The Primary Election.

The vote polled at the primary election was much heavier than at former primaries, especially in this city, where the total vote on the republican candidates for sheriff was 802. This heavy vote, however, represented about 250 democrats who voted at least part of the republican ticket. While the returns are not officially known, the abstract of the vote as reported shows the nomination of the following republicans: Durbin for treasurer. Yost for clerk, Salisbury for sheriff and Crosby judge. Meyers for surveyor, Ebright superintendent and Prosser for district court clerk, had no opposition. Indications are that J. W. Abbott has been nominated for county commissioner.

The democratic nominees are probably McGee for sheriff, McNeel for treasurer, Conneally for clerk, Grant county judge, Cochran county surveyor, Dolan clerk of district court and Miss Chappell county superintendent.

Salisbury's majority in North Platte was 279, Otten's five, Murray's thirty

Tomorrow the Big Day.

So far as the number of strangers within our gates is concerned, tomorrow promises to be the biggest day North Platte has ever known, for it is the date of the Cody show. Advices received from all points, east, west, north and south are to the effect that practically everybody is coming, and the streets promise to be a surging mass of humanity. The show will arrive early tomorrow morning from Grand Island, and the enclosed arena will be placed on the lands of Colonel Cody west of the city. Arrangements are being made to run a train from the depot to the show grounds.

No street parade will be given, this feature of the show having been abandoned several years ago. There will be two performances, one at two o'clock, the second at eight in the evening.

The sterling silver loving cup which the home-folks have secured for Colonel Cody, will be presented him just as he leaves the arena at the close of the afternoon performance.

A New Operetta with a Love Story.

A charming romance about a princess and a naughty prince set to waltzes that refuse to let one's feet behave and overflowing with irresistibly amusing situations is only a skeleton idea of "The Spring Maid", the new operetta from Vienna in which Werba and Luescher are sending the piquant Hungarian prima dona, Mizzi Hajos, and great company of nearly one hundred to the Keith on Friday evening, Aug. 25th.

Throughout this saucy opera flits Mizzi Hajos like a joyous sunbeam. She is the bewitching Princess at Carlbad, and a willful little sprite with mischief in her heart. Her doting father discovers her at the public square, dressed as one of the spring girls and serving sparkling draughts to the visitors. Prince Alada from Hungary, a royal flirt who prefers springs girls to princesses, is making desperate love to her and she has determined to teach him a lesson and enlist her friends in the plot.

Chaperoned by a comical old auntie—her father in disguise—she leads the prince a merry dance until he declares he cannot live without her, spring girl though she be. Then he finds she is a real princess who has been flirting in her turn. She boxes his ears before the crowd and sends him away, but finds that her heart went with him and it requires a comic opera author to straighten out the tangle happily.

It's the same with Groceries

As with an expensive, high-power racing automobile, so with groceries. The human machine needs the best fuel to get the greatest efficiency from it—just like the motor car. Give the finest auto bad gasoline and you get poor speed—feed the best man alive on improper food and you see a human wreck. You owe it to yourself—for your health's sake, for your pocket's sake—to feed your stomach with the finest groceries—with god wholesome food. That is your fuel.

Buy groceries for their "fuel" value, get ours.

George Lannin Dies Suddenly.

George Lannin, one of our well known and highly respected citizens, died at his home in the Fourth ward at nine o'clock Wednesday evening. Death, which came very suddenly and unexpectedly, was due to heart failure after an illness of ten days, the nature of which was not serious enough to cause the anxiety of his family, until a few minutes before death occurred. In apparently good health Mr. Lannin left his family and repaired to his room. While preparing to retire he was taken violently ill and the ministrations of a loving family and kind friends proved futile in restoring him. The grief stricken family were totally unprepared for the blow which takes away the husband and father leaves the home dark and lonely. Mr. Lannin has resided in our city for almost forty years during which time he was known as an unassuming, steady and honest man. Of a quiet and retiring disposition he was intimately known by only a few but by all he was respected and esteemed.

Mr. Lannin had of late been employed as watchman at the ice houses, but for many years previously had held the position of track foreman with the Union Pacific.

He was a member of the A. O. U. W., Mystic Legion and Modern Woodmen. To mourn him are left his wife and eight children namely, daughter Mrs. Russell Wyman, sons Robert, George, Frank, Will, Roy, Harry and Raymond, all of this city.

The funeral services were held at the Episcopal church yesterday afternoon. The attendance was unusually large, many friends and fraternal orders thus showing the esteem in which they held the departed man. The floral offerings were magnificent and the services very impressively conducted by Rev. Chapman. The remains were laid to rest in the family lot in the local cemetery.

Mrs. Koontz, of Wallace, who has been visiting her son John Koontz, left yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. George Francover, of Chappell, arrived yesterday to visit Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Boardman.

First shipments of Ladies' Fall Suits are just in at Wilcox Department Store.

Mrs. Jane Mitchell, of Lexington, who has been visiting her son Moore and family, left yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. O'Rourke and family of Brady, arrived today to visit Mr. and Mrs. Moore Mitchell.

Mrs. I. L. Miltonberger will leave the first of the week for Lincoln to visit her daughter, Mrs. Cal Lowell.

Superintendents McKeown and Niland of Cheyenne, returned yesterday after an inspection trip up the branch as far as Northport.

Mrs. Vaughn Hinman and children, of Sidney came down yesterday to visit relatives. She was accompanied by her sister Miss Mary Distel.
