Both horses were knocked down and the wagon badly smashed before the team could be checked in their course.

The City Hall Site.

At a meeting of the city council Wednesday evening a resolution was passed providing that if the city hall bonds are voted the building shall be located at a point on Locust between Fourth and Sixth streets. This eliminates the Foley corner, against which some of the people registered opposition, and declared they would not support the bonds. These same people should now feel satisfied, and we shall feel disappointed, and charge them with bad faith, if they do not now work for the success of the bonds.

Ball Club and Band Dance.

A benefit dance under the management of the base ball team and the cornet band will be given at the Lloyd opera house Friday evening, October 6th. The net proceeds of the dance will be applied to the existing deficiency of the ball team and to recoup the band boys for the expenses entailed in buying music for the series of concerts now coming to a close. The ball team, helped advertise the town and the band certainly gave the people a means of enjoying themselves, hence the dance October 6th should be liberally patronized as a mark of appreciation of the two organizations.

City Council Doings.

At the adjourned meeting of the city council Wednesday evening M. Keith Neville submitted a proposition to sell the 44-foot lot in the rear of the Rexall drug store to the city for a city hall site for $4,750. The Baptist people also made a formal offer of their Locust street lot for $6,200.

WELL HOUSED STOCK

does the most work and yields the most profits. Live stock costs money and is worth caring for. A good stable is cheaper in the long run. We will be glad to give you an idea of the cost of the lumber needed for repairing or rebuilding the present barn or stable, or for putting up a new one. We can save you money on it.

Card tables arranged for "500", twenty-eight ladies taking part in the game. Mrs. E. F. Seeberger was awarded first prize and Mrs. W. T. Stuart, second. The color scheme of pink and white was carried out in the elegant lunch which was served on small flower trimmed tables at the Beery residence to which the guests repaired after the card games. Misses Alice Wilcox, Lenore Cummings and Ida Ottenstein assisted in serving.

Among the smart social functions of the week was the pin shower tendered Miss Fern Stamp by Mrs. W. T. Berry and Miss Villa Whitaker at the home the former Wednesday evening. Twenty-one young ladies responded to invitations and were entertained at bridge. The highest scores were made by Misses Nell Bratt, Geraldine Bare and Alice Langford who were honored with places at the bride-to-be's table which was beautifully decorated with pink and white and set beneath a high pink bell and hoop from which many kinds of pins were showered upon Miss Stamp. An elaborate lunch was served at small tables, places being found by small pink silk pin cushions with pins forming the name of each guest. The cushion on the guest of honor's table was larger and tastefully adorned with roses and gold braid.
