

Sterling Silver Thimbles

for 11c

Saturday Only.

We recently made a lucky purchase on 100 genuine Sterling Silver Thimbles and we are going to give our customer all the benefit.

Tomorrow morning these Thimbles, which ordinarily cost 30c to 35c each will sell for only 11c each.

Since the number is so small, we cannot sell more than one thimble to any one person.

A Souvenir.

Old Gentleman—Have you any hair the same color as mine? Barber—Do you require it for a wig, sir? Old Gentleman—No; I want a small piece to give to a lady.—London Opinion.

An Artist.

Sue—You said you were going to marry an artist, and now you're engaged to a dentist. Flo—Well, isn't he an artist? He draws from real life.

There are no tricks in plain and simple faith.—Julius Caesar.

Starts Much Trouble.

If all people knew that neglect of constipation would result in severe indigestion, yellow jaundice or virulent liver trouble they would soon take Dr. King's New Life Pills, and end it. It is the only safe way. Best for biliousness, headache, dyspepsia, chills and debility. 25 cents at Stone Drug Co.

Victoria and Napoleon.

Queen Victoria once gave a remarkable description of her visit to the tomb of Napoleon I. during the reign of Napoleon III. "The coffin is not yet here," she wrote, "but in a small side-chapel of St. Jerome. Into this the emperor led me, and there I stood at the arm of Napoleon III., his nephew, before the coffin of England's bitterest foe, I, the granddaughter of that king who hated him most and who most vigorously opposed him and this very nephew, who bears his name, being my nearest and dearest ally! The organ of the church was playing 'God Save the Queen' at the time, and this solemn scene took place by torchlight and during a thunderstorm. Strange and wonderful indeed!"

An Offensive Cravat.

A man once called upon Whistler with a letter of introduction, and an amusing scene followed, arising out of the fact that the visitor was wearing a red necktie. Whistler declared it interfered with the color scheme of his room and "put him off" a picture he was painting in quite a different "key." Finally he obliged him to take off the offending cravat before he would condescend to exchange another word with him.

The Lamb.

"Does your husband play poker?" "Yes, but not for money." "That so?" "No. He wouldn't do such a thing. When he plays it's only for fun, and he keeps tally with little red, white and blue checks."—Detroit Free Press.

His Pet.

Harker—Think I'll try to sell old Stuffon some pet dogs. Barker—Useless job. All he thinks about is eating. Harker—Hasn't any four legged friends, eh? Barker—Only one, and that's the dining room table.—Chicago News.

Unidentified.

Suspicious Neighbor—Did your mother have a rooster for dinner yesterday, sonnie? Sonnie—Yes'm. Suspicious Neighbor—A big one with black tail feathers? Sonnie—Dunno. Mother didn't cook the feathers.—Sydney Bulletin.

Regrets.

Regrets are a waste of time in every possible instance except one—when they become valuable lessons for the future.

A Father's Vengeance.

would have fallen on any one who attacked the son of Peter Bondy, of South Rockwood, Mich., but he was powerless before attacks of Kidney trouble. "Doctors could not help him," he wrote, "so at last we gave him Electric Bitters and he improved wonderfully from taking six bottles. Its the best Kidney medicine I ever saw." Backache, tired feeling, nervousness, loss of appetite, warn of kidney trouble that may end in dropsy, diabetes or Bright's disease. Beware! Take Electric Bitters and be safe. Every bottle guaranteed. 50 cents at Stone Drug Co.
