

The North Platte Semi-Weekly Tribune

WENTY-SIXTH YEAR.

NORTH PLATTE, NEB., DECEMBER 8, 1911.

No. 85

THE FIRST NATIONAL BANK OF NORTH PLATTE.

STATEMENT

Made to the Comptroller of the Currency December 5, 1911.

RESOURCES

Loans and Investments.....	$468,262.60
Overdrafts.....	496.18
U. S. Bonds for Circulation.....	50,000.00
Premium on U. S. bonds.....	1,000.00
Real Estate, Furniture and Fixtures.....	22,000.00
Bonds for Deposits.....	$ 11,000.00
Due from U. S. Treasurer.....	2,500.00
Cash and Sight Exchange.....	198,463.80
	211,963.80
	$753,722.59

LIABILITIES

Capital Stock.....	$100,000.00
Surplus and Undivided Profits.....	48,134.47
Circulation.....	50,000.00
Deposits.....	555,588.12
	$753,722.59

E. F. SEEBERGER, President.

F. L. MOONEY, Cashier.

CITY AND COUNTY NEWS.

Mrs. W. H. McDonald will entertain the members of the Travel and Study Club on Dec. 18th.

The Presbyterian ladies will hold an exchange at Howe & Maloney's store Saturday, December 16th.

The county commissioners convened in session this morning and will transact such business as may come before them.

Lee Johnson, charged with stealing hay from the North Platte Land & Water Co., was acquitted in the district court this week.

"The Red Mill" was presented last evening to a large audience at the Keith, and well pleased the auditors. The scenery and costumes were fine, the singing good and the comedy parts were well taken.

Shipments of baled hay and alfalfa are fairly liberal these days, notwithstanding the Denver market is said to be glutted.

Mrs. Jas. Hart will entertain the members of the Catholic Girls club Monday evening at a "kitchen shower" for Miss Mary Guillaume.

Weather forecast—Fair tonight and Wednesday; not much change in temperature. Maximum temperature yesterday 48, a year ago 28; Minimum last night 20, a year ago 12.

Isaac Erickson, a young traveling man, in some manner fell from a west bound train near Sunole last Thursday and when found was unconscious. He was taken to Sidney to the hospital where it was found that besides being bruised his shoulder was dislocated. —Chappell Register.

The Hustlers will give one of their social dances on December 28th at the Masonic hall.

Mrs. Nels Hamer and daughter Freda left this morning for Sidney to visit the former daughter, Mrs. Ed Aherns.

Mrs. John Bratt is expected home tonight from an extended visit with her daughter, Mrs. Baldwin, in Omaha.

The Brady Vindicator has again changed management, C. W. Botkin, of Gothenburg, now being in charge.

The Tribune is in receipt of a card announcing the birth of a daughter to Mr. and Mrs. Clarence O. Dillard, of Grand Junction, Col.

Santa Claus letters have begun to be received at the postoffice and in accordance with the permission of the department the postmaster would appreciate the help of any persons so inclined to assist him in their proper dispatch.

This week has been an active one for local merchants and especially those who make a specialty of holiday goods. People are making their purchases early, which is gratifying to the merchants and of distinct advantage to purchasers.

The representative of Andrew Carnegie has notified the library board that the full amount of his donations must be used in the construction of the building, or the balance returned. This precludes devoting any balance to the purchase of books.

A special train of twelve cars loaded with Armour meat consigned to the Philippines passed through yesterday. The consignment is due in San Francisco on the morning of Dec. 13th and will be loaded into a boat that sails the following day.

Mrs. H. E. Worrell had several of her fingers frightfully burned a few days since by an acid used in removing paint from china. For a time it was feared she would lose one or more of the members, but that danger is now past. The burns have caused much suffering and inconvenience. —Sutherland Free Lance.

C. A. Gill, of Myrtle, is doing business in town today and made this office a call.

Dave Scott returned yesterday from a short visit with relatives in Lexington.

Miss Amy Young and sister returned yesterday from Lexington after a two weeks visit with relatives.

Mrs. Nels Hammer received word yesterday that a son was born to her daughter, Mrs. Ed Aherns at Sidney.

Rev. W. S. Porter returned this morning from Gothenburg where he went several days to assist at the revival services.

T. M. Akers, of the Colorado Milling & Mining Co., arrived yesterday from Denver to spend several days with stock holders here.

Ruby Hoyt was granted a divorce from Ellis Hoyt in the district court yesterday on the grounds of extreme cruelty, non support and adultery.

The Travel and Study club met with Mrs. Ray Cummings on Monday evening. An interesting program was rendered as follows: Women's Colleges; Mrs. Cummings, Causes of the Civil War; Laura Murray, The Other Wise Men; Miss Smith, Xmas Stories; Misses Mae Walker and Lillian Hendy.

