

The North Platte Semi-Weekly Tribune

TWENTY-SIXTH YEAR.

NORTH PLATTE, NEB., JUNE 26, 1911.

No. 43.

TOWN AND COUNTY NEWS

Mrs. Mose McFarland returned yesterday from a visit in Denver.

Mrs. Julius Hahler is spending this week with friends at Schuyler.

Mrs. Thos. Orton and children went to Kearney this morning where they will visit a few days.

The O. E. S. will tender Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Boyd a reception at Masonic hall tomorrow evening.

The Presbyterian ladies will serve a supper in the church parlors this evening, the proceeds to go to the organ fund.

Miss Mayme O'Rourke returned to Brady Friday after a two weeks' visit with her grandmother, Mrs. M. J. Neary.

Miss Ruth Patterson, a teacher in the Omaha schools, arrived the latter part of last week and will spend the summer vacation here.

John Livingston, a boomer, was arrested Sunday night for drunkenness, but was allowed to go his way upon the promise to leave town forthwith.

John Shaner, of Maxwell, was in town last evening enroute to Greeley, Col., to visit his daughter Mrs. Kate Horn, who recently submitted to an operation.

Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas Klein returned Saturday from a two weeks' visit with their daughter Mrs. Lena Teol, who lives in the south part of Frontier county.

Is your idle money earning 7 per cent to 8 per cent semi-annual interest in safe first mortgage loans on good income property? If not, see

BRATT & GOODMAN.

Grading outfits are distributed at several points along the Callaway-Gandy extension of the Union Pacific, and the people of that section are happy over the assurance of rail communication with the outer world.

In company with Mr. W. W. Scott we organized a Sunday school about 30 miles northeast of town known as the Sleepy Hollow Sunday school with Mr. Seese as superintendent.

Mr. C. P. TURNER, Missionary American S. S. Union.

Master Leslie Bare is spending this week at the Hoy ranch in Garfield precinct.

Freight traffic on the Union Pacific is picking up, the increase being quite noticeable during the past ten days.

Hugh Brogan of Paxton, and well known here, was one of the graduates of Spaulding college last week at Spaulding, Neb.

The building and loan association held their regular meeting Saturday night and passed on $7,000 loans to be used in constructing new buildings in the city.

Why not profit by our experience in plumbing. Let us give you an estimate on the changes you are about to make in your plumbing or heating. Platte Plumbing & Heating Co.

Mrs. A. Witty and son arrived from Chicago Monday and will join Mr. Witty who is in charge of the American Telegraph and Telephone Co. here, and will in the future make this city their home.

The C. F. Iddings Co., sent a member of teams of lumber and other material to Gandy Monday, where they will open a branch lumber and coal yard, thus getting in on the ground floor in a hustling community.

A nocturnal ramble attempted to gain an entrance into the Episcopal rectory Sunday night but was frightened away by the appearance of Rev. Chapman, who heard the would-be burglar working at an outside door.

A half dozen or more motorcyclists made a run to Hershey Sunday. Enroute home the storm over took them at Birdwood and they were compelled to abandon their wheels. They wired to town for an automobile and were brought home by that means.

Trainmen from the east Monday report an accident at Wood River Sunday night, when a string of freight cars on the siding was backed into an auto. The auto was completely demolished and a lady and two men seriously injured.

I hereby announce myself as a candidate for the republican nomination for county superintendent, subject to the decision of the voters at the primary election August 15th. Your support is respectfully solicited.

WM. EBRIGHT.

Assistant express agent McLean has been on the sick list the past week, due principally to the extreme heat of the past few days.

Hurry! Hurry! If you want some of that decorated ware at Tramps grocery on Front store. After visiting the attractions at the carnival grounds come in and see the handsome showing.

More or less rain fell Sunday night in all portions of the state. In the eastern portion of the state the rain was accompanied by a heavy wind which blew box cars off the track, leveled trees and rized telephone lines.

At the Keith theatre next Thursday evening George Gion will wrestle Clarence Thompson, of Quincy, Ill. The event is under the promotion of Lem Bailey, which is a guarantee that it will be on the square. Gion has appeared here several times and is known as a good man on the mat. Thompson comes with a long string of victories.

The grasshoppers which were predicted would come this year have made their appearance at Edward Arnold's south of the river, and it is stated, are going right after his alfalfa and even eating young trees. The sugar beet men say that it looks pretty sickening to see them at work on this thrifty farmers place.—Maxwell Telescop.

John Mellen, traveling freight agent for the Northwestern, was a business caller in the city Saturday.

County Assessor Bacon and his deputy Miss Kate Clark completed footing the returns of the assessors Saturday and yesterday the board of equalization began its work. The board will remain in session for several days, and if you have a kick coming on the assessment of your personal property you had better make it this week or forever hold your peace.

For Rent—House at 514 West Fifth St. See Mrs. Jessie Hughes, 621 West Fifth St.

The Club Nevada was delightfully entertained on Wednesday afternoon by Mrs. Florin Muehlinski. Two contests were introduced for the main entertainment and prizes were won by Mrs. Tom Austin and Mrs. Andrew Yost. At five thirty a very dainty lunch was served after which a short business meeting was held. The club will meet in two weeks with Mrs. Andrew Yost.

