

CHRISTMAS SPECIALS.

Business was never Better

There is a reason, ask our clerks, see the crowds that patronize us daily. Here are a few of our Christmas specials. Every case is full of attractive new goods at the very lowest prices.

Sets of Sterling Silver Tea Spoons $3.00.	Steel Blue Diamonds in value $20 30.00 and 40.00. for $15, 20.00 and 30.00.
6 knives and 6 forks, Rodgers, full size $3.00.	Larger diamonds in up to $500.00 in value.
Full sized Souvenir Spoon 65c.	Regular $8.00 toilet sets, silver, $5.
Full sized Souvenir Spoon, engraved North Platte 1.00.	Eight Day Parlor Clocks, 8.00 values $5.00
Ladies watches, 15-j movement, 20 year gold-filled case, regular value 18.00, $12.00.	3-piece Carving Sets, Staghorn handles, regular 4.00 values $2.55.
Gentleman 17-j Elgin movement in 20 year gold filled case regular value 20.00, $12.00.	Hand bags regular values $4, 6.00 and 8.00 values for $2.50, 4.00 and $5.00.

These prices and these goods are drawing the crowds, you may as well take advantage as hundreds of others are.

DIXON, THE JEWELER.

Store open evenings until after Christmas

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

Mrs. John Mang came home last evening from a visit in Omaha.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilber Winquist, of Brady, were guests of local friends yesterday.

Dr. and Mrs. O. H. Cressler and daughter will spend Sunday with friends in Cozad.

Harley Greeson, a student at Cotner University, is expected the first of the week to spend the holidays with the home folks.

Morton Cowee, formerly of this city but late of Atwood, Colo., is visiting relatives and transacting business in town this week.

Diamond Rings, Brooches, Studs, Link Buttons. Special prices this month. Clinton, The Jeweler.

A new bar, heating plant and plate glass front are being placed in the Rehhausen saloon and the interior freshened with new paint and paper.

Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Alden, of Grand Island, came yesterday and will visit the former's parents Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Alden, until January 1st.

Lost on street Monday a baby's white embroidered shawl. Finder leave at 708 East 5th street and receive reward.

Miss Nellie Bristol, formerly of this city, who has been living with her sister Mrs. Baxter at Denver for two years past was married recently to G. W. Pierce a prominent business man of that city.

The picture show business appears to be gaining ground in Kearney as the third one is about to begin business in the F. E. Benaman building on Central Avenue and is to be operated by Sam Westfall of North Platte.—Kearney Democrat.

The case of the Toledo Computing Co., vs Frederickson, of Brady, which came up in the district court yesterday, was decided in favor of the defendant. Frederickson purchased a scale of said company and because it did not prove satisfactory refused to pay $100, which was due on the sale.

Saturday Specials

Lady Fingers, per dozen15c
 Cream Puffs, per dozen40c
 Old Fashioned Ginger Bread10c
 Angel Food Cakes25c
 Devil Food Cakes25c
 White and Chocolate Cakes25c
 Baked from home recipes and with choice butter. They are better than the ordinary kind.

We especially invite the ladies to stop in; as we are showing an exceptionally nice line of Bakery Goods.

DICKEY'S
 Confectionery and Bakery.

Rev. Charles Chapman held religious services at Ogalalla yesterday.

Mrs. Charles Wyman will leave shortly for points in Kansas to visit relatives.

Miss Cora Brockett left yesterday morning for eastern points to spend several weeks.

Ladies Signet Rings, and Bracelets. A very fine assortment at Clinton's Jewelry Store.

Mr. and Mrs. Cyrus Stebbins will leave tomorrow for Wichita, Kan., where they expect to locate.

Miss Nickerson, of Hayes Center, submitted to an operation at St. Luke's hospital yesterday morning.

Harry Beam, of Wallace, who spent several days in town, left Wednesday for a two weeks' stay in Rawlins.

Our Pyrolin Ivory goods are going fast. Dixon, The Jeweler.

