

ALARM CLOCKS

and Clocks of ALL KINDS

THE great competition in this class of time piece has brought about such a high standard that alarm clocks are now sold by us at a mere fraction of their former price. No one need be without an alarm clock when they can be bought at the prices we ask.

We have a large stock of other clocks—from the stately old hall clock to the pretty mantel time-piece. Come in and admire—we know you will buy.

CLINTON, Jeweler and Optician.

DR. O. H. CRESSLER,
Graduate Dentist.

Office over the McDonald State Bank.

SCHILLER & CO.,
Prescription Druggists

First Door North of First National Bank

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

Mrs. Miner Morrow is assisting in the Greenon Grocery for a few days.

Tom Green and Perry Carson came up from Grand Island to spend Sunday.

Miss Amanda Mylander went to Omaha Sunday morning to spend a week or more.

Arthur Artz and Miss Alice Howers will be married at the home of the bride tomorrow evening.

Miss Mary Tighe will leave the first of the week for Omaha and Lincoln to spend a week or longer.

Miss Irene Hubbard came home last evening from a two weeks' stay with friends in Paxton.

Rev. Chas. F. Chapman leaves this week for Mullen to attend a district convention of the Episcopal church.

Miss Noma Sillen left yesterday morning for Arapahoe after an extended visit with her sister Mrs. John Denn.

Miss Vera Bartholmew, of Gothenburg, is visiting the Misses Cunningham while enroute home from the west.

Miss Elizabeth Weinberger returned last evening from Lincoln where she spent three weeks with the Misses Stryker.

Mrs. Jenkins, who was called to Council Bluffs last week by the death of her mother, returned Sunday evening.

Kid Dixon, of this city, and Roy Hardesty, of Sidney, are the attraction in the athletic line at the Lloyd this evening.

Miss Josie O'Hare will leave Friday morning for Chicago to represent the local Court of Foresters at the convention held there.

Mr. and Mrs. Renshaw of Webster, Kan., who spent a week with their daughter Miss Owens at Tryon and also visited friends in town, left yesterday morning.

Michael Solcetti returned Saturday evening from a three months' visit in Potosi, Italy. While there he was married to Miss Mary Solcetti.

The J. R. Ritner one-story cement building on west Sixth street is well under way. It is 12x85 feet and will be occupied by Mr. Ritner as a feed store.

Dr. Howe of Denver, chief of the Bureau of Animal Industry arrived yesterday morning to spend several days. While here he is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Boardman.

Butler Miltonberger will attend the Capital school in Lincoln this year and in a letter received by former instructors here from the principal he speaks very highly of Butler's ability in vocal and instrumental music and has given him a high place in the school.

It is not often that the patrons of the Keith have an opportunity of seeing a play like "Mary Jane's Pa" which will be produced tonight. It is one of those domestic plays of real life, with just enough comedy to relieve the tension of the more serious lines. The play is by Edith Ellis, author of the late success, "The Seven Sisters." Boyd B. Trousdale will be seen in the title role, that of Hiram Perkins, ably assisted by a cast especially selected for this production.

Vic Halligan left yesterday morning for the State University.

Dr. Charles Parker left Saturday night for San Francisco.

Mrs. Julius Hahler will return this week from a two weeks' stay in Omaha.

Miss Cora Moore went to Brady Saturday after spending several days in town.

Julius Hahler has returned from a ten days visit in Humbolt, Kas., and Omaha.

Miss Bertha Jansen returned Sunday evening to spend several days on legal business.

Teachers' examinations were held in the County Superintendents' office Friday and Saturday.

Mr. Polack, of Portland, Ore., is visiting his brother Sebastian Schwaiger this week.

Frank Tracy returned Saturday evening from Omaha where he represented the B. of L. E.

Mr. and Mrs. James Seaton, of Wallace, are visiting their son in this city for a few days.

Charles Calhoun came up from Grand Island Saturday evening to visit his mother a day or two.

Mrs. Robert Arnold arrived yesterday to attend the wedding of her sister Miss Alice Howes tomorrow night.

Miss Hilda Kuster left for her home in Baltimore Saturday after spending the summer at the Waltmuth home.

M. B. Dabney, of Portland, who has been visiting his sister Mrs. W. T. Wilcox for a month left Saturday.

Mrs. James Hart and son Lawrence returned Sunday evening from Chicago after visiting relatives for two weeks.

Lost—Between high school and W. 3rd St. silver hat pin with blue stone in center. Finder return to this office. 59-2

Miss Lulu Christ and sister, of Scranton, Pa., who spent the summer with their mother, expect to leave shortly.

