Societies, Clubs and Social Functions.

Mrs. Fred Perritt very pleasantly entertained the Mother's Club Wednesday afternoon. Enjoyable refreshments were served.

Miss Eileen Keliber, of Green River, entertained a number of small friends at the home of her aunt Mrs. Albert Schatz, Tuesday afternoon. A dainty lunch was served during a pause in the merry games that were played.

In favor of Mrs. Nathan, of Des Moines, who is visiting her sister Mrs. Julius Pizer, a party of ladies were entertained Wednesday by Mrs. J. J. Halligan, an affair that proved pleasant to all. Refreshments were served.

The "20th Century Club" met Tuesday afternoon with Mrs. Frank Buchanan. The work for the coming year will be a study of a trip throughout England including a study of the English Novelists. At Tuesday's meeting, Mrs. Henderson told of a voyage from New York to Liverpool, and Mrs. Perry Buchanan gave a talk on a trip from Liverpool to London. Mrs. Frank Buchanan read a paper on the life of Sir Walter Scott and Mrs. M. E. Crosby discussed Scott as a poet. After a general discussion of the program, the hostess of the afternoon surprised the members present with a watermelon feast. The next meeting will be held September 19th, at the home of Mrs. Clark Buchanan.

A. J. Dail of Omaha who has been visiting Mr. and Mrs. Albert Able for ten days left this morning.

Miner Hinman has returned from Hastings with a new Chalmers car. He reports bad roads down the line caused by recent heavy rains.

Supt. Snyder, of the state farm, is in Lincoln attending the state fair, which is being more largely attended this than for several years past.

Homer Vaughan, of Grand Island, who had been taking treatment at the P. and S. hospital for some time, returned to his home yesterday.

The Shannons at The Keith this week have been drawing large crowds by their clever vaudevils. Their singing, dancing and impersonations are far above the average and hold the attention of the audience.

If you don't wear the Interwoven Sock we venture to say it's because you don't know about it. It's the one THIN sock that really wears.

Live Wires at Gandy.

The people of Gandy are not so slow after all; in fact they seem to have some live wires that are wasting their energies in so small a town. Owing to the formation of the country the new Union Pacific line could not be built into Gandy, the nearest approach being a mile and a half. A townsite company, formed apparently with the sanction of the railroad company, laid out a town about three miles from Gandy, which in the course of events probably meant the death of Gandy, as everybody saw the advantage of moving to the railroad town. It was then that the juice began to ooze through the live wires, and as a result they extended the limits of the town so as to cover that piece of the roadbed which is a mile and a half away. Now they are calmly sitting in easy chairs, smoking their pipes and pointing to the law which says a railroad must put a station at each county seat. The railroad couldn't go to Gandy, but Gandy had no trouble in extending itself to the railroad.

Excursion Dates Changed

The trade excursion, which was announced for September 13th and 14th, has been postponed until September 27th and 28th, at the request of local merchants who are unable to get out their advertising matter in time for the date first set. All the necessary arrangements have been made with the railroad company for a special train to leave here on the morning of Sept. 27th for Mitchell and returning the night of September 28th. Messrs. Dixon, Maloney, Martini, Tramp and Dickey are in charge of the excursion.

Will Open Restaurant.

C. O. Weingand has leased the room now occupied by Waltemath's saloon, and as soon as the saloon is removed to the new Waltemath building and the room repaired, he will open a restaurant therein. Mr. Weingand has had experience in the restaurant business, having had at one time charge of the Vienna.

Maurice Kane of Chicago, manager of the experimental department of the International Harvesting Company, and his assistant Edward Kimbark, were in North Platte two days this week. The International has been conducting a test of mowers and hay rakes on the ranches of D. B. McNeel and others. There have been eleven different mowers and four rakes with various new and experimental devices running since the middle of July, under charge of Charles Hartman, and Mr. Kane's visit was for the purpose of reviewing the merits of the various devices now that haying is near its end for the season. The International has tested mowers for several years past on Mr. McNeel's ranch. The extensive proportions of the haying operations on this 12,000 acre stock ranch giving an ideal opportunity of testing new devices. As much hay being cut by each machine in one season as is cut in five or six seasons by the use of a mower on the ranch or farm of the usual size. Messrs. Kane and Kimbark while here visited the state experimental farm to inquire into the success of the dry farming which is being conducted there.

