They visited at Atlantic City and Washington, and while at the latter city were the guests of Alex Stewart, who royally entertained them.

Beef is Beef.

A bunch of twenty-five steers sold in the South Omaha market yesterday for $9.20 per 100 pounds. Is it any wonder that when you step into a meat market you almost feel that you exchange the weight of your silver dollar for the same weight of beef. This especially true when the North Platte dealers are shipping in the greater part of their beef from Omaha because they cannot secure fat cattle in this section.

Will Examine Fire Risks.

Sixteen members of the Nebraska Association for the Prevention of Fires will be in North Platte on Tuesday and Wednesday of next week and will make an inspection of all business buildings in the city. Following this inspection they will make a report to the Chamber of Commerce at a banquet to be given in their honor. This committee will be accompanied by the state insurance commissioner and probably a number of general insurance agents of the state.

Building Damaged by Fire.

The frame building on Dewey street south of the Keith theatre was badly damaged by fire at 9 o'clock this morning. The building was occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Narros and John Paulos, proprietors of the North Platte candy kitchen and part of same is used for storing supplies and manufacturing the candies. The fire had been smoldering in the attic before discovered and broke thru the roof and side walls before the alarm was sent in. The blaze was under control shortly after the arrival of the fire department. The furnishings of the house was not insured but the building which is the property of Arther McNamara carries insurance.

Violin Recital.

He has given many concerts in the leading cities of this country and at each he has won unlimited praise from critics.

Auction of Range Horses.

On Saturday, June 23, I will sell at the old stock yards in North Platte two cars of range horses. There are several broke and a number of halter broke horses in the bunch, also two gentle young ponies. If you need horses be sure to attend this sale. Sale begins at 2:00 p. m. sharp. C. A. MOORE.

Convention Opens at Noon.

The republican national convention at Chicago was announced to open at noon today, but whether the opposing forces, which have reached the fighting stage, permitted the convention to open and proceed with its business has not at this time been learned. Speaking yesterday for the Roosevelt forces, Governor Hadley, of Missouri, who was chosen floor leader for the Colonel, declared that no contested delegate seated by act of republican national committee should set in the convention. This attempted action will of course, precipitate a bitter fight.

We boom our business by giving our customers good stuff for their money.

Whenever you see people doing a thriving business you may know there is a good reason for it. You may be fooled when you try your good "on," but you can't be fooled long after you try them "out."

We are in business to stay in business. We would rather make a little profit and be sure of a big business, than to make a big profit and take chance of having to quit.

We give our customers good stuff for their money, but we don't "stuff" prices.
