Attorney Evans appeared for the prosecution and Atty. Roach for defendant. Judge Grant will give his decision in the matter this morning.

A. F. Frame, the well known ranchman from Hershey was mingling with the merry makers here Wednesday and greeting old friends. Mr. Frame has a great deal of faith in the future of Lincoln county, and said that even though small grain and corn should not pan out well, in his section, there is hay a plenty, that will make feeding a profitable business. He took particular notice of the country along the road as he came to town and said the fields present a city of haystacks, alfalfa fields growing on every hand.

A. for members of the order and their friends. This is the second organization to ask for this concession.

Master Butler Miltonberger, in a letter to his mother, stated that the cross country club boys reached Maywood Sunday afternoon where they drove stakes and camped until Monday afternoon, and had a happy time fishing and bathing in the fine lake. Evidently the boys had a real taste of camp life Friday night, at least one can draw such conclusions from his reference to their experiences. He says, "Oh you camp life in a storm." The boys are all well and enjoy their outing.

The funeral services for the little son of W. J. Potter of Hershey, who died in a hospital at Omaha Monday while under the influence of chloroform, was held Wednesday at the residence, burial being made in the North Platte cemetery. Mention of the death of the boy was made in Tuesday's issue, but the item in the Omaha papers was misleading as it stated that the family lived in North Platte. The child, who was but four years old, had swallowed a kernel of corn that lodged in his throat, several weeks ago, and he was taken to Omaha after the doctors had failed to extract it. He died while on the operating table.

Hon. H. M. Grimes addressed the Junior Normal Wednesday morning on the subject, "The Courts," and he said many interesting as well as instructive things about the workings of the machinery of the laws of the land. In the near future Supt. Snyder of the experimental farm will talk to the teachers at the normal and it is planned that later the teachers will make an excursion to the farm where a practical demonstration of the methods of dry farming will be presented. The normal has been very fortunate this year in securing able speakers and they will no doubt profit much by the many practical talks given.

Pass Bogus Checks.
A horse buyer of South Omaha, professing to be H. P. Hansen, of North Platte, attempted to pass a check for $300 on a horse dealer in that city Tuesday, the fellow having bought some horses, gave the check in part payment saying he would pay the balance Wednesday morning. Presumably the man who sold the horse meantime became suspicious and wired the McDonald bank of this city whether a check by H. P. Hansen was good. The bank took up the matter by phone with Mr. Hansen, the ranchman, living northwest of the city, who disclaimed any knowledge of having given his check for that amount to anyone. Word was then sent to the horse dealer at South Omaha of the worthlessness of the check, and Chief Otten also wired the chief of police at South Omaha to arrest the man as it is supposed he is the same party who passed bogus checks amounting to about $30.00 on G. S. Huffman, the cigar dealer, O. E. Well, of the Vienna restaurant and the Palace Cafe.

A warrant was sworn out in police court Wednesday by Otto Well against Thos. Fitzgerald, for passing worthless checks. He is supposed to be the same party that passed the check for $500 in Omaha, signing his name as Hansen.

Died in Hospital.
Mrs. Rose Griffith, who was brought here from Calloway, a few weeks ago for medical treatment, died Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock in the P. & S. hospital. Death was due to dropsy and a complication of ailments from which the deceased had suffered for a long time. She was the sister of Mrs. Blanche Owens, of this city and the aunt of Mrs. Will Spiegel and Perry Sawyer. Her husband, Geo. Griffith, who has been here during her confinement in the hospital, is a well to do ranchman of Curtis. She was 43 years of age.

A delegation of the Odd Fellows Lodge, of which Mr. Griffith is a member accompanied the remains to Curtis, on train No. 18 yesterday, where interment will be made.