Mrs. Dennis O'Brien and children will leave this week for Boulder, Colo., where she has charge of a large rooming house.

Frank C. Pielsticker, president of the Platte Valley Bank, left Sunday evening for Omaha to attend the Bankers' Convention.

The Green-Musselman pool hall is now settled in their new quarters in the Waltmuth building. This room is larger, brighter and more suitable in every way for the increasing trade.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry F. Coates, of Sutherland, are visiting their son A. S. Coates and family. Mrs. Coates will remain several weeks taking medical treatment.

Judge Grimes caused the arrest of Harry Madison and Julius Mogason Saturday afternoon for fighting near the Duke and Deats paper store in which they broke the window. They were tried before Judge Grant, found guilty fined $5.00 and costs and paid for the window.

Isreal H. Markowitz, of San Francisco, has been visiting the Westfield family for several days and left yesterday for Omaha on business. Mr. Markowitz is a brother of the late Tad Thompson and is making preparations for his body to be exhumed and taken to Omaha to be reinterred in a Jewish cemetery.

LOCAL PARAGRAPHS.

Ed Burke has severed his connection with The Leader.

Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Mason will leave for California soon.

Miss Irma Horne spent Sunday in Maxwell with relatives.

Walter Votaw, of Maywood, spent Saturday and Sunday in town.

Wanted—A Radiant Home heater in good condition. Phone 606.

Mrs. W. F. Cody will leave today for eastern cities to visit her husband.

George Likert, of Omaha, spent last week here on business for the U. P.

W. P. Snyder, of the experimental station, went to Sidney Saturday night.

Mrs. Reddy, of Ogalalla, arrived Saturday to visit her daughter Mrs. Dennis O'Brien.

Mrs. Mary Hazen arrived Sunday from Idaho to attend the Howes-Artz nuptials.

Warren Doolittle will leave tomorrow for Lincoln to attend State University.

James McNish, of Omaha, has associated himself with the Rebhausen barber shop.

Mrs. James McMichael attended the Methodist Conference at Lexington Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Art Yates, of Sutherland, visited local friends the first of the week.

Superintendent Cahill, of Omaha, transacted business here the last of the week.

John Monroe returned Sunday evening from a two weeks' visit in Salt Lake and Ogden.

Mr. and Mrs. Marvis, of Beaver, are visiting the former's sister Mrs. Jay Mooney this week.

Charles Dixon will leave in a few days for Pasadena, Cal., to attend the polytechnical school.

Chester Baker, of Omaha, who visited his brother Dick for several days, left Saturday.

Miss Alma Waltmuth left Saturday for Washington, D. C., to attend a finishing school.

E. F. Seeberger went to Omaha Sunday to attend the Bankers' Convention this week.

Mrs. F. A. Simpson has accepted a position as saleslady in the Maloney & Lintz millinery.

Arthur Plummer, of Denver, who spent last week in the city, left in his automobile Saturday.

Fred Gariow left a few days ago for eastern points to visit relatives and visit with Col. Cody.

J. B. Saeger, of Boone, Iowa, began work in the Leader clothing department Saturday morning.

Mrs. Leo Tobin and children arrived Saturday to spend two weeks with her father E. F. Seeberger.

Platt White, Charles Whalen and son Kenneth returned Friday evening from the Lexington County Fair.

Ernest Casey has accepted the position as time keeper in the local shops, formerly filled by Leslie Baskins.

Will Klenk has taken the position in the post office made vacant by the resignation of Albin Sandall.

Miss Alice Otten arrived the last of the week from Nampa, Idaho, and began work in the Rush Mercantile.

Miss Alma Kime, of Lincoln, who spent several days with Mrs. E. C. Richards, left Saturday morning.

Irve Armstrong went to Grand Island Saturday to transact business in connection with his moving picture show.

Mr. and Mrs. Andy Struthers, and Mrs. D. A. Brown spent Saturday at Nichols with the latter's brother, Will Brooks.

Mrs. Goff, of Fairbury, spent the week end with her daughter Mrs. H. C. Brock, while enroute home from Denver.

Fred Warren will deliver lectures this week on socialism at Echo, Brady, Maxwell, Bignell and Jack Morrow Plats.

Miss Dorothy Welborn left Sunday evening for San Francisco, after spending three months with her mother in this city.

Howard Allen, of Columbus, visited Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Cunningham Saturday and Sunday while enroute to California.

