AFTER SUPPER SALE

"Murder will out" so goes an old saying, and when we cut prices—kill profits and endure losses to promote a bustling, Saturday Night trade—the news of such proceeding were bound to spread.

Mrs. Jones tells Mr. Smith about the wonderful bargains she got last night at Wilcox's After Supper Sale—and advise Mrs. S to go next week—"Im going" she says "come along with me." Mrs. Smith goes—and is so delighted and surprised as was Mrs. Jones—she tells her friends about it—and so on and on the good news spread.

By the way, if you haven't met Mrs. J. or Mrs. S.,—take our advice and come to this sale, you won't be sorry, we promise you.

Wide tire wagon for sale. J. H. VAN CLEAVE.

If bicycle riders would all be decent in their actions no great objection would be made to riding on sidewalks, but they are not all decent. It isn't fair to have a rider come down the center of a sidewalk and force the pedestrian off the walk, to which treatment this writer has been subjected dozens of times, and many other citizens make the same complaint. All that is demanded of the bicyclist is that he recognize that other people have some rights.

The many friends of our genial county clerk Will Yost will be pleased to learn that his damage case against the Union Pacific railroad company, which has been in litigation for the past nine years has been settled by a decision by the supreme court of Missouri, affirming judgment. He is in receipt of the following telegram from his attorney, C. W. Yosti North Platte, Nebr. Supreme Court today affirmed your judgment, on condition that we within 10 days reduce the judgment to $15,000, we shall of course comply with this condition immediately. Would Stop Kissing.

The Milwaukee Physicians' association will prepare a bill for the next legislature intended to stop the practice of kissing and stamping the habit as a blot on civilization and a menace to health and decency. The action was decided on at a meeting at which a dozen or more papers were read on the subject. A substitute for the practice offered was that of rubbing noses or forehead, this being held more decent by the physician.

After having made an extended trip over the Nebraska lines and after having thoroughly investigated the reports of the agents, Charles J. Lane, general freight agent of the Union Pacific, believes that the Nebraska wheat crop will be fully up to the average of former years. He places the yield at 40,000,000 bushels and would not be surprised to see it reach 44,000,000.

Ideal Hair Brushes 65c STONE DRUG CO.

The interest on the part of those attending the meetings at the Gospel Tent, Cor. Locust and First, is increasing. The speaker last evening drew a vivid picture of the future eternal home of the saints. From the scriptures cited we learned that this home is to be located on the earth after the annihilation of sin; that the inhabitants will build their own homes and inhabit them, plant their own vineyards and eat the fruit of them, and that there will be no sickness, pain, sorrow or death. He also showed that the capitol city of the new earth will have streets of gold, and a wall of precious stones three hundred and seventy-five miles square enclosing an area of more than a hundred and forty thousand square miles. The subject as announced for tonight is "The Personal, Literal, Visible Coming of Christ." Everybody is cordially invited.

The Nevita Club met at the home of Mrs. Otta Wiel Wednesday where the members spent a very pleasant afternoon. The rooms were very prettily decorated in pink, white and green. The club colors and the same color scheme was carried out in the elaborate two course lunch served on small tables, each guest finding her place by the hand painted place cards tied with bows of pink and green ribbon. The favors were sprays of green tied with pink ribbon which the hostess brought from her recent trip from Colorado Springs, the green being gathered from near the grave of Helen Hunt Jackson. The prizes were pretty hand painted cups and saucers and were won by Mrs. Thos. Austin and Mrs. Andrew Yost. After six o'clock the guests departed for their homes, each voting Mrs. Wiel a capital hostess.

Pays Last County Bond.

County Treasurer Durbin last Wednesday paid bond No. 13 of the North Platte bridge issue. This was the final bond of that issue and was also the last bond outstanding against Lincoln county. In other words the county has now no outstanding indebtedness. There are precinct bonds, but no county bonds. This is certainly an excellent showing for the county, and one in which we have reason to congratulate ourselves.

Plenty Water Promised.

In a letter to Water Commissioner Palmer, of Hershey, Supt. Willis, of Mitchell, says:

The Pathfinder reservoir is about full and the inflow is now about 14,000 to 16,000 second feet and likely to continue until the 25th at least.

Just received a report from a Government Forest Range located at Walden, Colo., stating there is considerable snow in the mountains and with warmer weather there will be lots of water flowing down the North Platte river. Singing the Pathfinder will be full in about seven days (by the 20th) the discharge over the Pathfinder may reach 8,000 to 12,000 second feet before the first of July.

Clash at Chicago.

The republican national convention opened in Chicago Tuesday at noon, and from the opening hour up to the latest bulletin there has been a continual clash between the Taft and Roosevelt forces. The Taft is frequently passed, threats of bolting have been made, and part of the time the confusion has been beyond the control of the chairman. Wednesday Roosevelt openly recommended a bolt of his followers, but his managers, or least some of his most prominent followers, declined to participate in such action.

So far the Taft followers have triumphed, but only after the most exciting fighting. Senator Root, the Taft candidate for temporary chairman was elected over McGovern, of Wis., who supported by both the Roosevelt and LaFollette followers. The second test of the Taft strength came Wednesday when the convention by a vote of 563 to 510 retained the ninety-two Taft contested delegates and to transfer the fight to the credential committee. This committee went into session yesterday afternoon, and will probably report this forenoon. The adoption or rejection of this report will renew the struggle, and the most bitter fight of the convention may be expected today. Undoubtedly the majority of the republicans throughout the country would prefer to have both Taft and Roosevelt dropped and have a dark horse taken up, and such may yet be the result.
