It is stated by those who claim to know that for a pleasant and mental recreation the lecture of Ernest Utterman at Lloyd's opera house on Feb. 27th on the subject "Why Things Happen to Happen," will be one of great merit. Utterman's lectures are said to bristle with great truths that are told in such a convincing way that none can doubt and they create impressions in their effect. From those who have heard him comes the statement that a lecturer of the ability of Mr. Utterman has seldom ever visited our city.

Just at this time there is no evidence to unusual activity in the building line for the coming season. There are a number of new residences proposed, but it is not known just how many will assume material shape. Other than residences the building improvements will be light. Lock expects to put up a big brick garage on the corner of Locust and Fourth, Keith Neville may conclude to erect a building on the site of the house recently gutted by fire on east Sixth, and Julius Pizer, if the Burlington builds in town, will erect a fine building on his Locust street site. There is a rumor that an airside will be built on the lot adjoining the Baptist church.

Letter From City Attorney Halligan.

Editor of the North Platte Tribune:
As the election to authorize the mayor and city council to pay for the present waterworks system and to extend the same with the proceeds of the $100,000.00 bonds already voted to establish and erect a plant in the city will soon be held, it seemed to me proper to state in your paper the exact legal status of the water works situation, so the electors may vote with a thorough understanding of the results of their votes, both for and against the proposition.

On November 21st, 1911, the circuit court of appeals rendered its decision, reversing the decision of the circuit court and in effect directing that a judgment be entered against the city for the appraised value of the plant, viz: $85,021.00.

It is therefore certain that not later than June 13th, 1912, a judgment will be entered in the United States district court against the city and in favor of the receiver for $85,021.00.

This judgment will draw seven per cent per annum from the date of its rendition. The bonds draw interest at the rate of five percent.

If the proposition to authorize the mayor and city council to use the proceeds of the bonds already voted is defeated and no other bonds voted for the purpose of paying for the plant, the receiver will then, without doubt, go into the United States court and mandamus the mayor and city council to levy a tax to pay this judgment. This tax will probably not all be levied in one year, but the tax officers will be compelled to levy a sufficient tax each year to pay the judgment within a few years. In the mean time the city will not have possession of the plant, as the court will not compel the receiver to deliver the plant to the city until the same is paid for, as the circuit court of appeals has recently refused to compel the Omaha Water Works Company to deliver the plant in that city to the city prior to the payment of the same.

During all of this time the receiver will doubtless make no extension and the city will be unable to do so under the condition then existing.

It is estimated by competent engineers that the depreciation of a water works system is about two per cent per annum. This depreciation will be going on, and no deduction will be made for the same, notwithstanding the fact that the city must pay the appraised value of the plant.

The proceeds of the bonds already voted will be $100,000.00, out of which the judgment amounting to $85,021.00 will have to be paid; the remainder, being almost $15,000.00, can be used for betterments and extensions, and the city council can provide for other extensions if that amount is insufficient.

Under these circumstances it would seem to be the exercise of good business judgment to authorize the city council to use the proceeds of the bonds already voted to pay for the present plant.

JOHN J. HALLIGAN,
City Attorney.

Chapman-Smith Wedding.

A pretty home wedding was solemnized Tuesday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Perry Buchanan, the contracting parties being Mrs. Buchanan's sister, Miss Elizabeth Smith and Edgar Chapman. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Charles Chapman at 8:30 p. m. in a bower of smilax, carnations and palms arranged in a corner of the parlor. Miss Helen Davidson played the wedding march and Mrs. E. E. Linebaugh sang "O Promise Me."

The bride wore a dainty gown of white silk mull with trimmings of lace and net and carried a large bouquet of ferns and narcissis. The groom wore the conventional black. There were no attendants. After the ceremony a sumptuous wedding supper was served to the forty guests. The color scheme of red and white was carried out in the refreshments, cut flowers and table decorations.

Many useful and costly gifts were presented to the bride and groom, who left at midnight for a honeymoon trip in eastern Nebraska after which they will reside in Aurora or Sidney.

Mrs. Chapman is a North Platte product, an amiable young lady and faithful church worker, and possesses the qualities which go toward making a happy home.

The groom came to this city several years ago and was employed as conductor on the road until last year. Since that time he has been associated in business with his uncle in Aurora but has a flattering offer in Sidney.

Deputy Wilson, of Grand Island, returned home yesterday morning after spending several days on business at the local telephone office.

Mrs. J. H. VanCleave and children went to Hershey yesterday morning to visit friends for a short time.
