CALUMET

BAKING POWDER

CHICAGO

You'll be delighted with the results of Calumet Baking Powder. No disappointments—no flat, heavy, soggy biscuits, cake, or pastry.

Just the lightest, daintiest, most uniformly raised and most delicious food you ever ate.

Received Highest Award World's Pure Food Exposition, Chicago, 1907.

Splendid Crops

In Saskatchewan (Western Canada)

800 Bushels from 20 acres of wheat was the thrasher's return from a Lloyd-minister farm in the season of 1910. Many fields in that as well as other districts yielded from 25 to 35 bushels of wheat to the acre. Other grains in proportion.

LARGE PROFITS are thus derived from the FREE HOMESTEAD LANDS of Western Canada. This section showing causes prices to advance. Land values should double in two years' time. Grain growing, mixed farming, stock raising and dairying are all profitable. Free Homesteads of 160 acres are to be had in the very best districts; 160 acre pre-emption at $3.00 per acre will in certain areas, schools and churches in every settlement, climate, undrained, soil the richest, wood, water and building material plenty.

True Patriotism

By REV. DAVID F. NYGREN
Pastor of Swedish Baptist Church
Hinsdale, Ill.

TEXT—As free, and not using your liberty for a cloak of maliciousness, but as the servants of God.—I Peter II, 13.

Just as at Christmas and at Easter, we find many persons who revive their allegiance to religion, so we find a strenuous attempt on the part of many to resuscitate their sleeping patriotism, which they express in a great measure by fire and smoke, the heritage of our warring ancestors.

I would first say that this ought and ought not to be so, all depending on what we mean with patriotism. If patriotism be of the right kind, we would endorse it. If to be patriotic means to be loyal, not to a mere selfish cause, but to a general high and noble cause, then we endorse it. Our dear "U. S. A." though large, is not large enough. We would have the whole world, nay, more, all the worlds; yea, the heavens, too. As true servants we would be interested in all the possessions of our Master.

Christianity does not encourage particular patriotism in opposition to general benignity. If it did, it would not be adapted for "the world." The duties of the subjects of one state would often be in opposition to those of the subject of another, and men might inflict evil or misery upon neighbor nations in conforming to the Christian law.

Christianity is designed to benefit not a community but "the world." The promotion of the interests of one community by injuring another—that is, "patriotism in opposition to general benignity"—Christianity utterly rejects as wrong.

Still would not a doctrine of general patriotism be rational? We would answer in the affirmative. And Christianity does not appear to encourage the doctrine of being a "citizen of the world," and of paying no more regard to our community than to every other. That opposes to the natural and virtuous feelings.

If it were put in practise, it would destroy confined benignity without effecting a counterbalancing amount of universal philanthropy. Who indeed shall support and cherish and protect a child if its parents do not?

That speculative philosophy is vain which would supplant these dictates by doctrines of general philanthropy. It cannot be applicable to human affairs until there is an alteration in the human constitution. Not only religion, therefore, but reason and nature, reject that philosophy which teaches that no man should prefer or aid another because he is his countryman, his neighbor or his child.

This is an idle system of philosophy which sets out with extinguishing those principles of human nature which the Creator has implanted for wise and good ends.

He that shall so far succeed in practising this philosophy as to look with indifference upon his parent, his wife and his son, will not often be found with much zeal to exercise kindness and benevolence to the world at large.

But to cherish and support our own children rather than others; to do good to our neighbors rather than to strangers; to benefit our own country rather than another nation, does not imply that by so doing we must injure other nations, or strangers, or their children, in order to do good to our own. Here is our point of discrimination which we will enlarge upon presently—a point which vulgar patriotism and vulgar philosophy have alike overlooked.

I dare not stop by saying that the right kind of patriotism would be to do good to my nation, and by doing this, not to do any menace to other nations. That would just simply be changing the Golden Rule to nothing.

By having this kind of an idea I would say: "Do nothing unto others." Then a person in order to be a general "patriotic" would need do "nothing."

No, our Christian way is better; it is the best. "Do unto others, etc." That makes a man take off his coat, turn up his sleeves and go to work! Not only so good that one does no harm; but so harmless that one must do good! Not only a negative in regard to not doing harm; but so strong a negative that one becomes a positive.

In the second place, I would say, not that it ought, but positively that it ought not to be so, in regard to the way we show our patriotism. As we have mentioned this expresses itself in a great measure by fire and smoke, by noise and a general disturbance; this being the heritage of our warring ancestors.

The spirit of true patriotism does not find its expression in boasting of success in wars which were fought before we were born.

"Reason and experience both forbid us," said the father of our country, "to expect that national morality can prevail in exclusion of religious principle."

To be true patriots is to bring the gospel to every creature, beginning in Jerusalem, our own land, and then to the uttermost parts of the earth.