In order to expedite the transaction of business during the holiday rush Postmaster Davis will convert the show window into a receiving booth for packages. A clerk will be stationed there to receive the packages and sell the necessary stamps. This will relieve the congestion at the stamp and registry windows.

Union Pacific No. 16, the Colorado express, made a new speed record Wednesday afternoon as it came down the valley of the Platte river, attaining and maintaining an average of almost sixty miles per hour. No. 16 left Grand Island yesterday afternoon one hour and seventeen minutes late, pulling into the Union station at Omaha on time, covering the 153 miles in two hours and fifty-seven minutes, making four stops enroute. —Omaha Bee.

R. F. Stuart spent several days in Maxwell this week on plumbing business.

L. W. Walker is transacting business in Omaha, having left for that city last night.

Mrs. E. R. Plummer returned last evening from a short visit in Ogalalla and Sutherland.

Will Craigie has been off duty at the Schatz Cigar store for several days on account of illness.

Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Worrell came down from Sutherland last evening to attend "The Red Mill."

Attorney W. V. Hoagland left at noon today for Lexington to transact business for a day or more.

Miss Bessie Graham returned last night from Lincoln and Omaha after a two weeks visit with friends.

Alex Brooks, of Lexington, arrived today and will be the guest of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Anderson for several days.

Mrs. Geo. B. Dent and two sons will leave December 17th for Long Beach, Cal., where they will visit relatives for several months.

The case of A. Abercrombie, of Maxwell, vs Landgren, for the violation of a contract, is occupying the attention of the district court today.

A. F. Streitz will leave the first of the week for Grand Island to attend the annual meeting of the commissioners, which will be held there next week.

Mrs. Cal Lowell and sons Milton and Dillon, who have been visiting her mother, Mrs. Miltonberger for several weeks, left for Chicago last evening.

The showing made by the local banks, statements published in these columns today, does not indicate lack of money among our people. The deposits are certainly encouraging.

In the district court yesterday afternoon Sarah Lambert Holden was granted a divorce from Cato Holden as the evidence showed he had been guilty of extreme cruelty to her and their small son and refused to support them.

L. B. Dick went to Omaha today to transact business for a few days.

If Mrs. Nettie Morris McNichols, alias Mrs. Lawrence Nicholson, who arrived in North Platte last May and is still supposed to be in this section will write Mrs. M. A. Morris at Buena Vista, Col., or Warwood Dudley, Johnstown, N. Y., she will learn something of vital interest to her.

Mrs. Olive Wright died at her home in Tampa, Florida, yesterday afternoon after a short illness. Mrs. Wright was formerly Miss Olive Rork of this city and was married here to Pearl Lott who died several years ago. In 1909 she was married to Dr. Wright of Tampa, Florida. Her father F. T. Rork, left for that city last evening, upon receipt of the message and will make arrangements to have the remains brought to this city for burial.

For Exchange.

Wanted for exchange, a good ranch with some good farm, alfalfa and pasture land, with good improvements for a good farm in Central Nebraska. All clear; priced at $24,000. We also have some good farm land and city property in Central Nebraska for exchange for relinquishment on farms and ranches. Call on or address Lucey Bros., Sutherland, Neb. Phone 101.

For Lawyers.

"The Lawyer" will be the topic at the Presbyterian church on Sunday night at 7:30. This is one of a series on various occupations, and should be of interest to men at the bar. The morning theme will be, "Children and the Church."

A week ago nine persons, all adults, were received into the church and one baby baptized.

Sunday school at 10 A. M., classes for all ages. Endeavor at 9:45. Miss Florence Johnston, leader.

Miss Wakeman addressed our congregation last Sunday morning delighting the people. G. F. WILLIAMS.

Books at 50 Cents.

We have 1200 of the popular novels at 50 cents each. They include the works of the best novelists. BINKER'S BOOK STORE.

Weingand's, The Quality Place. Not Selling Junk.

Men, Buy a Suit or Overcoat at a Discount of 25 Per Cent CASH OR CREDIT.

THE BIG WHY

I opened this store November 18th with a complete line of dependable goods fresh from the best makers. Since that date I have not had a dull day, and much to my satisfaction business is growing daily. Lots of people know of Weingand, the Quality Place, but I want lots more to know of me---not only to know but to come and learn that under any condition they can buy a Suit or Overcoat for $15 or $20 that the other fellows sell for $20 and $25. But I am not satisfied with saving you that $5. I will do more ---I will give you a discount of twenty-five per cent off on my entire line of Men's Suits and Overcoats.

This means 25 per cent less than my usual prices, which are always lower than the other fellows.

My stock is absolutely fresh---I have no junk to unload on you. This means something, doesn't it, something that's worth considering. Here's your chance to get the pick of a carefully selected stock of new goods---not left overs from a half dozen seasons.

Remember 25 per cent discount on Men's Suits and Overcoats, Cash or Credit. Sale begins Dec. 9th.

WEINGAND'S,

The Quality Place. On the other side of the Street.

