Twenty-two to Cipher.

In the game of foot ball Friday between the high school and a team made up of the high school alumni, the latter won by a score of twenty-two to nothing. The one-sidedness of the score is not, however, altogether a story of weakness on the part of the losing team, but rather that they went up against a team stronger than any they are likely to play this season—a bunch of huskies who know the game and play with the confidence of experienced foot ballists.

For Sale—Lots 5 and 6, block 75, with four room house; located on west Eighth St. Inquire of Major Walker.

The one THIN Sock that is really worth every cent of its Price.

First, because it has wear-resisting fabric at every point of wear.

Second, because each one of the more than 5,000 dealers (who sell ten million pairs of Interwoven Socks a year) buys direct from the manufacturer. No in-between profits to be subtracted from the value. The one thin sock that really wears. A brand of socks mad in different mills and of different grades of yarn cannot be uniform in quality. Interwoven Socks are all made in the same mill, on the same machines (the Interwoven patent), of the same high-lustre silk lisle. They are always uniform in quality.

Interwoven toe and heel, reinforced sole and spliced ankle.

Sold by 25c. 35c. 50c.

Breaks an Arm.

Frank L. Mooney had the misfortune Sunday forenoon to fracture his right wrist. He was cranking his car when the engine "kicked" and the reverse motion of the crank handle which he had tightly grasped, was so quick and powerful as to snap the bone. He was taken to St. Luke's hospital, the fracture reduced and he is now patiently awaiting the "knitting" process.

Wright on Socialism.

Clyde J. Wright, editor of The Weekly Enterprise, and recent candidate of the socialist party for governor of Nebraska, will lecture at the county court house Sept. 21st and 22nd at 8 p. m. Everybody welcome. Ladies especially invited. Mr. Wright is a lecturer and an orator of national note. You should hear him.

Harrington Denies Report.

The Denver Post of last Friday published an extended account of how a fellow claiming to be a farmer of Utah had fleeced nine commission firms of that city out $13,600 by means of forged bills of lading for shipments of oats. Included in the list of firms given appeared the Harrington-Plumber Mercantile Co. and Leo Tobin, each of whom it was said gave the fellow a check for $1,500, which he had cashed at the bank before bidding the "easy men" adieu. Mr. Harrington, however, writes North Platte friends that the story is a fake. If we were Harrington and Tobin we would sue the Denver Post for $1,500 for placing them before the public as "innocents."

Grant Legal Separations.

In the district court the latter part of last week Judge Grimes granted legal separation to two couples. One was to Mr. and Mrs. Dennis O'Brien, the wife having applied for the separation on account of cruelty and the husband did not oppose the granting of the decree. It is said that the couple who had been living as man and wife, for eighteen years, had agreed to a separation, and the action in court was simply to legalize the agreement. Mrs. O'Brien receives half of the worldly goods and the custody of two of the four children.

Elsie Adams was granted a divorce Saturday from Harry Adams to whom she was married Dec. 6th, 1909, giving as her cause drunkenness, cruelty and desertion. Her maiden name of Elsie Cohagen was restored to her.
