A Washington dispatch dated yesterday says: The public lands committee of the house has agreed to report the Borah bill favorably, enabling homesteaders to prove up in three years, with seven months' actual residence each year upon their land. The committee also agreed to pass an amendment offered by Congressman Kinkaid extending the provisions of the bill to Nebraska lands.

A petition is being circulated asking that the name of W. M. Cunningham be placed on the ticket for the municipal election as a candidate for water commissioner. Mr. Cunningham is the logical candidate, the man the city needs and really should have when it takes over the water plant. Through his long service with the water company he is thoroughly conversant with all the details and under his supervision the plant would move along as successfully as though no change had been made.

Senator W. V. Hoagland of North Platte is a candidate for re-nomination as state senator from this district. Last year he was one of the real live wires in the senate and gave our district the best service it has ever had. Mr. Hoagland is an attorney of considerable prominence in western Nebraska, and has demonstrated his ability to handle the affairs of Senator to the satisfaction of all. What then, could be more plausible than to re-nominate and re-elect him.—Gothenburg Independent.

Kinkaid Shot.

An Oshkosh special to the Bee dated Wednesday says: William Fiesterman was probably fatally shot by Jack Ferguson for trespassing this morning. Ferguson had forbidden Fiesterman to trespass in hauling hay across his place, talking down fences. Both are Kinkaid homesteaders, living thirty-five miles northeast of Oshkosh in Garden county. Fiesterman has a good reputation and was not quarrelsome. The wound was evidently inflicted by a large caliber rifle.

New Station Agent.

F. E. Bullard was yesterday dropped from the pay roll as station agent of the Union Pacific, and Frank T. Redmond, who has been cashier, was checked in as agent. Whether Mr. Redmond's appointment is permanent is not at this time known, but if meritorious service for the company is to be considered, he is certainly entitled to the position. For over twenty years he has been employed in clerical positions at the freight house and he knows the business from start to finish; and more than this, Mr. Redmond enjoys the full confidence of North Platte people—he is a first-class, progressive citizen.

Diener Files for Assessor.

F. J. Diener has filed for the republican nomination for county assessor. Mr. Diener has been a resident of Lincoln county for twenty-eight years, twenty-four of which were spent on his farm in Plant precinct. Four years ago he moved to North Platte where he has since resided. Mr. Diener has had experience in the assessors' work, having held the precinct assessorship three years, and for a similar period has done the assessing in one of the wards of this city. This makes him conversant with the work. Mr. Diener—along with his several brothers—has been a stalwart republican and has done much work for the party. If nominated and elected he will make a competent official.

J. W. Whelpton, of Ogalala, has filed for the republican nomination for representative at large from Lincoln and Keith counties. He is a clean cut, progressive man of fine business and executive ability. He is the type of men we need in the legislature.

The Omaha diocese of the Catholic church is to be divided and an episcopal see established at Kearney with a new bishop in charge. The division is the result of a petition sent to Rome last summer by the Bishops of Iowa, Wyoming, Nebraska, South Dakota and Montana which stated that the increasing population of western Nebraska made the work very hard for Rev. Richard Scannell. A new bishop for this division will be chosen from three candidates whose names have been submitted by irremovable rectors of Omaha and will be sent to Pope of Rome.

The Modern Woodmen held a meeting last evening and discussed the altitudinous raise in assessments. They will hold a special meeting Thursday evening of next week and elect delegates to the insurgent state convention to be held at Hastings March 20th. A special from Hastings says: Denying that the head counsel or other executive officers have the right to cancel certificates of members so long as they pay their dues, Walter Livingston, head of the insurgent Queen City camp, declared the state meeting called for March 20 here will be held regardless of the threat of Head Consul Talbot to suspend the members who participate.