Mrs. W. T. Green and Miss Lizzie Green left the last of the week for Geneva to visit relatives for some time.

Mrs. Philip Fent and children have returned to Council Bluffs after a weeks' stay with her sister Mrs. Matt Walsh and mother Mrs. Baker.

Mrs. John Stimson, of San Francisco, arrived Saturday to visit her brother Leonard Cornett and family while enroute home from the east.

Several hundred catalogues from Sears Roebuck Co., of Chicago, arrived at the express office Saturday and are being distributed around the city.

James Crawford, who formerly carried the mail between this city and Gandy, died at Davenport last Friday, to which city he had gone to receive medical treatment. The remains reached here Saturday and were taken to Gandy for interment.

Fall Announcement.

We take pleasure in announce to the public that our enormous stock for the fall and winter of 1911-1912 in all the lines we carry has arrived and is now ready for your inspection. Never in the past twenty years have we had such a fine selection of up-to-date merchandise, nor have we been so well equipped to give you prompt and satisfactory service, the re-arrangement of our store has given better light and we have added additional competent sales people to our force.

Cloaks, Suits, Dresses and Skirts.

We are certainly showing the finest line of these garments ever brought to North Platte. No two alike. We have been fortunate in securing a competent saleslady to wait on customers and we also have a competent lady to make alterations and insure a fit for each buyer, where alterations are needed. These alterations are made free of charge. If the garment is not satisfactory you need not take it. Our ready-to-wear department is the strong feature of our store and is the equal of any found in cities of 100,000 population. We are now provided with pleasant quarters for this department, where all the conveniences can be had. It matters not what size you are looking for, we have the garments to fit you. As for prices, we are not to be undersold; we will compete with any catalogue house in the country, quality and style considered.

Dress Goods and Silks.

The latest novelties for this season are the mixtures; no two dress patterns alike. We are not showing one or two patterns, but we have a great variety from which to make selections.

We cannot tell you of all the nice things we have—Come in and see them.

Yours for great values and courteous treatment.

THE LEADER - - J. Pizer.

The Largest in Quantity, Best in Quality, Lowest in Prices.

Notice to Contractors.

Bids will be received until four o'clock on Saturday, September 16, 1911, at the office of the Board of Regents, University of Nebraska, Lincoln, for the construction of a hollow brick dwelling house, to cost approximately $7,000, on the Experiment Station farm near North Platte, according to plans and specifications now on file in the office of the Superintendent of Construction, Room 208, Administration Building, University of Nebraska. Bids must be sealed and marked with the bidder's name, and the words "Bids for dwelling house, Experiment Station, North Platte" written plainly on the outside.

CRYSTAL THEATRE

To-Night

MOVING PICTURES:

The Cardinal's Edict.
Dudede Ribbon Counter.
A Tragic Wedding.

VAUDEVILLE.

Kershan and Ivins, Comical Scotch Kids, Singing, Dancing and Talking.

10 and 15 Cents.

THE First National Bank,

of North Platte, Nebraska.

UNITED STATES DEPOSITORY.

Capital and Surplus $140,000.

DIRECTORS:

E. F. SEEBERGER, President,
M. KEITH NEVILLE, Vice-President,
F. L. MOONEY, Cashier,
ARTHUR McNAMARA,
J. J. HALLIGAN.

Closing out Sale

Echelbery's New and Second Hand Store.

Ranges from $5.00 up.
Stoves from $1.00 up.
Large Refrigerators @ $4.00.
Gasoline Stoves @ $1.00.
Dressers from $2.00 up.
Commodore from $1.00 up.
Iron Beds from $1.00 up.
Carpets, room size, $2.50.

Come in and see the goods.

Mr. and Mrs. Jake McGinley, of Wallace, spent the past three days with local friends.

NOTICE OF SETTLEMENT.

The State of Nebraska, Lincoln County, ss. In the County Court. In the Matter of the Estate of Jacob Richiger, Deceased. To the creditors, heirs, legatees and others interested in the estate of Jacob Richiger, executor has filed in the county court a report of his doings as executor of said estate and it is ordered that the same stand for hearing the 10th day of October A. D. 1911, before the court at the hour of 9 o'clock, a. m., at which time and on that day any person interested may appear and except to and contest the same. And notice of this proceeding is ordered given by the publication of a copy of the notice in the Semi-Weekly Tribune a legal newspaper printed in said county four successive weeks prior to said date of hearing. Witness my hand and the seal of the county court at North Platte, Neb., this 5th day of September A. D. 1911. JOHN GRANT, County Judge.