New Home Secretly Furnished by Wife

INDIANAPOLIS.—To be taken into a strange home by his wife and to be told, while he admired the elegant furnishings, that he was the owner of the property, was the unusual experience the other afternoon of John E. Keller, manager of a department in a local store. Until then Mr. and Mrs. Keller resided in the Meridian flats. They now reside at 2535 Talbott avenue in a home that was chosen by Mrs. Keller and completely furnished by her without her husband's knowledge.

The clever deception used by Mrs. Keller to keep her husband ignorant of her plans to surprise him would have baffled a detective even if he had been suspicious of her intentions. The culmination of her plans so startled Mr. Keller that he declared that he felt his "brain was fuzzy."

"A short time ago," said Mr. Keller, "we decided to give up our apartment at the Meridian flats and to place our furnishings in storage that we might engage a smaller apartment. I came home one night from the store and a par of the furniture was gone. My wife informed me that she had stored the furniture in 'the nicest little place imaginable.'

"The next evening when I returned more of the furniture had been taken away and I thought nothing of it, as my wife semed to have taken the moving of our property in charge. The following afternoon she suggested that I walk with her to Talbott avenue to inspect a home that was for rent.

"She told me to wait and that she would call at a neighbor's house for the key. When she got the key the whole family came to the porch and smiled at me. Not understanding the situation at the time I thought they acted strangely, but said nothing about it.

"I put the key in the lock, opened the door and was surprised to see that the house was furnished.

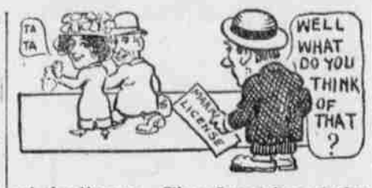
"'Look here,' I said, 'you've got me in bad. This house is furnished and occupied. Some one will be coming after me in a moment.

"My wife replied that there surely could not be a mistake, and continued talking to me, at the same time pushing me through the door. I felt as if I were breaking into some one's house, but what could I do?

"Moving day had occurred in the experience of at least one married man without his knowing anything about it."

The change of residence made by Mr. and Mrs. Keller was on their ninth wedding anniversary.

Jilts Philosopher for Man With Money



PHILADELPHIA.—Guy Carlton Lee, widely known throughout the country as a lecturer and a philosopher, sat in the St. James hotel the other day contemplating a marriage license which he had procured, thinking he was to marry Dr. Hildegarde H. Langsdorf of Carlisle, Pa.

He was taking one last look at the marriage license prior to returning it to the bureau with the notation: "Not used. She married another."

Dr. Langsdorf became the bride of John L. Ayer of Chester, Pa., a wealthy young man who doesn't have to do anything but spend his money. They were married the day before at Media after a race between the two men for the hand of the bride.

In his downcast way Lee told all about it. He said he had lost and he felt grieved.

"I love Dr. Langsdorf, dearly," he said, "and I thought she was going to marry me. She seemed to doubt it, but I wouldn't take no for an answer.

"I came to Philadelphia with the understanding that Dr. Langsdorf would follow me. She did. I went to the marriage license office and obtained the license. Then I met her at the train and showed it to her. She didn't say much, but I didn't see her again."

After leaving Lee, Dr. Langsdorf went directly to Chester, where she met John L. Ayer. They went to Media and got the marriage license and later married. They did not take their friends into their confidence and no person seems to know where they have gone.

The happy bridegroom, who atmaneuvered Lee, has had previous experience in the matrimonial game. Acording to the license, he was divorced for desertion seventeen days ago in Prince George county, Md. He is 48 years old.

The bride is 44 years old and is well known as a contributor to medical journals.

Old Man Gives Pointers on Skating

DETROIT.—For the first time in 46 years, Charles Thompson, a California fruit grower ,aged 72 years, put on a pair of skates, a few days ago, and caused the crowd of youngsters at the Hamtramck skating rink to gasp in wonder and astonishment at his performance.

Thompson, who lived in Detroit before the Civil war, is visiting relatives in Hamtramck, near the Holbrook school. In search of diversion, and in an attempt to discover a few of the old landmarks of their boyhood, he and his host started for a walk. About the first thing they encountered was the municipal skating rink, crowded with small boys.

"I believe that I am not too old yet to go in for that," said Thompson, stroking his flowing beard.

"Shouldn't wonder if you weren't, Charlie. Like to see you try it," said his companion.

A pair of skates were produced and Thompson put them on. He rose shakily to his feet, his knees trembling. A small boy skated up, and proffered assistance.

"Come on, Mister, I'll help you start. There! Steady now! Stroke, mister; right-left—now you're going. Gee, stroke slower; don't go so fast, you'll fall. Hey! Where are you going, anyway. I can't keep up to you. Leggo! Leggo, I say." And the small boy was left behind, gazing in astonishment at the figure eights and the "Dutch rolls" which the old man with the flowing beard cut.

