

Let Us Remind You

You were one of the many, perhaps, who left the selection of Christmas Gifts to the last day of, perhaps, the last week in 1910.

And you were tired, and hurried, and dissatisfied, and vowed "Never Again!" Let us remind you. Let us invite you to make selections now.

Never before was was our stock quite so varied and complete, and we would like you to see it while it is still unbroken, quietly, comfortably and at your leisure.

Any article will be put aside until you want it.

The strikers' benefit, held Friday and Saturday evenings of last week at the Keith theatre, was a decided success financially and as an amusement feature. The attendance both Friday and Saturday evening was such as to tax the seating capacity of the theatre. The program was a combination of pictures and vaudeville sketches given by home talent under the direction of the Misses Anna and Josie O'Hare. The first vaudeville number was a butterfly waltz by little Elsie Waltemath. This was one of the daintiest offerings ever seen in the city. Little Miss Elsie is an accomplished artist and the applause which greeted her was well deserved. The next was a double sextette in "I Like the Hat, I Like the Dress." This was a decided hit and was far above the best musical comedy production we have ever had. Tim O'Keefe was third with a reading entitled "The Face on the Bar Room Floor." His well known dramatic ability never shone to better advantage and he was given a very good reception. The last number was the doll song by Jim Clinton, assisted by four young ladies dressed as dolls and standing in large doll boxes. This entire number was so well handled to each one great credit is given. In fact, the entire show was a No. 1 from start to finish, and the strikers wish to thank the individuals who assisted and the public who so generously attended to make the affair the success it was.

John L. Dick, who has been employed in Memphis, Tenn., for some time was reinstated as engineer last week and returned home Friday morning.
