

CAPTAIN SCOTT IN THE ANTARCTIC REGIONS

THE TERRA NOVA EMBEDDED IN THE ICE FLOE

THE first photographs of the British Antarctic expedition commanded by Captain Scott have been received from Cape Evans. The one here reproduced shows the Terra Nova almost trapped in the heavy ice of McMurdo Sound. The amount of canvas set indicates that the weather was fairly good. Unless the returning Amundsen party brings further news of the expedition, there will be no more word from Captain Scott until April of next year.

POOR BEGGARS' LIFE

Makes Study of Vagrant and Becomes One Himself.

Albert Clutterbuck, Charged With Begging, is Sent to Prison—Writes Book on Methods of Mendicants He Lived With.

London.—A document entitled "The Life of a Beggar" was written in an infirmary by Albert Clutterbuck, aged 23, who was charged with begging at Marylebone police court.

Parts of this, based on what the man heard and saw while living in a common lodging house, were read aloud by Mr. Paul Taylor, the magistrate, who described the document as "most interesting."

"Of course most of you have heard or know of Notting Dale, the home of beggars. When a baby is born in this noted district and gets to five or seven years of age, it is taken out with its mother and father and taught the way to beg. Its mother takes it in her arms and goes and molests ladies and gentlemen for means to buy the child some bread. Their 'bread' means beer, and most people know that, but they give to them to get rid of them.

"When the child has been learning in this way for about six years, it is sent out with about six pairs of laces, or a few matches, and with these it continually molests ladies and gentlemen and asks them to buy or give a few coppers. It keeps going out with these until about 16 or 17, and then leaves home to get married. By that time they know where to buy their stock of ferns, flowers, laces and matches, and where to borrow babies, etc."

A description followed of the beggars' homes and their weekly "feats," and the document then went on to describe the beggars' summer holiday, which, it said, was the only time when the beggar did any work. They "went on the road" to Kent, begging all the way, and after working for three or four weeks at fruit picking they drew their money, spent it at the nearest public house, and afterwards got a job at hop picking with

GIVES $1,500,000 TO NURSE

New Yorker, Long a Cripple, Leaves Most of His Fortune to House-keeper, Miss Peregrine.

New York.—By the will of Walter E. Duryea, the crippled athlete and broker, filed the other day, the bulk of his fortune, estimated at $2,500,000, goes to Miss Eleanor Peregrine, a trained nurse who acted as his house-their children. This over, they had a good drink of beer and walked home to their dens in Notting Dale, where they spent the few shillings they had left with their chums. "As for buying new clothes with it, you might as well ask a brick wall to get out of your way."

In sentencing the man to five days' imprisonment, the magistrate said that Clutterbuck had apparently made such a study of vagrant life that he had become a vagrant himself.

CODE FOR BATHING SEASON

New Chicago Chief of Police Bars Ballroom Exposures at Public Beaches—Gives Regulations.

Chicago.—Chief of Police McWeeney has a code of morals and dress for the Chicago bathing season of 1911. Here it is:

Women must not wear men's bathing suits; skirts must reach below the knees; loose bloomers reaching below the knees must be worn; bloomers must not be worn without skirts; sleeveless suits must not be worn by women; stockings must be worn by girls over 16; glove fitting suits for women are barred; harem, hobble and direttore skirts are forbidden; men must wear both shirts and trunks.

"The code goes for this summer," said McWeeney. "Exposure which would be permitted in a fashionable ball room will find no place at the public beaches. We will have policemen to give post graduate courses in bathing proprieties."

MILLIONAIRE HOBBO HAS QUIT

Edwin A. Brown Ends Last Trip as Tramp and Will Go to Europe to Study Problem Further.

New York.—Edwin A. Brown of Denver, famed as the "millionaire tramp," because of his excursions in search of information as to how the other half lives, is in New York at the end of his last excursion in overalls. He is through seeing the seamy side of life keeper for the last 12 years of his life.

She is given $50,000 outright, $30,000 in trust, a house in Montclair, N. J., and all the residue of the estate after certain legacies have been paid. Her total share is thought to be worth $1,500,000.

Walter Duryea broke his back in diving in August, 1899. He spent the rest of his life in a harness, but despite his slender hold on life managed his affairs with great shrewdness.

GIRLS HESITATE AT HUGGING

Co-eds of California State University Refuse to Fall into Arms of Chorus Men—Win Out.

Berkeley, Cal.—Seventeen co-eds of the senior class at the state university broke up a rehearsal on the stage of the Greek theater, declining to allow male members of the class to put their arms around them. The objection of the senior girls followed an attempt of Fred Carlisle, the coach, to have the co-eds of the "Baby Doll" chorus of "The Hop King," the commencement week play of the class, fall into the arms of male chorus men at the conclusion of the dance.

Claiming that they were not acquainted with the owners of the arms, never having been introduced to the men, the co-eds declined the proposed first meeting familiarity.

Coach Carlisle and members of the cast attempted to smooth over the strike of the co-eds, but they remained obdurate and the scene was temporarily dropped. The girls say they came up to the exigencies of the production by appearing in short dresses and the proposed familiarity was altogether lacking in dignity. The feature will be dropped for the present unless Carlisle is able to bring the men and women of the chorus closer together.

Embargo on British Live Stock.

London.—The high commissioner for the Union of South Africa has been notified by his government that owing to the recent outbreak of foot and mouth disease no cattle, sheep and pigs shipped from Great Britain will be allowed to land in South Africa until further notice.

from the inside, he says, and henceforth will carry on by other means his work of impressing upon cities the necessity of providing for the worthy poor.