After nearly an hour Thompson returned to his admiring friend.

"I can't go like I used to," he said. "My knees are a trifle wobbly and my ankles are getin' weak for this kind of sport."

Thompson owns a large farm at Farmersville, Cal., where he raises prunes. He lived in Detroit before the Civil war and saw service on the Cumberland river during that struggle.

With 1,283 Letters He Finds Brother

MINNEAPOLIS.—To meet his brother, whom he had never seen, in order to find whom he had written 1,283 letters, addressing every man named Lundy that he learned of anywhere in the world, C. A. Lundy, 4341 Twelfth avenue S., left the other day for Ferryville, Wis., where he will spend some time.

Twenty-five years ago John Lundy and wife and the little boy, who is now C. A. Lundy, 31 years old, came from near Bergen, Norway, and settled near Lanesboro, Fillmore county, Minnesota. There Mrs. Lundy died shortly after.

John Lundy married again, after a time. C. A. Lundy went to live with another family who brought him up. Martin Lundy came into the world. John Lundy died and his widow married again and became Mrs. E. Anderson. C. A. Lundy knew there had been a little child born to his father and stepmother, but his stepmother had left Minnesota and had married somewhere out of the state and he neither knew where, or what her name had become after her second marriage. Martin Lundy is now 20 years of age.

Week after week Mr. Lundy took his letters to the postoffice, and week after week he opened replies, but from nowhere did he learn of a Lundy that was his brother until after a number of years. Then he heard of the Ferryville man, wrote and found his brother. He ceased writing letters thereafter and has been waiting several years for an opportunity to go to Ferryville and greet his brother in person, which opportunity came today.

Mr. Lundy may spend some time in Ferryville before returning to Minneapolis.

SURELY HARD MAN TO PLEASE

Artist Did His Best, but Somehow Managing Editor Would Not Be Satisfied.

An artist was drawing a cartoon wherein the flag of our nation played a large part. He drew the flag, first time, with five stars in the blue field and took it to the managing editor, who promptly let out a yelp.

"Wadye think this country is," said the managing editor, "a trust?"

"What's the trouble?" asked the artist.

"Trouble," bellowed the managing editor, "why, we need more stars, stars, stars!"

So the artist brought the picture back and this time he had 117 stars in it by actual count.

The magaging editor felt his head and choked slightly.

"What do you think you're drawing?" he asked as last.

"You're the hardest man to please I ever met in my life," said the artist indignantly; "first it's too few and then it's too many. How many stars do you want, anyway?"

Air Laws.

Wilbur Wright, at a tea in Dayton, said with a laugh:

"Already there are air laws, stringent as road laws. Without them we should soon be seeing advertisements like this:

"'Two dollars reward will be paid by Mrs. John Doe for information leading to the identification of the aviator on a Wright roadster who, while flying over my house yesterday afternoon, dropped a can of oil down my chimney and completely ruined a plum pudding I was cooking.'"

Kaiser as Writer.

The German emperor, had he been born a commoner and chosen newspaper work as a profession, would without doubt have become one of the most famous journalists of the day. He has written a great deal which has never seen the light, but which will doubtless be published in the future. Recently the emperor assisted in the preparation of an article entitled "How the Kaiser Works," for the Strand Magazine, the proof sheets which he read and corrected himself.

Self-Sacrificing Essential.

"You don't claim to be a party leader?"

"No," replied the quiet citizen. "Everybody wants to be the leader of the party. It strikes me that somebody ought to be willing to be the party."

"Thank you, Mr. Tarkington," the Englishman answered, "but I don't walk in my sleep."

WELCOME WORDS TO WOMEN

Women who suffer with disorders peculiar to their sex should write to Dr. Pierce and receive free the advice of a physician of over 40 years' experience—a skilled and successful specialist in the diseases of women. Every letter of this sort has the most careful consideration and is regarded as sacredly confidential. Many sensitively modest women write fully to Dr. Pierce what they would shrink from telling to their local physician. The local physician is pretty sure to say that he cannot do anything without "an examination." Dr. Pierce holds that these distasteful examinations are generally needless, and that no woman, except in rare cases, should submit to them.

Dr. Pierce's treatment will cure you right in the privacy of your own home. His "Favorite Prescription" has cured hundreds of thousands, some of them the worst of cases.

It is the only medicine of its kind that is the product of a regularly graduated physician. The only one good enough that its makers dare to print its every ingredient on its outside wrapper. There's no secrecy. It will bear examination. No alcohol and no habit-forming drugs are found in it. Some unscrupulous medicine dealers may offer you a substitute. Don't take it. Don't trifle with your health. Write to World's Dispensary Medical Association, Dr. R. V. Pierce, President, Buffalo, N. Y.,—take the advice received and be well.
