NORTH PLATTE, NEB., MARCH 5, 1912.

No. 11

Think this over

Who gets the Money You earn?

Economy looks like an up-hill game when you first begin, and sometimes it IS an up-hill game; but it is the ROAD TO PROSPERITY, and if you can preserve in your small economies you will find this out. Your extravagance does not draw interest. Some day you will pay interest on your present extravagance. If you put that money in the BANK NOW, you can some day afford to buy the luxuries you crave without missing the money.

Do YOUR banking with US.

The First National Bank,
OF NORTH PLATTE, NEBRASKA.
The Largest Bank in Western Nebraska.

The Episcopal Guild will meet at the Rectory Thursday afternoon.

Fireman Raleigh Warren left last evening for Wood, Kas., to stay six weeks with the home folks.

Allison Wilcox returned Sunday evening from Paxton where he spent the past two weeks on business.

Police Judge Warren returned Sunday from York where he went as socialist delegate to the state convention.

Mr. and Mrs. H. V. Hilliker, of Denver, visited friends a short time this morning while enroute to visit in the east.

A special train of eight coaches, carrying the company of eighty-five playing "The Pink Lady," passed through Sunday enroute to Denver.

Robert Armstrong who has been in business in Sutherlin, Ore., for several months is expected back in a few days and will once more become a resident of this city.

Joe Leven, of Salt Lake City, who has been a guest at the Pizer home, left for New York to spend several weeks. Mrs. Leven will remain with her sister Mrs. Pizer until his return.

Unusual care has been exercised to provide an attractive and thoroughly up-to-date line of Spring Millinery which are you cordially invited to call and inspect. MISS WHITTAKER.

The wedding of Miss Maude Stewart of Sterling and Charles Berkebie, of Swanson, O., which was to take place at Sterling tomorrow has been postponed on account of the serious illness of the latter. Miss Stewart was recently employed here as pianist at the Crystal theatre.

Joe Sculley, of Omaha, died at Los Angeles Sunday. He was a member of the Omaha Originals ball team a score or more years ago, and played in a number of games on the North Platte diamond. All the older local fans will remember Joe.

While Harriman line earnings for January show a falling off as compared with those of the corresponding month of last year, the slump is only half of that of December. During December the earnings fell off over $1,000,000, as compared with the December of 1910.

Emma Waggoner, by her attorney Wm. E. Shuman, has filed suit against the city for $2,500 damages she claims to have sustained by falling on the icy pavement on Fifth street near Dewey, December 30th. She also asks for costs of suit and interest on $2,500 from December 30th. This claim was presented to the city council several weeks ago, but was rejected, hence the commencement of a suit.

Fred H. Thompson, Joseph Spies, Emma Schott, Dorothy Rowland, Mary A. Baker, Gustave F. Meyer, Anna M. Meyer, Henry Breternitz, Fred Waltemath, Sarah E. Hinman, Miner Hinman, Cora C. Osgood, Curtis Hinman and Adeline Breternitz as plaintiffs have filed a suit in the district court in which they seek to nullify part of the city ordinance passed last August because their lands were included in the city limits by said ordinance. E. H. Evans appears as attorney for the plaintiffs.

NO QUESTION
about fire insurance when written by Bratt & Goodman, leading fire insurance agents.

Will Vote Wet or Dry.

Rev. R. B. Favoright filed with City Clerk Temple Saturday a petition signed by thirty-five voters and resident free-holders asking that the question of license or no license be submitted to the voters at the coming municipal election. This petition is filed under a law passed by the last legislature, and is certainly a much more sane way of settling the wet or dry proposition than to make it an issue in the election of councilmen. It will also be a test as to how the voters of North Platte stand on the saloon question.

A Safe Investment
for your idle money in first mortgage loans made on conservative values, backed by responsible parties. We have some choice ones, $250 and upwards. Nothing safer.

Bratt & Goodman.

New Corporation.
A corporation known as the Rincker book and drug company, with F. W. Rincker, Dr. G. B. Dent, Dr. V. Lucas and C. L. Doherty, came into existence yesterday.

The new company takes over the present stock of the Rincker store and will add thereto a complete line of drugs, toilet articles, etc. Mr. Rincker will remain as manager of the book department and C. L. Doherty will be manager of the drug department. The latter has been employed for a number of months by the Rexall drug store.

Proposition Almost Unanimous.

At the special election held yesterday on a proposition authorizing the city council to apply the $100,000 bonds previously voted to the purchase of the present water plant and construct additional mains, the vote was almost unanimously in favor of the proposition. Out of a total vote of 366, there were 327 for and thirty-nine against. The vote by wards was: First, 83 for and 5 against; Second 67 for, 7 against; Third 110 for, 4 against; Fourth 67 for, 23 against.

The council will at once enter into negotiations with the company for the purchase of the plant.

To the Public.

I have the insurance business of Judge Grant—the British American and the German Fire of Omaha. Policies written by Judge Grant are absolutely good, notwithstanding other wise reported. Will take of all old business and want new business. Will list your property for sale, or rent it for you.

Phone me or come and see me. With Nebraska Real Estate Co., over Mart's Meat Market.

L. L. MILTONBERGER.

Rural Carrier Examination.

The civil service commission announces an examination to be given Mar. 30th, 1912, to fill a vacancy in the position of rural carrier at North Platte, Neb., and other vacancies as they occur on the rural routes at post offices in Lincoln county. The usual entrance salary for rural carriers is from $600 to $1,000 per annum. Under a recent ruling of the civil service commission rural carriers may be transferred, after one year's service, to the position of clerk or mail carrier in first or second class offices, the position of railway mail clerk or to other positions in the classified service, subject to such examination as may be required by the civil service rules. As men are desired for rural carriers women will not be admitted to this examination.

Geo. P. Smith will open a new meat market on North Locust Street in the Van Natta building. Mr. Smith has had considerable experience in the business and will no doubt make good.

The case of the state of Nebraska vs John Parker for malicious destruction of property was up for trial in the county court yesterday. While intoxicated Saturday evening Parker broke a large plate glass window of the Den saloon and was arrested. He pleaded guilty to the charge and was bound over to the district court in the sum of $200. Unable to pay he was taken back to jail. Parker had been employed on the Holloway ranch for some time. So great was his resistance to the officers that extra hand cuffs were used at the time of arrest.

You know us!

We are Mary Jane and her lamb. We have hired out to the best store in this city.

We are happy; because our consciences are clear. The store we are going to work for has a clear conscience. There is no cotton in what they tell you is "all wool."

We are happy, because we succeed. So does the store we work for succeed; their upright goods and upright methods compel success.

Each week for a whole year we shall greet you in this paper, always with a smile. Our store folks greet you with a smile when you come in, and sell you reliable merchandise.

Miss Matie Paulson was tendered a surprise party by a number of her friends Saturday evening. Games and contests were played for several hours, after which a dainty lunch was served. An enjoyable evening was spent by all.

The senior class of the Kearney school has adopted a grey cap and gown for the commencement season, and the action has been strongly commended by the board of education, as it limits the cost of the suits and gowns for the graduates.

"Pony Bob," well known to the old-timers of North Platte died a few days ago in Chicago. Bob was a pony mail carrier and fifty-two years ago rode up the Platte valley and announced the news of Lincoln's first election. For years he was associated with the Cody show, and though a midget in size had a heart in him as big as a mountain.
