

The Elks' Carnival

will be a great attraction and we have many new and novel articles of jewelry that would add to your toilet.

Ladies' Slipper Buckles, Belt Buckles, Finger Rings, Cuff Links, Stick Pins.

Gents' Signet Rings, Cuff Links, Stick Pins, Elk Pins and Rings.

We hope to meet you at the Carnival,
And we would be pleased to meet you in our store.

DIXON, The Jeweler.

DR. O. H. CRESSLER.

Graduate Dentist.

Office over the McDonald State Bank.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

Rev. McDaid will attend the K. C. banquet at Grand Island on Sunday, April 21st.

Arbor day will be observed next Monday by the banks, court house and public offices.

The new soda fountain in the Kandy Kitchen is expected to arrive the last of the week.

Miss Emma O'Connor went to Sutherland Saturday to visit her sister for several days.

Mr. and Mrs. F. T. Redmond spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. William Tanner in Lexington.

Mrs. John Herrod is expected home this week from a three weeks' visit in Denver and cities of California.

Mrs. Clarks, of Lewellen, who visited Mr. and Mrs. Charles Haner last week, returned home Saturday.

Edmund Dickey, of Kearney, came up yesterday morning to transact business and visit Mr. and Mrs. Robert Dickey.

A class of ten new members was taken into the Girls Friendly Society at the Episcopal church Sunday evening.

The Rebekah kensington club will serve supper at the I. O. O. hall this evening. Fancy articles will be on sale.

M. C. Woods, of Sutherland, who submitted to an operation at the St. Luke hospital last week, is improving satisfactorily.

Mrs. Thomas Healey assisted by Mesdames James Hart and Will Hawley will entertain the Indian card club tomorrow afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Nanes, of Nebraska City, will arrive this week to locate here. The former will be one of the proprietors of the Kandy Kitchen in the Keith theatre building.

Mrs. Kauffman, who has been very ill for some time, is much improved.

Charles Ross, of Omaha, is visiting his mother Mrs. O. Y. Ross this week.

Frank Cross left yesterday morning Dalesford Sash, Canada, where he has accepted a position.

Mrs. Wigim, of Muscatine, Iowa, arrived the last of the week to visit Mr. and Mrs. James Payne this week.

Mrs. J. W. Vanderhoof left Sunday evening for Grants Pass, Ore., where she was called by the illness of her daughter Mrs. H. T. Pritchard.

Mr. and Mrs. William Ebright entertained the members of the Lutheran Brotherhood last evening. Church affairs were discussed and a nice lunch served.

The Chappell branch of the I. O. O. F. are planning their entertainment for April 26th which will be the ninety-third anniversary of the organization of the lodge.

Miss Callie Rork was tendered a surprise party Friday evening by a number of her young friends who spent the evening playing games. Nice refreshments were served.

J. E. Sebastian and Fred Warren will attend the I. O. O. F. ceremonies on April 26th and the latter will deliver the principal address of the evening.

Under the supervision of Road Commissioner Thoelecke, the dead trees in the court yard were removed Saturday by the use of dynamite; some of the largest trees were raised several feet.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Baldeck and daughter Pauline will leave for the east Saturday for the benefit of the latter's health. They will remain indefinitely. Mr. Baldeck having resigned his position in the Greeson grocery.

The Philathea club gave a very enjoyable party in the parlors of the Presbyterian church Friday evening. Clever contests, unique games and music made it pleasant for all. Mrs. Frank Buchanan won first prize in the contest. A delicious lunch was served. The entertainment committee was Mesdames Irving VanDoran, Clark Buchanan and Miss Minnie Lowe.

Dick Baker transacted business in Sutherland the last of the week.

Several of the local K. C.'s will attend the entertainment at Sidney this evening.

T. M. Akers, of the Colorado Milling and Mining Co., is spending this week here on business.

Emmett and Levett Boyle, of Hershey, came down yesterday morning to visit their aunt Miss Margaret Duggan.

