If you are a judge of good clothes---If you like to see a man neatly, prosperously dressed, looking up to date and successful. If this is the kind of man you are, we have something of interest to show you.

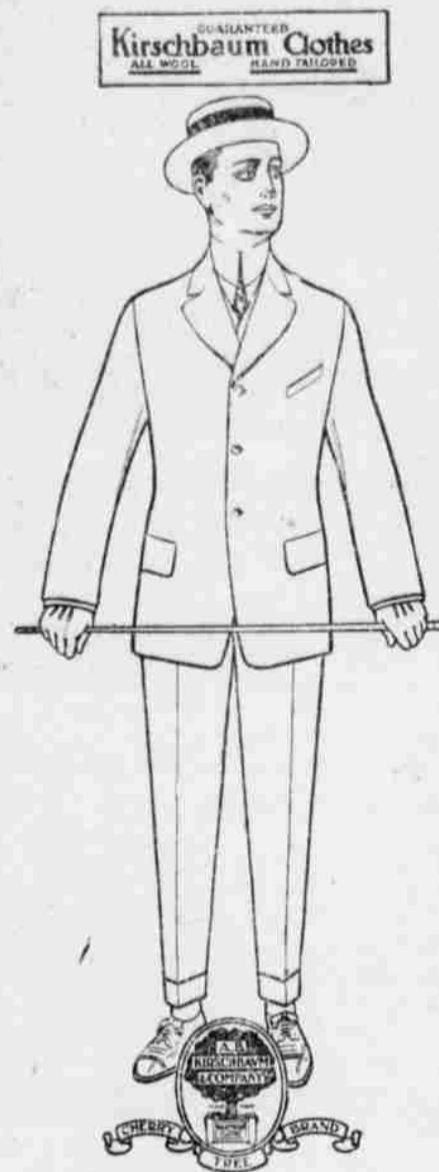

Only a few days ago our Spring Goods came in from Kirschbaum and Alco System, the famous Good Clothes Makers of Philadelphia. Before seeing them we would have declared it impossible to produce such smart, perfect fitting garments at anything like the prices asked. But the proofs are here, it remains for you to judge them for yourself.

Suits like these shown, for instance, ones which could be worn with equal propriety by a College Boy or a President, can't be had in great variety of fabrics, shades and colorings at from $12.50 to $25.00.

The cleverness of the makers has expressed itself wonderfully here, in the grace and good looks of this particular model. And it will look well on you.