Mr. Brown has seen the inside of prison walls in every section of the country, always on the sole charge of not having enough money to buy food or a bed. The need of municipal lodging houses and similar institutions is the same everywhere, he says. His final trips, just completed, was through southern cities.

"I started from Cleveland last fall, he said. "From there I went to Cincinnati, Louisville, Memphis, Mobile, Houston and Dallas. Most of the southern cities are without facilities for sheltering the penniless stranger. Everywhere, however, I found the people hospitable and deeply interested in helping the friendless."

Brown will sail next month to Europe to study the tramp problem in Germany.

A Right Judgment

By REV. A. E. ANDRE
Pastor of Elm Covenant Church, Minneapolis, Minn.

TEXT—And we know that we are of God, and that the whole world lieth in wickedness.—John 5, 19.

Christ himself appeals to us, as he did to the Jews of old when he says: "Judge not according to the appearance, but judge the righteous judgment."

And well we need to heed the appeal. To judge by appearance is a most common weakness. Of all historical characters who have been subjected to the misjudgment of his fellow men does not Christ stand emphatically marked as the Misjudged One? Misjudged by his townsmen, misjudged by the spiritual leaders of his time, whose duty it was to have watched the signs of their times predicted by the prophets and so clearly fulfilled before their own eyes that he that runneth might read, and yet the majority failed to recognize the Anointed One.

Misjudged by scribes, Pharisees, the Sanhedrim with two notable exceptions, he did not even escape the total misjudgment of his own disciples and his own kin.

Not only did Christ's contemporaries fail to judge the righteous judgment. Others of other times, yea, even of our own, have shown the same lack of judgment. With the Jews as a nation and within the church, among the gentiles, though on different lines, misjudgment of Christ, that somber specter of unbelief, has tacitly adhered throughout the ages as a doleful heirloom.

Mary, in her lack of appreciation of the divinity of her child, fails to judge a righteous judgment when she found him in the temple questioning and hearing, and receives as a rebuke: "Wist ye not that I must be about my father's business?"

The scribes saw in him only the carpenter's son and, arrogant in their classical pride, asked with supercilious contempt, "Whence hath he then this learning?"

The Pharisees, blinded by their self-righteousness which amounted to self-worship and created around themselves an air of exclusive sanctity in nothing second to the caste feeling of the Brahman, seeing Jesus "receiving sinners and eating with them," and judging by appearances, saw in him only one of the puebel aspiring to a thing beyond his reach and ken and said: "Praise God, we know that this man is a sinner!"—John 10:24.

The priesthood, who, with the Pharisees only added burden to burden upon the people, without aiding them with their smallest finger, as well as the Sanhedrim as a whole, looked upon this Jesus who did well, helping all, as one playing to the galleries for ulterior purposes; a usurper and an interloper within.

The Jew of today judges most harshly of him who has done most to exalt the nation whose only excuse for existence is that he, the despised one, should come through it, for the despising of whom they are today despised, but through whom they shall see him whom they have pierced and acknowledged him the Messiah.

The Mohammedan judges of him as the prophet whose term has expired only to be supplanted by another.

The Unitarian, the Theosophist, the Brahma Sumaj, Reformed Buddhist and others of a similar stamp, agree in assigning to Christ a place in their systems as a good man, the best man, a teacher, a model, a prophet, yea even a God, lacking in judgment and failing to judge the righteous judgment.

And why? For, says Jesus, "Ye judge after the flesh."—John 8:15. Spiritual things must be spiritually discerned. God is a spirit and those that worship him must worship him in spirit and truth. Only those who have been spiritually regenerated, thus having received the spirit of God, can judge a righteous judgment of the person and divinity of Jesus Christ. No man can say that Jesus is the Lord but by the Holy Spirit.—1 Cor. 12:3. "Who is a liar but he that denieth that Jesus is the Christ? He is anti-Christ who denieth the Father and the Son."—1 John 2:22.

Is then Christ misjudged by all? No, blessed be God, he has yet a remnant preserved unto himself "7,000 knees who have not bowed unto Baal."

Then asked Jesus of them, "Whom say ye that I am?" And Simon Peter answered and said, "Thou art the Messiah, the Son of the living God." And Jesus answered and said unto him, "Blessed art thou, Simon Barjona, for flesh and blood hath not revealed it into thee but my father which is in Heaven."

The man who was born blind, healed by Jesus, driven out of the synagogue by the blinded priests and Pharisees, judged a righteous judgment and acknowledged and worshipped Jesus as the Son of God.—John 9.

Jesus himself said (John 10), "I am the Son of God, and furthermore the Father and I are one, he who seeth me seeth the Father."

At his baptism and at the transfiguration God himself by a voice out of Heaven bore him witness. This is a sure saying worthy of all acceptance. Let us ask of him and he will give you the spirit who will lead us into all the truth as it is in Christ Jesus.

Musical Note.
A music teacher in a New England school was trying to make the children in the fourth grade understand the value of a triplet—to get them to know that three quarter-notes under a brace were equal to two quarter-notes.

She couldn't make them understand; and finally, in despair, she asked: "What are three little babies born all at the same time called?" "Accidentals!" shouted a small boy, with a vague remembrance of the lesson of a week before.

Sincere Prayer.
Teacher—Now, Tommy, suppose a man gave you $100 to keep for him and then died, what would you do? Would you pray for him?
Tommy—No, sir; but I would pray for another like him.—The United Presbyterian.
