HE MUST GET BUSY

ATTORNEY OF DOUGLAS COUNTY IS SHIRKING DUTY.

"EITHER ACT OR GET OUT"

Must Get Busy or Be Replaced by a Man Who Will—Request to Donahue is But a Subterfuge.

Governor Aldrich sent a stinging letter to County Attorney English of Douglas county in which he states that that official's sidetracking of the recent communication sent out by him in regard to the enforcement of the Alberta disorderly house act does not meet with the executive's approval.

He further says unreservedly that unless proceedings are instituted at once he will take steps to furnish Douglas county with an attorney who will not hesitate to conform with his wishes in the matter.

The letter goes to Attorney English in reply to one received by Governor Aldrich in which the Omaha man said he had referred the state executive's communication to Chief of Police Donahue with a request for information of the existence of houses of ill-fame in the state's metropolises. In his letter Governor Aldrich says:

"I observe that you say in your letter that you have transmitted to the chief of police of your city a copy of your letter to me and upon receipt of information you will take such steps as the evidence justifies.

"Permit me to say, Mr. English, that I am calling on you as county attorney in and for Douglas county to enforce this one of the statutes of the state. If it had been the duty of the chief of police I would have called upon him and not upon you."

"I do not believe in French diplomacy. If I did, I would be tolerant of evasions, subterfuges and equivocations and in short, anything to evade a plain performance of duty. Chief Donahue is in no way under and by virtue of provisions of this statute connected officially with your office.

Governor Aldrich then says that the statute is not hard to enforce and he quotes from its provisions to illustrate to the county official that his duty in the case is clear.

"So when you refer this matter to the investigation of Chief Donahue I must plainly say that you are certainly not acting in good faith, and do not intend to enforce the law if you possibly can evade it. I have decided to see to it that this law is enforced and I shall use all the means at my command to see that it is done. If it is necessary for me to get a new county attorney in Douglas county to enforce this law, I shall take the necessary steps to do so and will not hesitate to assume this responsibility. This measure is one of the most important to good government and to society that has ever been placed upon the statute books of this state. It is indisputable that these assignment houses are the headquarters of murderers, criminals, thugs and thieves. When it is necessary to hold public meetings to provide for the safety of life it seems to me that no official should for an instant hesitate to lend his most energetic aid in the performance of his duty."

"Murders are too common and holdups too frequent to conduct the enforcement of this statute along diplomatic lines for the purpose of evading a plain duty. You and you alone are called upon to do your duty in enforcing the provisions of the statute in question. I shall hold you and you alone responsible for its enforcement. Now it's up to you to say, 'Yes' or 'No.'"

SHORTEN LIFE TERMS.

Some Interesting Figures on the Penitentiary.

The last report of penitentiary conditions show that there are 426 prisoners at that institution, of which number 20 are under sentences varying from 10 to 40 years, while the rest are sent there for periods ranging from six months to ten years. The figures show that there are of that number 321 whites, 98 negroes, 6 Indians, and 1 Korean. Two white and two negro women are included in the number. During the last two years four were received at the institution under the death penalty, while six convicted of first degree murder have been sent up for life, as well as three who have been convicted of second degree murder. During the biennium, which closed under Warden Smith, there were 31 prisoners received, who had been guilty of murder. Of this number 12 came from Douglas county. Thirty-six men were also brought in to serve time for attempts to kill.

While in charge of the penitentiary, Warden Smith, after examining the records, found a life sentence in the light of the past has meant only about seven or eight years, and that the longest term served by any man sentenced for the remainder of his years was only 15 years. This, despite the fact that many have been sent to the institution for life and many more for periods of from 20 to 25 years.

The penitentiary is almost self-sustaining, as the books show. The maintenance cost for the last biennium was $130,000, of which $33,000 was for salaries and wages, $65,000 for clothing, food and medicine and $27,000 for coal. The earnings are put down at $137,000, the principal items being: From contractors, $94,000; farm products, $27,500; electric current for other state buildings, $10,000; gate receipts, $2,500.

Brokers Slow to Buy.

