TOWN AND COUNTY NEWS.

Real Estate Agent Lucky, of Sutherland, was a business visitor in town yesterday.

John Mellen spent yesterday in town looking up business for the Chicago & Northwestern road.

Mr. Neeley, of Omaha, representing the Equitable Life Assurance Co., transacted business in town yesterday.

County Clerk Elliott resumed his official duties yesterday, after a siege of illness. He thinks he's all right now.

Rev. S. F. Carroll, who went from here to Benson to take charge of the orphanage, has been transferred to St. Joseph's church at Wisner, Neb.

A dozen or more residents of Wood River and Alda came here Tuesday to attend the funeral of the late Mrs. M. I. McCarty and thus pay their last respects to the one whom they held in very high esteem.

Mr. and Mrs. Martin Mickelsen, formerly of Hershey, left Denver this week for California where they will remain until the middle of April.

The spring term of district court will convene February 28th. There are about seventy cases on the docket, a number of which will be tried to a jury.

Sombody started the report that Chief of Police Lowell had tendered his resignation and would move to Omaha, but Lowell says there isn't anything in it, and he ought to know.

P. A. White and C. T. Whelan returned Sunday night from Tulsa, Okl., where in company with A. D. McDonell, they went to examine the oil fields. They looked up several propositions but have not as yet invested.

The funeral of the late Mrs. Elizabeth Rodden who died Monday night, was held from St. Patrick's church yesterday morning, many old friends attending. The remains were interred in the Catholic cemetery.

Five or six carpenters and painters are at work getting the Timmerman cafe in shape, and Mr. Miles, who will conduct it, hopes to be in readiness within the next week. Mr. Miles is an experienced cafe man and expects to conduct an up to date place.

The American best sugar company will this year build at least twelve automatic best dumps at stations in the different districts. One of these will be at Maxwell, another in the Hershey district, and we understand one also at Keystone on the North River branch.

Articles of incorporation of the Wellfleet Mercantile Co. have been filed with the county clerk. The capital stock is $10,000, and the business to be transacted is general merchandising at Wellfleet. The incorporators are S. A. Booth, R. A. Booth and C. F. Hicks.

Unless new cases develop, which is not probable, all the small-pox patients will be released from quarantine the early part of next week. None of the patients have suffered ill effects; in all cases the disease was extremely light and few were really so sick as to keep them from partaking of three "squares" each day.

Two fire alarms were turned in Tuesday afternoon. One resulted from burning grass and a fence which threatened buildings on the premises of Ray Robinson on west Sixth; the other due to an overheated stove in the Brooks house on east Fourth. The damage was very light in both cases.

North Platte friends will regret to learn that J. H. Hershey, now of Olathe, Kan., has been compelled to have one of his eyes removed. About a year ago he was struck with a missile thrown by a boy, and while the sight was not completely destroyed the eye became very painful and as no relief could be obtained it was at last concluded to remove it and substitute an artificial ball.

About 125 North Platte men attended the boxing contest at Brady Tuesday evening, making the trip on a special train provided by Lem Bailey, one of the promoters of the affair. The contest was between Sailor Kelly and Smith, ten rounds, and was witnessed by about 300 people. The men went at each other with a vim, and furnished good amusement for the crowd.

That snow yesterday was certainly welcome. In the amount of moisture it was the heaviest of the season, and moisture is always—or nearly always—the crying need of this section. For the next month we need a good many days of like precipitation. If the ground is well moistened when spring opens it augurs well for a good crop of farm products.

The councilmen who retire this spring are Sullivan from the First, Goodman of the Second and VonGoetz, who was appointed to fill a vacancy from the Third. In addition to these there will be two councilmen to elect for the new ward recently created. As the election is held the early part of April, it will soon be time for nominations to be considered.

This office is in receipt of an official circular issued by the Rock Island road announcing the appointment of W. F. Moran master mechanic of the Louisiana division of that road. He will have his headquarters at El Dorado, Ark. Mr. Moran is a North Platte boy, having learned the trade of machinist in the local shops, and his present position is evidence that since leaving North Platte he has "made good," advancing step by step up to the master mechanicship.

Personal Paragraphs.

Miss Hazel Stryker, of Lincoln, is the guest of friends in town.

R. L. Baker has been transacting business in Omaha for several days.

Rev. Herbert Covell left yesterday noon for his home in New York City.

Miss Lizzie Weinberger has returned from a visit with friends in Lincoln and Gretna.

Rev. Fleishman, of Omaha, visited his son Harry Wednesday while enroute to the west.

Mrs. W. J. Landgraf is visiting friends in Omaha, having left for that city Tuesday.

