New Building at Farm.
Elsewhere bids are invited for the construction of a hotel dwelling house at the state experimental farm south of town. The cost of the building is approximately seven thousand dollars. This house will be used as a boarding house and dormitory for the employes of the farm.

Quarters for Owls.
The newly organized lodge of Owls has rented the rooms in the Waltham building formerly occupied by The Tribune which will be used as a home. The rooms will be somewhat rearranged, repainted, papered and placed in neat and attractive shape.

Will Dynamite Hard Pan.
A representative of the Dupont Powder Co. arrived in town a few days ago and was driven to the W. L. Park farm near Nichols where he investigated the soil preparatory to breaking up the underlying "hard pan" by means of dynamite. This explosive will be placed at intervals covering about one acre of ground, and the date will be about November 1st. It is claimed that this method of breaking up the impenetrable "hard pan" has proven successful, and that as a result the dynamited has been wonderfully increased in productiveness.

Council Proceedings
At the meeting of the city council Tuesday evening a petition signed by 417 voters was presented asking for a resubmission of the proposition to vote $22,000 for a city hall, and also a petition from the fire department asking for similar action on the part of the council. Report of the city treasurer showing balances in the several funds to be $76,628.24.

An ordinance was passed which provides for the change of locations of saloons.

All bills on file were allowed.

The Girl, The Man and The Game.

"The Girl, The Man and The Game," a musical comedy feast, (served in two courses) with Billy "Single" Clifford in the leading role, will be the offering at The Keith Thursday evening, Sept. 14th. The play is bright and breezy, full ridiculous situations caused by Billy (as Charlie Pointer) who to get financial assistance from his rich Uncle Cattermole in the Philippines, tells him that he is married and has a baby daughter.

The rich uncle, who is possessed of the globe-trotting fever, decides to visit his nephew and the letter which was to inform them of his coming being delayed, he arrives very unexpectedly upon the scene; Billy just has to have a wife, so he borrows the wife of his friend to whose sister he is betrothed. Many are the complications which arise therefrom, but the merriest one is when the Uncle asks for the infant, Clifford having neglected to mention to his friends that he had told Uncle that he had a child also. Once more his friend Dr. Morrey is appealed to and whether for revenge for having to stand idly by and see his wife carried by another or just out of a pure spirit of fun, the doctor produces the baby but it is of the unbleached American type. This causes further complications, all of which keep Charlie in hot water all the time. The doctor growing weary of the deception, goes to the French ball and invokes the aid of Charlie to help him square himself for remaining away from home all night. As usual Charlie makes a huddle of the explanation, causing a rupture between the doctor and his wife. Finally finding that further elaborate lies are useless, the uncle is enlightened as to the truth of the condition of affairs and forgives all for their deception and all's well that ends well.

Death of Mrs. Gerkin.

After an illness of six weeks, Mrs. Katherine Gerkin died at her home in the Fourth Ward Tuesday evening at six o'clock. Death resulted from blood poison. While at work in her home several weeks ago Mrs. Gerkin fell with such force as to fracture her hip and owing to her advanced years the accident caused her to be confined to her bed since that time. At first hopes of her recovery were entertained but a week ago her condition became alarming and for several days she was in a state of unconsciousness and unable to recognize the loving relatives who anxiously watched for any change for the better. A few moments before the end came she regained her natural condition but was unable to speak to those who surrounded her bedside.

Mrs. Gerkin was in her seventy-second year and has resided in this community for thirty years past, during which time she was known as a highly respected charitable and christian woman, devoted to her church and family and lending a helping hand to those in need. She was born in Germany and came to the United States when she was sixteen. To mourn her death are left her daughters, Mesdames Wm. Heysse and John Bergman, of this city, Mrs. Fred Marquette, of Hershey, and sons Charles, Will and Albert. The funeral was held yesterday morning from St. Patrick's church and attended by a large number of friends. Rev. Sullivan, of Elm Creek, conducted the services. Interment was made in the Catholic cemetery beside her husband who died in 1902.