State Treasurer George has expended all of the $600,000 received for the sale of bonds of other states with the exception of $133,000. He paid out the money for bonds issued by Nebraska counties and cities. He has just completed the purchase of $14,000 of Arapahoe refunding bonds and $8,000 of bonds issued by the town of Franklin for electric light. The bond broker who bought the California state bonds declined to accept $25,000 of the issue because the bonds were stamped not negotiable, so that the total sale of bonds of other states aggregates only $600,000. The total amount offered for sale was $4,000,000. Negotiations for the sale of the balance of that amount are progressing very slowly, brokers offering terms which the state board of educational lands and funds refuses to accept.

Cups to Guard Officers.

Adjutant General Phelps has received and will present two bronze cups to officers of the Nebraska national guard for excellence in marksmanship. One cup goes to Captain Iver S. Douglas County Appeals.

The county commissioners of Douglas county have appealed to the attorney general from a ruling of State Auditor Barton holding that the state is not liable for the board of prisoners between the time of the bringing in of a verdict by a jury and the time of sentence by a district judge. Douglas county has claims amounting to $3,000 hinging on this. Attorney General Martin, following a decision of Former Attorney General Norris Brown, holds that the state is not liable until prisoners are sentenced.

To Close Houses of Lewdness.

Governor Aldrich has on his own initiative started a movement to close all houses of lewdness and assignation houses in Nebraska. The last legislature passed an act which is now in force authorizing the closing of all such houses on relation of a county attorney or any citizen. The governor has notified the county attorneys of Douglas, Otoe, Platte, Hall and Dodge counties to institute proceedings against such places. He says it devolves upon the county attorney to enforce the law.

Guaranty Deposit Law.

State banks which are instructed to report their average deposits for a period of six months so that the amount of their assessment under the guaranty of deposit law may be made have in many instances applied to Secretary Royle for further information. Mr. Royle has replied that nothing must be deducted from the deposits except deposits otherwise secured and to include in deposits the amount due from other banks, also time and demand certificates of deposit certified and cashier's checks.

LORIMER MAY QUIT

RUMOR THAT HE WILL RESIGN HIS SENATE SEAT.

STORY IS NOT CONFIRMED

Senate Devotes a Whole Day to Discussion of Illinois Senator's Case.

Washington.—In the cloak rooms of the senate Friday there was much discussion of a persistent rumor that Senator Lorimer might resign before the new inquiry is actually authorized, to protect his friends from the attacks of those seeking to unseat him. Neither his colleague, Senator Cullom, nor any of the members of the Illinois delegation in the house, would admit they had any knowledge of such an intention on the part of Mr. Lorimer.

After devoting practically the whole session to the discussion of the proposed reinvestigation of the election of Senator Lorimer, the senate adjourned without action, determined to proceed again with the question at its next sitting Monday.

Senator La Follette concluded his fourday speech and announced that when the voting stage is reached he will so change his resolution as to provide that the senate shall elect an investigating committee of five from among the new senators. Senator Borah supported the La Follette proposition, and Senators Bailey and Dillingham opposed it.

Mr. La Follette said he had been influenced to introduce his resolution for special committee on inquiry following the Illinois investigation. New investigators had been provided for because he believed that the question should go to a committee not handicapped by a previous decision.

The next investigating committee, he felt, must have the confidence of the people, which he did not believe the old standing committee on privileges and elections would have. The public, he said, would consider the old committee packed from the beginning, even as has been charged in connection with the Illinois juries in prosecutions growing out of the case.

Mr. La Follette said if he were a member of the old committee he would not consent to serve on the new one, because he would not feel capable of an impartial verdict.

Mr. Bailey said that all the democratic senators desired a new investigation, he himself favoring it, because of the discovery of new evidence. He said the public sentiment against Mr. Lorimer was not well informed, because it had been shaped by newspaper expression rather than by reading of the testimony.

Saying there had been no investigation by a special committee on an election case since the creation of the committee on privileges and elections in 1871, Chairman Dillingham, of that committee, expressed confidence that if the investigation should be placed in its hands it would present such a report as would command the respect of the senate and of the country.

Senator Borah advocated a special committee in the interest of disinterestedness.