Joseph Habler visited friends in town a day or two this week, returning to Sidney Tuesday night.

James Rodden, of Denver, has been in town for several days, called here by the death of his mother.

Miss McKenna, a nurse at the Physician & Surgeons' hospital has gone to Omaha for a month's visit.

Mrs. Nora West, who had been visiting her parents for several weeks, left Wednesday for her home in Basin, Wyo.

Mrs. Ella Bagby left for her home in Springfield, Ill., Sunday after a three weeks' visit at the Geo. Austin home.

Mrs. Chas. Hoffbine, of Cheyenne, visited relatives in town a couple of days this week returning home Wednesday night.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. McGinley, of Ogalala, came down Wednesday to attend the funeral of the late Mrs. Elizabeth Rodden.

Mrs. Louise Peters, of the Timmerman Hotel, went to Omaha Wednesday night to transact business for a few days.

Rev. Allen Chamberlain, son and daughter returned Wednesday night from Malvern, Iowa, where the funeral of Harold Chamberlain was held.

Lorenzo Guffy, clerk in the Schiller drug store, is confined to the house by a severe attack of rheumatism. His place is being filled by Gordon Cronin.

G. W. Stroup, of Omaha, spent yesterday in town while enroute home from a western trip.

H. E. Votaw, of the Maywood Milling Co., transacted business in town yesterday.

Miss Helen May Allen returned Wednesday night from her visit in Cozad and will resume class instructions at the Keith theatre Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Sanford Hartman returned yesterday from their trip to Southern California, arriving home during the only storm of the winter. Their transition from the land of flowers to a snow covered earth was quite a radical change.

W. R. Vernon, of Julesburg, spent yesterday in town transacting business and visiting friends. He says he is well pleased with the change from railroading to farming—he escapes that "rawhiding" which his former position brought.

Mrs. W. T. Beery has issued invitations for a card party on Monday, February 27th.

Mrs. Albert Muldoon will be hostess at the session of the Harmony Club Monday evening.

The county commissioners will meet in session Tuesday of next week and will transact business of importance for several days.

"Madame Sherry" and Its People.

"Madame Sherry" is coming to North Platte, to the Keith Theatre, on Monday night, Feb. 20.

Once in many years a musical comedy is produced which combines all the elements that go to make an audience thoroughly enjoy itself and cry for more. Such a production is "Madame Sherry," the gay French vaudeville offered by Woods, Frazee and Lederer and which has scored a triumph by the side of which all other musical successes of the present decade pale and grow insignificant. "Madame Sherry," in its original French form, delighted the Parisians for two years, and versions of it have been enjoyed by Berlin, Vienna and London. It was Otto Hauerbach, the brilliant young librettist, who constructed the American version, while Earl Hoschna furnished the musical score, any one of whose twenty-two gems would have carried any musical production to success. One of its numbers in particular, "Every Little Movement Has a Meaning All Its Own," has become a world-wide furore, and it is being sung, played and whistled wherever music is known. Chicago, who first passed judgment on "Madame Sherry," pronounced it the best musical comedy in years, and kept it all summer; very quietly the production opened at the New Amsterdam Theatre, in New York, last August, and the next morning the metropolis knew that "Madame Sherry" was just the dainty diversion it had been looking for in vain for many years, and the delightful gaiety has been breaking all attendance records ever since.

Book and music, however, are by no means the only remarkable features about "Madame Sherry," and even without so much that is bright and laughable in the comedy, and tuneful and whistlable in the score, the production would be one above the ordinary. Very seldom does one find so many excellent parts in a musical comedy, and still more seldom are so many capable people engaged in one company to portray them. The pick of the musical comedy world has been secured for "Madame Sherry," and each member of the cast contributes generously to the success of the performance. There are Oscar Figman, for the past three years chief comedian with "The Merry Widow" and formerly star of "The Tenderfoot" and "The Burgomaster;" there is Ann Tasker, the daintiest figure on the musical stage, who scored so emphatically last year in New York as prima donna of "The Silver Star," Mary Quive, younger sister of Grace Van Studdiford, and herself prima donna of "Woodland" and "The Country Girl" recently; Lottie Kendall, star of the Kendall Opera Company, so popular in San Francisco for several years; Dorothy Morton, one of the favorites of farce and musical comedy; Harry Benham, a light comedian of exceptional ability; William Cameron, the nimble footed comedy star; Harold Rehill, Edward Elkas and numerous others equally clever. The famous feminine talking chorus made popular by "Madame Sherry" in New York, will be seen here, as well as three of the most beautiful stage settings ever offered in a musical production.