Judge Grimes, Court Reporter Cary and several local attorneys went to Kimball yesterday to attend court this week.

A large number of local young ladies have been asked to assist at the booth at the Elks' carnival and also at the refreshment rooms.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Rankin, of Stapleton, arrived here the last of the week and will leave for Gandy where they will probably locate.

The Rebekahs will serve supper at the Odd Fellow's hall this evening, an excellent menu having been prepared. Fancy work will also be on sale.

For Sale—Pure bred Road Island Red eggs at $1.00 per setting. 821 East 5th St. Phone 487.

Messrs. W. J. O'Connor, W. J. Landgraf, Charles Herrod, Frank McGovern, William Stack, F. J. Doran and John Stack are among those who will attend the Knights of Columbus banquet at Grand Island next Sunday.

Carl Shaffer underwent an operation for appendicitis at St. Luke's hospital Saturday evening, and is reported to be getting along satisfactorily. The operation was a prolonged and difficult one, the appendix having become knotted and had adhered to the surrounding flesh.

The opening dinner at the Palace cafe Saturday was attended by several hundred people. The tables were decorated with pink and white, cut flowers and an elaborate spread served. Music was furnished by the Crystal theatre orchestra. The interior of the dining room is finished in mission with empanelled mirrors and brass electric fixtures, presenting a beautiful appearance.

In a letter to local friends Russell Fowles, who is visiting in Long Beach, Cal., tells of the beautiful summer weather they are enjoying there and the advantage they are taking of it by holding picnics, boating parties and out door fetes. Mr. Fowles owns a home next door to the Doolittle family. He says among those who are visiting there are Mrs. E. R. Smith and daughters and Mrs. Kirby and Miss Ethel, of Gandy, Alice Plummer, Miss Russell and Mr. and Mrs. Appleford, of Maxwell, and Mrs. C. L. Patterson and daughters, of Denver.

Spring Opening

The Notable Fashion Event, Which Began Saturday,
Scores an Emphatic Success.

Those who attended this fashion event on opening day voiced their positive opinion that for being comprehensive in scope and for a truthful forecast, our Spring Opening speaks the final word upon the new Fashions. It is intensely interesting, and if you fail to attend you will have real cause for future regret.

Yet in all this splendid collection of the correct new styles, there is not one garment or one item of merchandise of unworthy quality or faulty workmanship. The fact that our standard of quality is strictly adhered to makes this Spring Opening of even deeper practical interest to you.

Chic New Dresses.

of crisp two-toned changeable and hairline taffeta and messaline with fancy lace yokes, novelty silk embroidery, and deep folds, self plaits, silk fringe, etc. Also natty French Serges in a dozen or more smart models for afternoon wear, Serviceable Garments for Quiet Tastes.

Many women prefer garments of quiet simplicity to those that are ultra stylish. We have both and everything in between. Here are some superb coats and suits in plain, quiet effects, made of simple, but rich looking serge or whipcord which will exactly suit the women who desire simplicity and long serviceability.

Wilcox Department Store.

Charles Herrod and W. J. Landgraf spent Sunday in Lexington on business.

Mrs. Harry Harvey was called to Denver Saturday by the illness of her sister.

Miss Bessie Foster will return to Sidney today after visiting relatives for a week.

Photographer Alex Brooks went to Julesburg Saturday to visit his folks for a couple of days.

Mr. and Mrs. Conklin, of Chappell, returned home today after a week's visit with Mr. and Mrs. Robert Dickey.

J. W. Vanderhoof and granddaughter Ethel Vanderhoof, left yesterday for St. Paul, Minn., where the latter will reside.

Mrs. Geo. Dent and sons George and Townsend are expected home Friday from an extended visit in Long Beach, Cal.

The Keliher confectionery store is being repapered and painted, thus brightening the interior of this business house.

