The tax commissioner of the Union Pacific makes the claim that the land through which that road passes is assessed at one-fifth its actual value instead of one-fifth. This may be true in some counties, but not in Lincoln county.

The renewed proposal to limit a president of the United States to one term of six years is meeting with favor among all classes. Eventually this change in the constitution will be made and then we shall get rid of one-third of the presidential campaigns that as a rule disrupt business and make the man of means cautious of his investments.

Omaha held its first election Tuesday under the commission form of government and the "on the square" candidates, headed by Mayor Jim Dahlman, had a decisive victory over the citizen's union. This election verifies the statement that Mayor Dahlman can secure in Omaha anything for the asking—all the good citizens may not be back of him but "the boys" are certainly with him all the time.

Among the attendants at the Episcopal convention this week was Rev. Dr. Shaw, rector of St. Peter's church in Chicago, a large and wealthy parish. In connection with his church he has a theatre in which home talent and picture shows are produced, a dancing hall, gymnasium, pool and card hall, library, natorium and other rooms of amusement. As a result of these amusement features the members of the church, both old and young, are provided with clean entertainment with pure environments and do not need seek questionable resorts.

William J. Bryan, who has been making a tour of Ohio opposing Harmon, made the statement that Harmon's friends tried to purchase the votes of delegates from Ohio to the national convention in Denver, in 1908, who had been instructed for the Nebraskaan. He said he had obtained a letter as evidence that Harmon was favored by Wall Street and that he had heard it stated as early as February in 1908 that Harmon hoped to be the Wall Street candidate for the presidency that year. He is prepared to state that as late as June in 1908 friends hoped to nominate Harmon in Denver, notwithstanding that two-thirds of the delegates were instructed for Bryan. "His friends tried to purchase delegates in Ohio who had been instructed for me," said Bryan.

Mothers Day Next Sunday. Next Sunday will be "Mothers' Day," and it will be observed throughout the country as such. Forty governors and hundreds of mayors have issued proclamations endorsing the observance of the day, and in thousands of churches "Mother" will be the theme of sermons. The flower of the day is the carnation—white for the mother dead, red for the mother living. It is a pretty sentiment for man's best friend.

The Union Pacific Right-of-Way. The lower house of congress on Monday passed the Norris bill validating the title of farmers to the disputed land along the Union Pacific. The bill gives the railroad company a right-of-way of 200 feet instead of 400 feet as claimed by the company. The bill has been introduced in the senate and it is believed that it will pass that body. With the passage of the bill hundreds of farmers and property owners in many towns will be made glad.

WHEN HER BACK ACHES. A Woman Finds All Her Energy and Ambition Slipping Away.

North Platte women know how the aches and pains that often come when the kidneys fail make life a burden. Backache, hip pains, headaches, dizzy spells, distressing urinary troubles, are frequent indications of weak kidneys and should be checked in time. Doan's Kidney Pills are for the kidneys only. They attack kidney diseases by striking at the cause. Here's proof of their merit in a North Platte woman's words: Mrs. Mary Hollenbeck, 520 E. 11th St., North Platte, Nebr., says: "In a statement endorsing Doan's Kidney Pills given in August, 1907, I told how several years previous, I had suffered from a severe ache in the small of my back. I arose in the morning feeling stiff and lame and it required a long time for me to straighten. The kidney secretions also annoyed me greatly. Doan's Kidney Pills, procured from McDonnell & Graves' Drug store (now Schiller & Co.'s drug store), proved beneficial and no other remedy I have ever taken has given me more relief. I do not know how I could ever get without Doan's Kidney Pills."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States. Remember the name—Doan's and take no other.