Word from Mrs. Geo. H. French, who is taking treatment in Chicago, is not encouraging. For two weeks past she has been bedfast and her condition is critical.

The attraction in the China and Queensware department of Tramp's store is drawing the crowd this week. Keep in mind the number. Front street and follow the crowd.

The interest in the land seekers excursion being planned by C. F. Temple, continues to increase, and there will be quite a number go from here to Utah. The Hatchtown projects holds out inducements to the man with meagre means that no other section does. The climate there is the best and it is an ideal spot to make a home.

Raymond F. Burgner was arrested Sunday night for exceeding the speed limit on his pop-pop wagon. This is the second offence within two weeks and it is likely if proven guilty that the fine limit will be given him. He was fined one dollar and costs for the first offense but later Judge Warren suspended fine upon his promise to be careful in the future. Raymond will have a hearing this morning.

See our new pearl goods. They are gems of their kind.

DIXON, The Jeweler.

Mrs. G. T. Field was hostess at a very pleasant affair Friday afternoon when she entertained for Miss West her house guest. The beautiful and well appointed house was decorated with ferns and flowers for the occasion. The entertaining feature 500, was thoroughly enjoyed by the twenty-four young ladies. The fact that so many were just home from the different colleges made the afternoon one to be remembered and in the nature of a reunion added to the enjoyment of those present. In cutting for the prize, Miss Alice Birge was successful in winning a brass jewel case while the consolation prize, a cut glass salve box, went to Miss Nell Bratt. At the close of the games delicious refreshments were served. Mrs. Field was assisted by Mesdames Douglas and Woodhurst.

Headquarters at Clinton's.

Special piano bargains for the next thirty days. Call and investigate. We will move your piano.

WINDLE PIANO CO.

For Rent—House on West Seventh street. Phone 229.

W. T. Green of the Platte Plumbing Miss Elizabeth Sniegler of Grand Island, is visiting friends here this week.

Co., went to Lisco this morning to install a large hot water plant.

Are you insured against hail? If not, see Bratt & Goodman and get a policy in the reliable St. Paul.

Weather forecast for North Platte and vicinity: Fair tonight and Wednesday. Maximum temperature yesterday 81; one year ago 84. Minimum temperature this morning 49; one year ago 57.

L. B. Wilson, district manager of the Nebraska Telephone Co., came up from Grand Island yesterday to assist in the preliminary work on the new system to be installed here.

This morning's Omaha papers contains an item concerning the 4-year-old son of W. J. Potter of North Platte, who died in that city yesterday, caused from a kernel of corn lodging in the child's throat. The family is not known to residents of the city, nor could any information be learned from resident physicians regarding the accident.

Announcements were received here this week of the marriage of George A. McMichael to Miss Florence Ethel Smith at Detroit, Wisconsin, June 23. They will arrive here about July 4th, and after a brief visit with relatives and friends, go to Missoula, Montana, to make their home. George has hosts of friends who will join The Tribune in wishing them every joy and happiness.

There is no section of the country that is attracting the attention and interest of land seekers like that of the Hatchtown project of Utah, and it is expected that the first excursion there from this point will include many from North Platte and adjacent towns. Mr. C. F. Temple, who is conducting the excursion to that great irrigated section, says he is receiving constant inquiries from people at a distance, as well as here, and is planning to start sometime the early part of July.

Money To Loan On Real Estate.

Can supply Building & Loan money payable monthly or in one to five years straight loan. See Bratt & Goodman.

Notice to the Public.

North Platte, Nebr., June 27, 1911. You are hereby notified that the board of Equalization will be in session at the County Commissioners' office at North Platte, Nebr., from July 5 to 8 inclusive, to hear complaints with reference to the equalization of personal property. F. R. ELLIOTT, County Clerk.

Whooping cough is not dangerous when the cough is kept loose and expectoration easy by giving Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It has been used in many epidemics of this disease. For sale by all dealers.

For Sale.

Best bargains in houses, farms and unimproved land. A house in Grand Island to exchange for land or North Platte property. What have you?

BRATT & GOODMAN.

The woman of today who has good health, good temper, good sense, bright eyes and a lovely complexion, the result of correct living and good digestion, wins the admiration of the world. If your digestion is faulty Chamberlain's stomach and liver tablets will correct it. For sale by all dealers.

CRYSTAL THEATRE

To-Night

MOVING PICTURES:

"All for the Love of a Lady."
"Man's Diplomacy."

VAUDEVILLE:

The two bobolinks, Washington & Jones, colored entertainers in high class colored singing and whistling imitation.

10 and 15 Cents.

Good Styles
Shirt Waists
89^c

WILCOX DEPT. STORE

Fancy Silks
THE RIGHT KIND
69^c

Every Department of this Store is brightened and revived with new goods for our new goods sale, a sale that is unapproachable in the extent of its stocks in the newness of its goods, in the completeness of its trading facilities and opportunities and in the money saving nature of its Mighty Outpouring of Bargains.

We wish to announce that the remaining days of this sale will witness the giving of values even greater than those of the opening days. Thousands of values are here for you at remarkable savings. Come today you will probably want some.

N
O
R
T
H

P
L
A
T
T
E

27 x 54
Axminster Rugs
$1.48

Wilcox Dep't. Store

Ladies'
Dress Skirts
$4.98