Deputy Wilson, of the Nebraska Telephone Co., came up yesterday to transact business at the local office.

Mrs. Geo. Grady and son of Grand Island, arrived yesterday afternoon to spend several days with relatives in town.

Just received a big assortment of the $5.00 cut glass water sets. They are going fast. Dixon, The Jeweler.

The annual meeting of the Lincoln County Medical Society will be held at the Timmerman hotel Wednesday evening Dec. 20th.

SCHILLER & CO., Prescription Druggists

First Door North of First National Bank

Mrs. E. M. Elder, of Indianapolis, will arrive tomorrow afternoon to spend the holidays with her brother George Tekulve. Mrs. Elder was a former young lady of this city.

The Fremont Tribune remarks: It seems more and more certain as the days go by that W. J. Bryan will be the democratic candidate for president in 1912. Of course, that is what the Hub has insisted all along. Bryan has been busy for a year past eliminating possible nominees, and as the Tribune remarks has them all out of the way now except Harmon of Ohio.—Kearney Hub.

With little trace of friction the republican national committee met at Washington Tuesday and formulated the preliminary plans for the campaign of 1912. The program agreed upon was carried out expeditiously in two short sessions, aggregating barely more than two hours. Chicago was chosen as the convention city and the call was issued for the assembling of delegates on Tuesday, June 18, to nominate candidates for president and vice president.

GIVEN AWAY FREE

A $250 Harley Davidson 4-Horse Power Motor Cycle, Magneto Ignition
 A Ticket With Every Pair of Shoes.
Yellow Front Shoe Store,
 DIENER & FLEISHMAN.

A Modern Institution

For the treatment of medical and surgical cases. Open to the medical profession. Special accommodations for confinement cases. Training school for nurses in connection. Address all communications to the superintendent.
 Phone 642 Cor. Eighth and Locust

Local and Personal.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Simons will spend the holidays with relatives in Hastings.

W. J. Tiley spent yesterday in Cozad on business connected with the Yeoman lodge.

E. O. Halverson went to Gothenburg yesterday morning to visit his family.

Leo Pass, of the Sacred Heart college of Denver, will come home for the holidays.

Miss Mary Hostetter, of Lewellen, is spending this week in town with local friends.

Mrs. E. E. Linebaugh was called to Des Moines Wednesday by the serious illness of her mother.

Miss Lillian Hendy returned Tuesday night from a short visit with friends in Grand Island.

Mr. and Mrs. Millard Hosler left Tuesday evening for Kearney to spend a few days.

Clyde Trotter, of Brady, came up Wednesday morning to transact business for a days.

The Knights of Columbus will give a reception and card party for the ladies on the evening of January 10th.

Edfor Rasmussen, of Hershey, returned home Wednesday morning after spending a few days with relatives.

Miss Mabel Duke, who has been teaching in the Columbus schools, will arrive next week to visit her parents.

Mrs. F. E. Bicknell and baby, of Ogalalla, arrived yesterday and will spend several days with friends in town.

Miss Myrtle Keller, of Maxwell, returned home Wednesday evening after a short visit with Mrs. Lillian Hendy.

Leo Tobin, who had been visiting relatives and transacting business in town for several days, returned to Denver Wednesday.

James Elliott, a registered pharmacist from Fremont, arrived here a few days ago and will accept a position at the Schiller Drug store.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Crosby, of Grand Island, arrived Wednesday afternoon to visit friends for a week or more while enroute to Pocatello.

Mrs. Arthur Allen and baby, of Farnam, arrived Wednesday morning to make their home. Mr. Allen was recently appointed Deputy County Clerk.

C. H. Kelly, formerly of Ogalalla, but late of Daniel, Wyo., spent several days in town this week with W. H. Turpie while enroute home from Omaha.

Mr. and Mrs. Beecher P. Parker, of Rock Springs, are expected early next week to visit the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Lowe during the holidays.

Mr. and Mrs. James Keliber, of Council Bluffs, who visited relatives this week left Wednesday for Holdrege and Grand Island to spend to weeks with relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Crandall, of Lodgepole, who were guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Kelly this week while enroute home from an extensive eastern visit, left Tuesday evening.