A ball game between the high school team and a married men's nine is announced for tomorrow afternoon.

The La Tu Sextes club will hold a picnic at Sioux Lookout tomorrow.

FANCY FRONT DOORS

Can all be made to look nice on paper, but the real test of a good door comes after it is hung. We don't sell doors by catalogue alone but by sample, and also we have taken particular pains to know that the doors we handle are made from properly dried stock so as to eliminate those faults so common in doors—warping, swelling, shrinking. Our line covers a good variety of styles as well as prices, but every one of our doors represents the best value for the money.

Come in and let us show you these doors and help you decide on the proper door for your purpose.

Road and Shop Notes and Personal Mention.

P. A. Norton visited his son James in Denver the first of the week.

U. P. Policeman Gormann, of Grand Island, was in the city Wednesday.

Bert Colton will return to night from Chicago and Omaha after a weeks visit.

Jack Rodden who was among those dismissed from the shops recently, resumed work yesterday.

Hugh Bird returned last night from Cherokee park and other points where he spent two weeks.

John Seth left the first of the week for San Francisco on the advisory board for the local boiler makers.

Assistant Superintendent McKeown came down Wednesday in his private car 011 to transact business here.

Louis Federlin, of Cheyenne, arrived yesterday and will accept the position in the American Express office made vacant by the resignation of Raleigh Brown.

Assistant Superintendent William Jeffers, of Green River, went thru Wednesday to Omaha in his private car 08 to accompany his wife home.

The wrecker was called to Hendry yesterday afternoon where the caboose on a west bound freight had been thrown from the track by the air hose blowing out.

Supt. Cahill, of Omaha, assistant superintendent Schemerhorn, of Grand Island and assistant superintendent Cary, of Omaha, transacted business in this city Wednesday.

The Harriman's special, with Mrs. Harriman and party, went thru Wednesday morning. They were returning from an extended visit in cities on the Pacific coast and were on their way to New York.

Press reports state that the across-the-continent aeroplane flight will leave San Francisco next Sunday. The route is through North Platte, so we may see the birdman without going out of our way. There will be six or eight contestants.

Danger of a strike of the shopmen of the Harriman lines is not so great as a week ago, and it now looks as though the demand for the recognition of the federation would be dropped. In Chicago Wednesday the officers of the nine unions involved refused to take action that would precipitate a strike on the Illinois Central, which is one of the Harriman lines.

Voice Culture.

Elizabeth Knar Langston, teacher of VOCAL MUSIC. Will be at Rincker's music and art store on Thursday of each week. Will be pleased to meet any who are interested in singing 582

A Correction.

An item in the last issue of The Tribune stated that Mr. John Herrod had leased the store building that I now occupy and that on account of not being able to find a suitable place to move my stock to I would probably have to make overtures to sell to Mr. Herrod. This latter is not true, as I never had a thought of trying to sell to Mr. Herrod. I am well satisfied with my business in North Platte and I expect to continue selling groceries regardless of what Mr. Herrod has done or may do. H. L. GREENSON.

Peaches! Peaches!

The A. H. Anderson Fruit Co., of Kearney, is in the city with a car of their celebrated Alberta peaches from their own orchard at Ogden, Utah. It will be remembered that they were in the city last fall. Come to the car. Extra fine fruit. p58-3

"The Traveling Salesman"

James Forbes' comedy in four acts, "The Traveling Salesman", will be the offering at the Keith tomorrow evening. In this, his latest effort, Mr. Forbes has reproduced life "on the road" as successfully as he depicted life "behind the scenes" in "The Chorus Lady".

The story of The Traveling Salesman the scenes of which are laid at Grand Crossing, a village of the Middle West, open on Christmas Day. The first act shows the interior of the rail road station with the meeting of the principal characters, Bob Blake the traveling salesman and Beth Elliott, the pretty telegraph operator. Beth owns a piece of apparently worthless land, which suddenly acquires value, since it is necessary to a scheme of improvement planned by the railroad company. Blake's employer tries to defraud the girl of her property through a perversion of the law governing the sale of lands for unpaid taxes. Of course Bob Blake comes to the rescue. The second act transpires in the drummer's room in the Elite Hotel, and here is played the most laughable poker game ever conceived by a playwright.
