J. E. Rodman, gardener for the U. P. has been in town several days on business and investigating the damage by the recent hail storm to the trees on their land at the Points.

Two wall bracket writing tables have been placed in the lobby of the post-office for the convenience of patrons, which is a needed improvement at slight expense.

Save what's left of your corn by insuring against loss by hail with Bratt & Goodman at lowest rates.

Farmers in town yesterday from all directions report more or less damage from the hail storm of last Friday. Quite a number of men caught in the storm were rather severely pounded by the stones.

Rock Island trains between Omaha and Denver are still being detoured over the Union Pacific. Eight of these trains are scheduled to pass through today. The wash out between Phillipsburg and Smith Center, Kan., had about been completed Sunday, when another heavy rain fell and washed out the track that had been repaired. It is now thought traffic over the Rock Island will be resumed Thursday.

We are making loans on real estate to help you build, buy or improve. This money can be returned in monthly or in three to five years—as you wish. BRATT & GOODMAN.

W. D. Adamson who left last Thursday with his wife and family in his touring car for their home in New Mexico, made the trip from North Platte to Cheyenne in fourteen hours. Geo. Field, of lumber fame, did a better, as he made the trip in his new car in thirteen and a half hours. It is hoped Mr. Adamson will be more fortunate returning, than he was coming, for in some unaccountable way he lost his pocket book and ninety dollars it contained. When coming thru the Rockies, a car from the east ran into his. The speeder did not tarry but broke away without apology and sped on. Shortly afterward, the pocketbook was missed, but although careful search was made it could not be found and it is questionable if it ever will be.

Perry Carson is transacting business in Gothenburg today.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Weeks returned yesterday from Omaha.

The Christian aid society will meet this week Mrs. L. E. Roach Thursday afternoon.

Weather forecast—Fair tonight and Wednesday, not much change in temperature. Maximum temperature yesterday 85; one year ago 85. Minimum temperature this morning 66; one year ago 57.

The North Platte band gave a splendid concert last night which was enjoyed by a large crowd of music lovers. This concert was held in place of the regular Friday evening program which was postponed on account of the storm.

The Woman's Missionary Society of the Presbyterian church will hold its regular meeting in the Sunday school room off the church at 3:00 o'clock Friday, Aug 11th. The program prepared is in the interest of children. All the little folks of church and congregation are asked to be present.

J. E. Rodman, the Union Pacific forester, has been in town for a day or two examining the young alfalfa trees in the U. P. plantation which were stripped of their leaves by the hail Friday afternoon. Mr. Rodman says that while the trees look rather badly, new sprouts will spring from the roots next spring even though it develops that the body of the trees are dead.

Bob Blankenburg living five miles east of the city had the misfortune to be caught in the hailstorm Friday afternoon. He was operating his sweep in the field when his horses became frightened and ran away, coming in contact with a wire fence, which was shortly afterward struck with lightning rendering Mr. Blankenburg unconscious and destroying six sections of the fence.

Ray Clark, of Lewellen, appeared in the Justice Sullivan's court Saturday charged with damaging the bedding at the Peterson rooming house by smoking cigarettes in bed which ignited the coverings and burned through. He was fined $1.00 and costs and ordered to make good the loss, which he did yesterday and returned home with his parents this morning. Clark is about 14 years of age.

The Lutheran Brotherhood will entertain the members of the church and their families at a picnic at Ottenstein's grove Wednesday afternoon and evening. A game of ball heads the list of sports for the afternoon at which it is expected Sandall will make several of his famous home runs. The fats and loans will be given a chance to show their ability to win foot races. In fact the committee has arranged for a full entertainment. Dinners will be served in old fashioned picnic style promptly at seven. Be prompt as Claude Weingand expects to be there and everyone knows what that means. The North Platte band has been engaged to furnish music for the evening's entertainment. COMMITTEE.

A Successful Fly Trap.

Dr. A. J. Ames had a wire fly catcher made Saturday and Sunday placed it in front of the Enterprise bakery near the alley. It now contains several quarts of flies, and its success is such as to commend its use in every household. We understand the city will be asked to have fifty or a hundred of the traps made and placed where the flies most thickly congregate. The cheapness of its construction is also in its favor.

The fixtures are now being made in Quincy, Ill., and are of the latest and most approved styles. Mr. Austin will carry a complete stock of watches, clocks, diamonds and jewelry and will leave in a few days to purchase stock.

Sunday afternoon Officer Trout received a message from H. Armstrong, chief of police of Denver, stating that two men were headed this way in a 1912 Elmore five passenger car which they had stolen from Gordon H. Ollis of Denver. At 7:30 that evening "Butch" located the fellows and the car at the Brick barn on east Front street and after fastening the car with a lock and chain arrested the men, one of whom is George O. Berg, of Denver. The case came up in the county court yesterday but was continued until an officer from Denver arrives with requisition papers and a complaint, which will be today. Berg claims that he owns half the car and has a bill of sale for one-half but the license and factory numbers of auto are not on same. Attorney Rosch received a phone message yesterday saying the case had been filed in the district court in Denver.

Thirty Years Together.

Thirty years of association—think of it. How the merit of a good thing stands out in that time—or the worthlessness of a bad one. So there's no guesswork in this evidence of Thos. Ariss, Concord, Mich., who writes: "I have used Dr. King's New Discovery for thirty years, and its the best cough and cold cure I ever used." Once it finds entrance in a home you can't pry it out. Many families have used it forty years. Its the most infallible throat and lung medicine on earth. Unequaled for lagrippe, asthma, hayfever, croup, quincy or sore lungs. Price 50c. and $1.00. Trial bottle free guaranteed by Stone Drug Co.
