Funeral of Moore Mitchell.

The funeral of the late M. V. Mitchell was held Saturday afternoon from the Episcopal church in this city of which faith the deceased was a follower. The services were conducted by the Rev. Mr. Chapman, and were attended by a large number of friends and neighbors. The members of the A. O. U. W. and the Order of Railway Conductors attended in a body. The body was laid to rest in the North Platte cemetery.

Moore Verner Mitchell was born in Philadelphia, Pa., March 31st, 1869, and lived here until he was ten years of age at which time the family moved to Lexington, Nebraska, where he resided until coming to North Platte in 1891 and began service with the Union Pacific railroad company in the train service and by strict attention to duty rose to the position of passenger conductor on the North Platte-Cheyenne division.

On November 23rd, 1905, Mr. Mitchell was married to Miss Zara Neary of this city, and to this union were born three sons, Hugh, Verner and Phillip, all of whom survive him. Other surviving relatives are his mother, Mrs. Jane Mitchell, sister, Mrs. Thomas McCarter and brother Ed Mitchell, of Lexington, Neb., and sister, Mrs. Alex Stewart, of Washington, D. C., all of whom were here to attend the funeral except Mrs. Stewart.

The death of Moore Mitchell is a particularly sad one and is coincident with other deaths in recent years, in that his death came on a day when all was in readiness to give thanks for the favors received from the Almighty, and in his home on East 3rd street in this city all was prepared for the home coming of the husband and father to join with the family in the Thanksgiving day dinner. But death knows of no hand to stay its progress and, like it is said in the Scriptures, it comes like a thief in the night and when least expected. So too, in this case, instead of joy his home was darkened and saddened by the angel of death hovering near;

the loved one even then lying cold in death, and his lips forever sealed from giving the cheery greeting which always marked his home coming; his ears closed to the childish prattle of the three little boys, who were so suddenly left without father and protector; his eyes forever closed to the sight of a loving and faithful wife. In his home life which, after all, is the only test of the true man, Mr. Mitchell was an ideal father and husband, and his devotion to an aged mother was an example which many a boy might well follow. Among his business associates he was always popular, and departs this life with aught but a good word from all who knew him.

KEEP THE KIDNEYS WELL

Health is Worth Saving and Some North Platte People Know How to Save It.

Many North Platte people take their lives in their hands by neglecting the kidneys when they know these organs need help. Sick kidneys are responsible for a vast amount of suffering and ill health—the slightest delay is dangerous. Use Doan's Kidney Pills—a remedy that has cured thousands of kidney sufferers. Here is a North Platte citizen's recommendation.

Thomas McGovern, 409 E. Tenth St., North Platte, Neb., says: "I have used Doan's Kidney Pills off and on for a great many years. Whenever I become afflicted with kidney trouble from over exertion, and have severe pains through my back, this remedy is my mainstay. I have been so bad from stiffness in my back that I could scarcely straighten when arising in the morning. Doan's Kidney Pills, procured from McDonell & Graves' Drug Store, have always given me wonderful relief. There is no remedy that can be compared with them."