It is related that when Columbus, on his historic voyage, was approaching the shores of the western world, a flickering light was dimly seen through the darkness by one of his sailors. "It may be," said Columbus, "that the faithful wife of some fisherman is waving a torch to guide him on his homeward way."

DURING A TIFF.

Wife—It seems to me we've been married a century. I can't even remember when or where we first met.

Husband—Can't you? Well, I can. It was at a dinner party where there were 13 at the table.

ECZEMA GONE, BOILS CURED

"My son was about three weeks old when I noticed a breaking-out on his cheeks, from which a watery substance oozed. A short time after, his arms, shoulders and breast broke out also, and in a few days became a solid scab. I became alarmed, and called our family physician, who at once pronounced the disease eczema. The little fellow was under his treatment for about three months. By the end of that time, he seemed no better. I became discouraged, and as I had read the advertisements of Cuticura Remedies and testimonials of a great many people who had used them with wonderful success, I dropped the doctor's treatment, and commenced the use of Cuticura Soap and Ointment, and in a few days noticed a marked change. The eruption on his cheeks was almost healed, and his shoulders, arms and breast were decidedly better. When he was about seven months old all trace of the eczema was gone.

"During his teething period, his head and face were broken out in boils which I cured with Cuticura Soap and Ointment. Surely he must have been a great sufferer. During the time of teething and from the time I dropped the doctor's treatment, I used the Cuticura Soap and Cuticura Ointment, nothing else, and when two years old he was the picture of health. His complexion was soft and beautiful, and his head a mass of silky curls. I had been afraid that he would never be well, and I feel that I owe a great deal to the Cuticura Remedies." ## $3.50 RECIPE CURES WEAK KIDNEYS, FREE

RELIEVES URINARY AND KIDNEY TROUBLES, BACKACHE, STRAINING, SWELLING, ETC.

Stops Pain in the Bladder, Kidneys and Back.

Wouldn't it be nice within a week or so to begin to say goodbye forever to the scalding, dribbling, straining, or too frequent passage of urine; the forehead and back-of-the-head aches; the stitches and pains in the back; the growing muscle weakness; spots before the eyes; yellow skin; sluggish bowels; swollen eyelids or ankles; leg cramps; unnatural short breath; sleeplessness and the despondency?

I have a recipe for these troubles that you can depend on, and if you want to make a QUICK RECOVERY, you ought to write and get a copy of it. Many a doctor would charge you $3.50 just for writing this prescription, but I have it and will be glad to send it to you entirely free. Just drop me a line like this: Dr. A. E. Robinson, K-233 Luck Building, Detroit, Mich., and I will send it by return mail in a plain envelope. As you will see when you get it, this recipe contains only pure, harmless remedies, but it has great healing and pain-conquering power. It will quickly show its power once you use it, so I think you had better see what it is without delay. I will send you a copy free—you can use it and cure yourself at home.

BURDENS LIFTED FROM BAD BACKS

Weary is the back that bears the burden of kidney ills. There's no rest or peace for the man or woman who has a bad back. The distress begins in early morning. You feel lame and not refreshed. It's hard to get out of bed. It hurts to stoop to tie your shoes. All day the ache keeps up. Any sudden movement sends sharp twinges through the back. It is torture to stoop and straighten. At night the sufferer retires to toss and twist and groan. Backache is kidney ache—a throbbing, dull aching in the kidneys. Plasters or liniments won't do. You must get at the cause, inside.

DOAN'S KIDNEY PILLS CURE SICK KIDNEYS

GIVEN UP TO DIE.

Mrs. M. A. Jenkins, Quana, Tex., says: "I was bloated almost twice my natural size. I had the best physicians, but they failed to help me. For five weeks I was as helpless as a baby. My back throbbled and the kidney secretions were in terrible condition. The doctors held out no hope and I was resigned to my fate. At this critical time, I began using Doan's Kidney Pills and soon was cured."

How To Tell When The Kidneys Are Disordered--

Painful Symptoms: Backache, sideache, pains when stooping or lifting, sudden sharp twinges, rheumatic pains, neuralgia, painful, scanty or too frequent urination, dizzy spells, dropsy.

Urinary Symptoms: Discolored or cloudy urine. Urine that contains sediment. Urine that stains the linen. Painful passages. Blood or shreds in the urine. Let a bottle of the morning urine stand for 24 hours. If it shows a cloudy or fleecy setting, or a layer of fine grains, like brick dust, the kidneys are probably disordered.

A CASE OF GRAVEL.

Harrison A. Sturtevant, G and Maple Sts., Tulare, Cal., says: "I was in bad shape with kidney trouble. Too frequent urination compelled me to arise at night, my bladder became inflamed and I suffered severe pain. When I began using Doan's Kidney Pills I passed a gravel stone three-quarters of an inch and variegated in color. After this my trouble disappeared."
