Miss Fenna Beeler went to Kearney yesterday to attend a house party given by the Misses Brown, daughters of the United States senator. She expects to visit at Kearney for a week.

Petitions have been issued asking the council to submit for rejection or acceptance by the voters the ordinance recently passed granting a twenty five year franchise to the Nebraska telephone company.

The growth of western Nebraska is well illustrated by McPherson county. In 1890 that county had a population of 401, in 1900 it was 517, and in 1910 it had grown to 2,470. McPherson county has been populated with Kinkaid homesteaders, and in most instances they are making money.

Twelve couples of young people constituting the liveliest "bunch" in town, held a picnic at the Dick grove Sunday and from hearsay their reputation as live wires was well sustained. Picnics are held for pleasure, why not get all out of them possible.

Two "peeping Toms" were discovered at the P. H. Sullivan residence Sunday evening. They were peering into the room occupied by Henry Sullivan, who immediately arose and armed with a stick went outside the house, whereupon the peepers made a hasty exit. The Sullivan family have since laid in a supply of guns, and a return visit of the fellows will be warmly received.

Notice.

Sealed bids will be received by the county clerk of Lincoln county, Neb., up until noon on the 1st day of July 1911 for caskets and burial of paupers. The county commissioners reserve the right to reject any or all bids. F. R. Elliott, County Clerk.

Work Will Soon Start.

after you take Dr. King's New Life Pills, and you'll quickly enjoy their fine results. Constipation and indigestion vanish and fine appetite returns. They regulate stomach, liver, and bowels and impart new strength and energy to the whole system. Try them. Only 25 cents at Stone Drug Co.

Miss Irene Blauvelt, sister of Mrs. Fred Warren, returned to her home at Endicott, Neb., after three week's visit here.

Glenn Thomas, stenographer in the office of Engineer Stimson of the U. P., was taken to the company hospital at Grand Island Friday night. He has been very sick for several days.

A very good quality of Southern watermelons made their appearance in the local market the latter part of last week. They retail at four cents per pound.

Rev. Porter held preaching services at the McNeel school house Sunday afternoon. He was accompanied by Mr. J. Kennedy of New York City, who is on his way home from the coast.

Mrs. Borden, aged 66 years, mother of Arthur Borden of Wallace, died at his home Friday night of cancer of the stomach. The remains were taken to the former home of deceased, Republican City, Nebraska.

The south room of the Hinman building on Dewey street is being improved with a metal ceiling and new front. The room will be occupied by Minor Hinman as a garage and sales-room for the Chalmers-Detroit car.

Salesman Kearney, for the Wright & Wilhelm Co., who has been making regular pilgrimages to this section for years, will make North Platte his home in the future. He moved his family here from Norton, Kas., last week.

Supt. Dickerson, instructor in the sciences in the Junior Normal, was detained from his work yesterday morning on account of not being able to make connections with the train Sunday night at Lexington, the storm there being too severe to venture out of the house.

A fine rain fell Sunday night which will keep corn in fine growing condition. From all over the county comes the report that corn is in gilt-edged condition. With the increased acreage of corn the loss of the small grain crop will not be severely felt if corn does well.

Pitcher Moon of the Gothenburg team was in the city Saturday talking baseball with local fans and incidentally advertising the big Fourth of July celebration at his home town. He says great preparations are going on for the event and he took occasion to extend a hearty invitation to all our citizens to come and spend the day with them.

C. H. Watts, of Fort Morgan, Colo., has moved his family and effects onto the W. B. Ellis ranch, which property he acquired some time ago, the consideration being in the neighborhood of $20,000. Mr. Ellis will move to town after his sale, June 27th, and will occupy one of the three cottages which he bought on east Eleventh st.

Undertaker Maloney says he has been out in many a storm but nothing quite as bad as Friday night when leaving Wallace. The electrical storm was the worse that has visited that section for a long while, but they had no rain to speak of. He was called to Wallace to prepare the body of the late Mrs. Borden for shipment to Republican City, Neb.

Senator W. V. Hoagland was not in the best of spirits yesterday morning. He had planned on making a necessary trip to Gandy in his car but was obliged to postpone the journey on account of an accident the previous night when taking a pleasure jaunt with his family. The party was nearing the bridge east of the city, when a sudden jolt of the car broke a spring, and then had to trail slowly back to town.

The ball game Friday afternoon between the Sutherland and Yeomen teams resulted in a score of 20 to 4 in favor of the Yeomen. Evidently the latter had a little surprise package up their sleeves and handed it out liberally to the visitors. The team is strengthening up and will give the North Platters a strenuous struggle at the next session if even one half that is said about their many new finds is true.

For Sale.

160 acres of land five miles south of Hershey, Neb., improved, ninety acres under cultivation. Price $25 per acre. Good terms. Address J. B. Montgomery, Cozad, Neb.

Mrs. Wm. Maloney has returned from Bayard, Iowa, where she was called three weeks ago by the death of her brother.

Mrs. Koontz, who makes her home with her son John, was taken to the hospital last week to have a cataract removed from her eye.

Work of laying off ground and making a road to approach the new school house site a mile east of the Bratt school, was begun last week.

Mrs. Frank McKesson of Lincoln was a guest of Mrs. J. J. Halligan Saturday and Sunday, on her way to Denver and points of interest in Colorado.

