

KARNAK BRASS

FOR WEDDING PRESENTS

More unusual than Cut Glass or Silver is the wedding gift of KARNAK BRASS. It will appeal to every lover of art in metal.

KARNAK BRASS was inspired by the Temple of Karnak on the banks of the Nile. Built by Seti 1st over fifteen centuries ago, its ruins still stand, and gave to the designer of the Benedict Studios the idea of KARNAK BRASS.

Each piece is truly Egyptian in form, finished in an attractive combination of Antique Brass and Nile Green. Hand decorated, with one of the following characteristic motifs: The Lotus Flower, Iris, the Sphinx, Papyrus and Scarbeus.

Our line of KARNAK BRASS covers an interesting range of articles, single pieces and sets. The prices are as attractive as the goods.

District Clerk Prosser has been advised that it is not likely a jury will be called for the term of Federal court set for June 12, and that none will be called before the September term. Judge Grimes will probably hold an equity term about June 14.

Mrs. Helborn, who has been visiting her sister Mrs. J. H. Stone, was taken ill with appendicitis the latter part of last week, and on Tuesday was removed to St. Luke's hospital where an operation was performed. She is reported to be getting along nicely.

Gasoline 17½ cents a gallon at the Wilcox Department Store.

The committee appointed to solicit funds for a Fourth of July celebration, made a partial canvass of the business men yesterday and were met with so many discouraging remarks that they concluded that it was useless to attempt to raise the necessary funds. Therefore if our citizens desire a spread angle time they will perform celebrate elsewhere.

A number of town boys have been in the habit of swimming near the north bridge, and the practice has become a nuisance and strongly objected to by travelers. Sheriff Miltonberger has had a number of complaints the last week, and wishes to give the boys fair warning that if they do not desist from swimming so near the bridge arrests will be made, as the names of the offender are known.

Symbolic of marriage itself, a wedding present should endure for generations of service. Solid silver does this. That is the reason it has always been preferred for wedding gifts. May we show you some of our new patterns?
DIXON, The Jeweler.

The members of the high school, chaperoned by their teachers, went to Dick's grove this morning for an outing. Great preparations for the picnic had been going on for several days to say that the young folks will have a good time does not begin to express it. Autos, carriages, hayracks and other modes of conveyance were brought into requisition, to transport the merry crowd to the amusement grounds.

Alumni Banquet.

The 25th annual banquet of the North Platte Alumni association was held Wednesday evening in the parlor of the Timmerman Hotel, and was largely attended, covers being spread for about one hundred and twenty-five.

It was a great success in every particular and everyone present says it was a little the best of any of the banquets ever given by the association. A splendid program had been prepared and nicely carried out, and the 1911 graduates, as some express it, were "fasted, toasted and roasted" to a finish.

Following the invocation by Rev. McDavid, the toastmaster of introduction, Harry A. Smith, was the occasion by the President of the class, Mr. Carl Bonner, who was followed by a happy response by Will Votaw. The following toasts were then listened to and enjoyed to the utmost.

"Top of the World," Edith Patterson.
"Athletics," Victor Halligan.
"The Girl of Today," Frank M. Smart.
"Cabbages," Helen Smith.
"Uses and Abuses of Fashion," Clyde Fristo.

A very pleasant part of the evening program was a list of questions and answers by different persons. Question 10053 was, "How does the Cannibal chief prefer the young missionary cooked."

A toothsome menu was served, consisting of turkey sandwiches, pickles, olives, shrimp salad, ice cream, cake and coffee.

The mean temperature last month, as recorded by the local weather bureau, was sixty degrees, the warmest May we have had since 1902. The highest temperature during the month was ninety-five on the 24th. The total rainfall last month was 1.73 inches, which is less than during any May since 1900. The average fall for the month is 3.06 inches, and the existing deficiency since January is 1.87 inches. The total movement of wind last month was 7,156 miles, and the highest velocity thirty-six miles per hour.

Mrs. C. A. Dill, who soon leaves for Chicago, was given a farewell reception Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Henry Waltemath, who was assisted in the function by Mrs. E. T. Tramp and Mrs. G. S. Huffman. Many of the more intimate friends of the honor guest were present and passed a delightfully pleasant afternoon, though all expressed regret that Mrs. Dill was to leave them and the town in which she has resided for so many years. Mrs. Dill, as a remembrance of the occasion, was presented with a suitable token. Refreshments were served.

The State Junior Normal will convene next Monday, June 5th, and the teachers will begin coming tomorrow. It is expected that about the same number will be enrolled as last year, and ample accommodations have been arranged for them. Among the list of state instructors who comprise the faculty are: Hon. J. W. Crabtree, State Supt.; Supt. D. F. Dickerson, of Lexington; Supt. J. O. Lyne, Minden; Dr. J. A. Beattie, Cotner University; Supt. V. L. Strickland, Nelson; Supt. W. Tout, Miss Maude Mollyneau and County Supt. Wm. Ebright, North Platte.

The Travel and Study Club held its final session for the season at the home of Miss Mae Walker Saturday evening. Two members were initiated and incidentally it is learned that the ceremonies were as original as they were amusing. Officers for the ensuing year were elected as follows: President, Mrs. M. E. Crosby; vice-president, Miss Watts; secretary, Mrs. E. R. Goodman. The club has a membership of sixteen and during the past season many interesting sessions have been held. At the meeting Saturday evening elaborate refreshments were served.

Satisfied Buyers!

No sale inaugurated in North Platte has proven so satisfactory to buyers as the Alteration Sale now in progress at The Leader. We say satisfactory in a double sense, for while every customer has been fully satisfied with his or her purchase, it has been satisfactory to us, for we are rapidly getting rid of our enormous stock, and this means less stock to move when the carpenters and plumbers get busy July 5th on the big alterations we will make in the rooms we occupy. Those who have not taken advantage of this are making a mistake, for they can buy the best grades of merchandise at an actual reduction of from 20 to 50 cents on the dollar. This certainly means something to the economical buyer.

Remember we are closing out all our Carpets and Rugs at a very big discount Satisfaction on the Road :: And all the Time.

This monogram on the radiator stands for all you can ask in a motor car.

You get real satisfaction when on the road in a Chalmers Car—not merely the absence of motor troubles, freedom from mechanical annoyances, but satisfaction with yourself and in your standing with other motorists.

When you pass a fellow traveler in the open country, he unconsciously says to himself or his companion, "There goes a Chalmers;" and with the expression goes the confidence and admiration involuntary given to something standard.

When you drive up to your club or your office, whether it be on crowded Broadway or the quiet side street of the small city or country town, the Chalmers trade mark on the radiator "stands for all you can ask in a motor car." That monogram and what is behind it gives to the car, and through the car to the owner or passenger, the "class" which only goes with known quality, definite standing, reputation.

This reputation has been established, not by trying to make many cars, but by making good cars; not by getting customers, but by keeping them.

A great factory, and a greater organization stand behind every Chalmers car and every Chalmers owner. This organization offers to owners Chalmers service, which, like the car itself, is the best the motorist can buy. The testimony and experience of 15,000 users tell you just how good are Chalmers cars and the real meaning of Chalmers service.
