The Elks held a regular meeting last evening, initiated several candidates and received about twenty applications for membership. Messrs. O. E. Elder, E. H. Evans and Ray C. Langford were appointed as the house committee for the new building and the Elks Club.

A motion was made and carried that after April 1st the initiation fee will be fifty dollars, instead of twenty-five as heretofore. At the close of the ceremonies last evening a lunch was served.

The proposed proposition to vote bonds for a city hall has not yet created any discussion, but it is probable that it will meet with some opposition from those who are opposed to bonds on general principles. North Platte needs a city hall, especially for the storage of its fire apparatus, and it needs quarters for officials. Smaller towns in Nebraska than North Platte have city buildings and find them a paying investment.

Your diamonds and fine jewelry should be examined at intervals to see if any of the prongs are worn to such an extent as to allow the stones to loosen. We will give you our opinion gratis, and should they need re-setting we have expert workman to do the work in our own shop.

DIXON, The Jeweler.

The eastern metropolitan papers state that the railroad officials of the country will meet this week and outline action to be taken in view of the denial of increased freight rates. It is hinted that they will attempt to reduce the wages of employees. This, however, is not likely to occur, for undoubtedly the railroad labor organizations will resort to a strike before submitting to a reduction in wages, and in the end the employees would win. Another hint is thrown out that there will be a wholesale reduction in the force of employees. This, too, is not likely to occur, that is, the reduction will not be large. The railroads of the country today are not employing very many more men than they really need and must have in order to do business.

Successful Supper.
The supper given by the Girls' Society of St. Patrick's church in the Elk's building Saturday evening proved a most successful one, 345 people being served and the young ladies netting about $75.00. The menu was sufficiently varied to suit all and it was well prepared and nicely served. If the girls of the society prepared the eatables, the gray haired man of The Tribune has no hesitancy in recommending them as good cooks to the young men who are looking for a future happy home.

Bad Fire at Ogalalla.
Ogalalla was visited by a disastrous fire Sunday morning, the second within a few months. Sunday's fire started on the west side of the main street in a building occupied by Osborn's meat market and spreading rapidly to adjoining buildings practically cleaned out the row of frame buildings on the block. In addition to the meat market the following were burned out: Keith County News printing plant, Kendall's restaurant, postoffice, Odd Fellows' hall, Lucas' jewelry store, Bradley's harness store, Bisco's harness shop, Pfeiffer's ten cent store, and the real estate offices of E. M. Searle and Mr. Kibler. The wind was blowing strong and with the limited fire fighting apparatus on hand, the citizens were unable to cope with the flames. In each instance the loss of goods was almost complete.

The Proposed Hospital.
Mr. Editor:
I am a lover of beautiful cities, good schools and churches, cosy, happy homes, nicely kept lawns, shady clean streets, uniform side walks, which every citizen and our city officials should and I believe do encourage.

It is, however, very discouraging if one or two men can be allowed to establish and operate a common hospital for private gain on adjoining residence property.

If this can be done no property owner is safe and every citizen who has the best interests of his city at heart should condemn such an outrageous proceeding. No property owner is safe in the enjoyments of a home that may have taken years of hard labor and many personal sacrifices on the part of family to build up, if these sore spots are allowed to be established and operated adjoining his home. If private hospitals must exist for private gain the parties establishing them should have some regard for his neighbors' homes and interests and thus not willfully damage and depreciate adjoining property, and there is no doubt, some law that will prevent. If not, public sentiment will in time resent it. Hospitals have a right to exist but should have ample ground or be placed in the outskirts of the city where no injury or damage can be done adjoining property.

I voice the sentiments of many property owners who have signed a protest against the location of a hospital in the Mrs. Church residence property, believing it is not for the best interests of our city or a proper location for a hospital. JOHN BRATT.

Dean Swift and the Cook.
"Moderation in all things" is the best precept for everyday life. There is a good story about Dean Swift apropos of the value of never overdoing anything.

The dean's cook one day overroasted the leg of mutton for dinner, and in consequence she was summoned to the dining room. "Cook," said the dean in a pleasant voice, "this leg of mutton is overdone; take it back and do it less."

"Impossible, your reverence!" exclaimed the cook.

"Well," replied her master, "supposing it had been underdone, you could easily have done it more."

"Certainly, your reverence."

"Then," said the dean, "let this be a lesson to you. If you commit a fault always take care that it is a fault which will admit of a remedy."

The Duration of a Dream.
One evening Victor Hugo was dictating letters to his secretary. Overcome by fatigue, the great man dropped into a slumber. A few moments afterward he awoke, haunted by a dream which, as he thought, had extended over several hours, and he blamed his secretary for sitting there waiting for him instead of waking him or else going away. What was his surprise when the bewildered secretary told him that he had only just finished writing the last sentence dictated to him.

Why "HELP" in the Kitchen NOWADAYS is hard to get!

will save labor and make her work more effective. If she attempts to do housework she finds most kitchens but little improved over the kitchens of 100 years ago.

Women who have Hoosier Kitchen Cabinets in their kitchens have little difficulty to get "help." If every woman owned a Hoosier Cabinet the help problem would be solved.

RHEUMATISM CONQUERED

At Last—By the Great British Remedy CELMO

IN TABLET FORM

This will be welcome news to many thousands of sufferers in America from Rheumatism, Arterio-sclerosis, Sciatica, Gout, all Uric Acid troubles. Especially to those who have been afflicted many years with the severest cases, who have tried many other remedies without avail. "Celmo" is not to be compared for one minute with the usual rheumatism remedies—it is entirely different—in a class by itself. But for its truly wonderful record it could not have become the most famous of all the great King Remedies of England—where climatic conditions, etc., make rheumatism even a worse foe to mankind than here. But for its multitude of real cures—honest cures—permanent cures—it could not have received such ever increasing endorsement from the conservative English people—from the humblest citizens to the Nobility, Army and Navy Officers and others high in the King's service.

Earl of Galloway Says:
"Oxford, Newton-Stewart, Scotland—I tried Celmo Tablets for Rheumatism for 2 or 3 months last winter; can truly say I derived much benefit; should be very glad to recommend a trial of them to anyone who is a sufferer from that malady. Yours faithfully, GALLOWAY."

The Earl of Pembroke
writes in a similar strain, adding: "I have recommended them to several friends whom I hope will derive similar relief. Yours faithfully, PEMBROKE."

Users invariably recommend Celmo to others.
"Celmo" since its introduction in various success here as to Europe. We've told you the reason. If you are tired experimenting with worthless and harmful preparations, try "Celmo." You won't regret it. Get a bottle today—$1.00. Ask your dealer for Free Booklet containing most convincing evidence.