Miss Euphenia Johnson, principal of Lincoln Hall, of Omaha, is expected next week to transact business for several days. While here she will visit with Mr. and Mrs. James Payne.

Mrs. Hattie Farrington was tendered a surprise Wednesday afternoon by the members of Bradford Lodge. A pleasant afternoon was spent and the delicious lunch was greatly enjoyed.

Mrs. Charles Edwards received a coterie of ladies yesterday afternoon at a Kensington. The guest of honor was Mrs. H. K. Smith, of Mt. Pleasant, Mo. The refreshments were very dainty and all present report a pleasant afternoon.

Miss Blanche Wright was tendered a surprise party last evening by a number of her young school mates. A variety of pleasant games made up a delightful evening. The refreshments were nicely prepared and appropriate to the season.

Cards were received by local people Wednesday from Mr. and Mrs. Milton Doolittle, of Long Beach, Cal., on which they announce that they will give in marriage on Wednesday, Dec. 20th their daughter Helen Augusta to George Harrison Stevenson, of that city.

The Yeoman elected the following officers Tuesday evening: Rev. R. B. Favoright, grand foreman; Lyman Welch, master of ceremonies; J. L. Loudon, correspondent; Fred Warren, master of accounts; Mrs. Lyman Welch, chaplain; W. J. Tiley, overseer; Mrs. Mary Alexander, watchman; James Downing, sentinel; Mrs. M. K. Duke, Lady Rebecca; Mrs. T. J. Kerr, Lady Rowena; Max McGrew, guard. These officers will be installed January 9th.

Orrick Bunting's large hay and feed barn in the Fourth ward was completely destroyed by fire early Wednesday morning. The alarm was sent in by neighbors who first discovered the fire, but it had gained such headway that nothing could be removed and a large quantity of hay and feed besides several sets of harness, was consumed. Fortunately the horses were not in the barn at the time.

William H. Null Dies at Sidney.

William Henry Null, an old soldier and an old resident of Myrtle precinct, died Tuesday afternoon at 3:10, at his home in Sidney, aged 77 years, 5 months and 28 days. He had been confined to his bed since October 14th, and since that time had taken no nourishment whatever—a period of 86 days. The nature of his illness could not be determined. The funeral took place at the home at 2 o'clock Thursday afternoon, after which interment was made in the Sidney cemetery. Mr. Null leaves a widow and three sons, George, William and John. He had a host of friends, who sympathy will rest with those bereaved.

Strikers' Benefit.

Crystal Theatre Thursday, Friday and Saturday of this week 14th, 15th, and 16th will be under the management of the striking shopmen of the Union Pacific. Good vaudeville and special pictures. Prices 10 and 15c. The public is cordially invited and their patronage will be greatly appreciated.

Weingand

Says

Suits AND Overcoats One-Fourth Off

Everything New No Old Stock.

THE FIRST NATIONAL BANK, OF NORTH PLATTE, NEB.

CAPITAL AND SURPLUS $145,000.00.

With our ample capital, long experience in banking, and assets of three quarters of a million dollars, we are in a position to give you the best possible service.

E. F. SEEBERGER, Pres. F. L. MOONEY, Cashier.

McDonald State Bank, NORTH PLATTE, NEBRASKA.

Capital Stock Fully Paid $100,000.00.

—Oldest Bank in Lincoln County.—

We Respectfully Solicit your Banking Business. Satisfaction Guaranteed . . .

CHAS. McDONALD, President.

W. H. McDONALD, Cashier and Vice-Prest.

KEITH THEATRE Tuesday, Dec. 19

The First Big Song Comedy of the Season

The Newlyweds and their Baby

Swift and merry, its tunes and fun tickled all New York and Chicago for months.

60 and 1/2 People 75 Percent Girls.

Runs wild with fun, girls and music, brilliant gowns, original company, immense production.

Prices 50 cents to $1.50