election regarding the relative position of the insurgents and the progressives in the republican party. He said: "I am a radical, but I am a radical who earnestly desires to see a radical programme carried out by conservatives. This can be taken as nothing short of a full endorsement of the Taft administration, in which a conservative progressive has been successfully whipping into shape the radical program of the radical ex-president. There is no inconsistency in this position. The crusader is not the wise law-maker, even though one may be indispensable to the other and each may be of equal value. In this brief paragraph Roosevelt has given the country in a few words enough to think about for the coming two years.—Kearney Hub.

John McConnell expects to make an exhibit of Hereford cattle at the western stock show at Denver.

Walter Gartrell's new house is about completed.

John McConnell sent some of his prize winning potatoes to Lincoln with Prof. Ewers. He says: "They are great. I would never have thought you could grow such potatoes in south Lincoln county. They cook fine."

People with kidney ills want to be cured. When one suffers the tortures of an aching back, relief is eagerly sought for. There are many remedies today that relieve but do not cure. Here is evidence to prove that Doan's Kidney Pills cure, and the cure is lasting.

Mrs. Christina Pickett, 318 East B. St., North Platte, Neb., says: "I have used Doan's Kidney Pills, which I procured from McDonnell & Graves' Drug Store, for kidney trouble and find them to be just the remedy I needed for backache and other kidney disorders. Whenever I am suffering from these troubles, I appeal to Doan's Kidney Pills and their use gives me relief. Other members of my family have taken Doan's Kidney Pills with excellent results."

is one of the requisites for a Christmas dinner, but for the male members of your dinner party a good cigar is also necessary. We make cigars of acknowledged merit, they have that flavor that all smokers like. The goodness is found in our five cent cigar as in the ten cent, but of course there is more of it in the latter. And by the way, why not give your husband, father or gentleman friend a box of our cigars as a Christmas present?