Conductor Mike Graham has been transferred to Greeley, Colo., and will have the passenger run on the motor car. He moved his family last week.

Dick Baker of the Iddings Lumber Co., went to Gandy Friday on business connected with the establishing of a branch yard in the new town of Pleasant vale.

The residence property owned by Mrs. Sarah Bangs, 702 West Fourth St., and occupied by Supt. Tout, was sold last week to Chas. Herrod. Consideration $3,900.

Wanted—A good mare pony. Inquire at A. F. Fink's harness shop. S. W. Manon.

J. A. Markett of the old Longley place, sold a fine horse to Maurice Fowler last week for $200. The animal is considered one of the best in this section and Maurice had been after it for a long time.

Will Turpie, who went to Wyoming about a month ago with Messrs. Montgomery, Kelly and Ed. Coker, to look over the country with a view of acquiring some land, returned Friday. Montgomery and Kelly have located in the northwest part of the state.

Lincoln county farmers are beginning to invest in silo tanks. Among the latest to make such purchase are F. J. Bremer who takes one of 150-ton capacity and Albert Haspel one of 100-ton capacity. Other farmers of this immediate section contemplate purchasing tanks.

E. R. Goodman made a trip into the southwest part of the county last week. It is his opinion that with a good rain at this time and again about the tenth of July corn will be assured, for it does not show signs of suffering from the drouth.

A year ago hogs were selling at a ten cent figure in South Omaha, today they are six cents. That is a drop of forty per cent. Has any one noticed that he is getting ham, bacon and lard forty per cent cheaper than a year ago. Those who notice such a difference please hold up your hands.

Some people think their local paper don't amount to much—"is never read nohow"—until they happen to jump the traces, get into some devilment, go fishing on Sunday and tell their best girl they had to work, demolish a car and their passengers in a "joy ride"—then how quickly they come running to have the news suppressed.

Leo Pass, who has just returned from school work at Denver, where he presided behind the bat for the Sacred Heart school team, has been persuaded by the Yeomen to captain their team, and will proceed to reorganize and inject life into the organization. Those who witnessed his work Friday in the Sutherland-Yeomen game say he is the goods and expect to see some rattling good games pulled off here in the near future. A game for next Friday was booked last week between the Yeomen and Gothenburg clubs, and arrangements made to have the Carnival-band furnish music during the game.

Bishop/Beecher has not abandoned his idea of establishing a farm for boys at some point in western Nebraska, on which will be sheltered, fed and worked, the homeless boys of the larger towns of the state. One man from Brazil, South America, whom the bishop met at a small hotel the other day and who heard him speak at the Sunday services about the boys' farm, gave him a cash donation for the purpose and stated that he would do something handsome in the matter in the near future. "This is the first deposit on the boys' farm proposition," said the bishop, "and I feel sure the plan will win out and be a big field for usefulness in helping the boys who have gotten a wrong start."

A Dreadful Wound

from a knife, gun, tin can, rusty nail, fireworks, or of any other nature, demands prompt treatment with Bucklen's Arnica Salve to prevent blood poisoning or gangrene. It's the quickest, surest healer for all such wounds as also for Burns, Boils, Sores, Skin Eruptions, Eczema, Chapped Hands, Corns or Piles. 25 cents at Stone Drug Co.

S. B. Parr and wife departed Saturday morning for St. Paul, Minn., where he will take up the study of wireless telegraphy. They will make a visit at Madison, Wis., enroute and other places of interest.

Wm. Dietrich was up from Maxwell Saturday on business connected with the construction work of his new building. He says work on same is progressing nicely and expects to have it completed the last of August.

At a meeting of the Methodist Ladies Aid Society last week the members adopted a resolution favoring the proposition made by Secretary Tout of the Chautauqua that they serve a lunch on the Chautauquus grounds during the coming session. They chose Friday night and the concession will be granted. A nice lunch will be made up and put in a paper sack. Hot coffee will be provided and patrons are thus assured of a clean supper, the serving of which will be free from flies and dirt. Outdoor eating in the summer time is disagreeable unless these can be eliminated. The paper sack lunch guarantees a clean meal. All of the ladies' societies of the different churches have been offered the same concession for other evenings and some of them will undoubtedly accept.

The Keith theatre was packed to the doors Friday night by an interested audience to listen to the concert by the North Platte band. Previous to opening the doors of the hall the band rendered several pieces in front of the theatre which drew a big crowd. The band, by frequent and earnest practice of late has made great improvement and the concert was fully enjoyed by everyone. The proceeds from the benefit amounted to almost $100, fifty per cent of which went to the band. About $175 has been raised by subscription which will go a long ways toward buying necessary music, paying for uniforms, etc. The band boys expect to play at the State Fair this year and perhaps will go to Omaha for the Akasben festivities.

Wins Fight for Life.

It was a long and bloody battle for life that was waged by James B. Mershon, of Newark, N. J., of which he writes: "I had lost much blood from lung hemorrhages, and was very weak and run down. For eight months I was unable to work. Death seemed close on my heels, when I began, three weeks ago, to use Dr. King's New Discovery. But it has helped me greatly. It is doing all that you claim." For weak, sore lungs, obstinate coughs, stubborn colds, hoarseness, in grippe, asthma, hay-fever or any throat or lung trouble its supreme. 50 cents and $1.00. Trial bottle free. Guaranteed by Stone Drug Co.
