Simms-Beeler.

One of the most delightful of home weddings occurred at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Beeler on Saturday morning at 9:30 when Fenna Caroline their second daughter was united in marriage to Mr. John Shaffer Simms, of Chicago, Ill.

The bride was dressed in white voile and full wedded veil. She carried a shower bouquet of lilies of the valley. Immediately preceding the march, Mrs. Earl Hamilton sang the solo "I Wait for Thee."

Miss Lucille Brown, of Kearney, Nebr., played Lohengren's wedding march. As the bride and groom descended the stairway they were met at the foot by Rev. W. S. Porter who preceded them to the altar marching between streamers of ribbon carried by Masters Beeler Scott and Bernard Temple.

The altar was beautifully arranged of growing pines and palms, forming a short avenue and gateway.

The ring ceremony was used and Rev. Porter pronounced them man and wife. After congratulations a delightful three course breakfast was served by Miss Elizabeth Hinman, Irma Huffman, Virginia Ballard and Fern Hamilton. The breakfast was served at small tables scattered in profusion throughout the rooms. The decorations on the bridal table were smilax and pink roses. The curtains were drawn and the lights on this together with the abundance of potted plants and cut flowers with the color scheme of pink and white, made a beautiful effect.

The presents were many and of cut glass, silver and checks. The out of town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Simms parents of groom from Hastings, Mr. Mr. and Mrs. David Simms, of Superior, Nebr., Misses Lucile Brown and Norma Chase of Kearney. In all about fifty guests were present.

Fenna is the second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Beeler. She is a graduate of the North Platte High School, Lincoln Business College and State University, and for the past year she has taught in the North Platte High School.

Mr. John Simms is a graduate of the State University and of Rush Medical College of Chicago. He now goes to a position in the Cook county hospital, in Chicago, Ill.

This young couple go with a high aspirations and splendid prospects. They have the best wishes of all who know them. Early Saturday morning at about 6:30 the High School Girls Glee Club under the leadership of Prof. Schutz went to the home and with a few choice selections rendered a splendid serenade.

Mr. and Mrs. Simms left for Chicago on No. 2, Saturday p. m. xx

Death of a Pioneer.

Dr. Fifield H. Longley, a pioneer resident and prominent physician and citizen of North Platte, died at his home on west Fifth street shortly after three o'clock Friday afternoon at the age of seventy nine years. Death was due to kidney disease with which he had been troubled for some time, and for several weeks had been confined to the house.

The funeral was held on the lawn of the residence at four o'clock Sunday afternoon, the services being conducted by the Masonic fraternity, of which the deceased had been a member for many years, and the address delivered by Rev. Chapman, chaplain of the lodge. The attendance of old friends and acquaintances was large, and the casket was banked with beautiful flowers.

The deceased was born at Solon, Me., May 7, 1833, and after graduating at Bowdoin college, came west in 1857, going to Pike's Peak and later on west to Yreka, Cal., where he remained for seven years, conducting a drug store and filling the position of revenue collector. He then went to New York City, making the trip by water, and was shipwrecked off the South Carolina shore. He managed to reach shore, and taking a train for the north, was injured in a wreck and taken to a hospital in Cincinnati. He took a course in medicine and upon graduating went to Kenosha, Wis., where he practiced his profession until 1867, when he came to Nebraska and shortly after located in North Platte where he had since made his home. In 1873 he was appointed receiver of the local United States land office, was for six years one of the regents of the state university, and for several terms held the position of county coroner. He was married in 1877 at Kenosha to Miss Anna Rhoades, and to this union one son was born, Dr. J. Rhoades Longley, now a practicing physician at Fou du Lac, Wis.

For forty-five years he was a Mason, and at the funeral the following tribute was paid him by F. E. Bullard: Brother Longley was a man of large mental attainments, of strong character, and in all his business relations, of unimpeachable integrity. As a physician he was a man of sound judgment, and up to the time when owing to the infirmities of years he was obliged to withdraw in a large degree from the profession, a skillful practitioner. As a public official he performed his duties promptly and impartially.

Only those of his brethren who had known him long, knew him well, for in his later years he made few acquaintances, and maintained none but the old time friendships.

A fire escape has been erected on the south side of the First National Bank building. Practically this escape is a mere matter of form, at least we hope so; and the good it may do is not likely to be commensurate with the disfiguration of the building.

Memorial Services.

Union memorial services were held at the Keith theatre Sunday evening, the G. A. R. and W. R. C. attending in a body, and sufficient number of others being present to fill the lower part of the house. Revs. Harman, Porter, Favoright and Chapman conducted the services, the latter delivering a strong sermon appropriate to the occasion. Music was furnished by the Episcopal choir.

Raleigh Warren returned Saturday from Stapleton where he visited last week.

Mrs. Joseph Weeks and daughter Pearl returned yesterday afternoon from a visit of several months with relatives in Evanston.