Misses Winnie Bridges, Bessie and Elaine Bundy will entertain the Girls' Friendly Society this evening at the home of the former.

A party of fifteen under the leadership of Dan McKee will come up from Lexington tomorrow to attend the Field Minstrel and the Elk carnival.

Manager Stamp has made arrangements for the Flirting Princess company to play at the Keith early in June with Harry Balzer in the leading role.

R. R. Royer and family leave the latter part of the week for Boise, Idaho, where they will make their future home. Mr. Royer will engage in the lumber business, having purchased an interest in a saw mill. They are people we regret to have leave North Platte.

Bert Miller aged 33, who had been taking medical treatment here for a week past died Friday evening. Mr. Miller resided on a homestead near Lewellen for a year past and was a victim of tuberculosis. His brother E. L. Miller of Ottumwa, Ia., accompanied him here. The remains were shipped to Feler, Idaho, Saturday where the father of the deceased is located.

Arthur Hoagland made a trip to Wallace in his car Saturday and while enroute home the water in the radiator began boiling. He stopped and unscrewed the intake and as he did so the water flew in his face badly burning him around the eyes. Upon reaching the first house on the road he bathed the scalded parts and applied vaseline, which somewhat eased the pain, but he suffered intensely until he reached town and applied other remedies.

District court adjourned Saturday until April 22nd.

Clyde Friso will visit relatives in Dickens the last of the week.

Mrs. Ridenour, of Wallace, is a business visitor in town.

Mrs. H. A. Bybee returned Saturday afternoon from a visit in Omaha.

Anna Gray Clark, of Ogallala, is spending this week in the city.

Herbert Lucky left Sunday for Sioux City, where he will remain indefinitely.

Mrs. A. J. Frazier went to Omaha Sunday to spend a week or longer.

Mrs. Barner, of Gandy, is ill at the home of her sister Mrs. James Dorram.

Mrs. Julia Todd returned to Hershey after spending a few days with her daughter Mrs. Frank Buchanan.

Station Agent Bullard, who had been taking a two months' vacation, resumed his duties yesterday.

Mr. Watson of the hat cleaning shop, spent the last of the week in town on business.

GROCERY SPECIAL

Tuesday and Wednesday,
April 16th and 17th.

Swifts' Premium Hams per lb.....	16c
Swifts' Premium Bacon per lb.....	20c
E. C. Corn Flakes 4 pkgs.....	25c
Seeded Raisins 11 oz pkgs.....	25c
Sauer Kraut 3 cans.....	25c
Hominy 3 cans.....	25c
Standard Corn 2 cans.....	15c
Rex Lye per can.....	7c
5c Toilet Soap per doz.....	40c

Wilcox Department Store.

Special Grocery Sale

For One Week Beginning

April 16, and closing April 22,

Looking over our stock room we find we are loaded on a few items, and in order to reduce these to normal we will offer the following at the prices named for CASH ONLY.

Fancy California Prunes regular 15c Per lb.....	11c
Nice California Prunes Per lb.....	10c
Small Oregon Prunes Per lb.....	7½c
Standard Corn 2 Cans 15c or 12 cans for.....	83c
6 Cans Peas.....	75c
6 Cans Peaches.....	75c
3 Cans Yellow Free Peaches.....	50c
3 Cans Blackberries.....	50c
3 Cans Raspberries.....	50c
3 Cans Red Salmon, tall cans.....	50c
4 Cans Pink Salmon, tall cans.....	50c
5 Cans Red Kidney Beans.....	50c
25c can of Calumet or Eddies' Baking Powder.....	18c
Borden's Columbian Brand Milk, tall cans, none better per can.....	10c
8 bars Lenox Soap.....	25c
8 5c Packages Garden Seed.....	25c

20 per cent Discount on all Granite and tin ware this week.

Better anticipate your wants in these items, and lay in a good supply at these extremely low prices.

Greeson's Grocery.