Quit 'get-rich-quick' Speculation

How many times have you said, or your friends said: "I cannot because I HAVE NOT GOT THE MONEY?" How many good business chances have had to be passed up because you did not have the money? "Get-Rich-Quick" speculation is the worst thing a man can do with his money. If the enterprise into which some smooth stranger asks you to put your money were such a good one he would keep it—not sell it to you.

Newspaper Announcement.
There never was such a time in the history of this country for newspaper reading, and it is important to read a paper of impartial views—one that is free from any office-seeking or office-holding influences. The important thing to a great newspaper like The Lincoln State Journal is to get trial readers, as it has no trouble holding them by its quality. The cheapest way to get new readers is to make a special price, which we now do—only $2 for the daily and Sunday paper until January 1, 1913—much less than the regular price. At that time the paper will stop coming unless you order it continued and pay in advance for it. You really cannot afford to be without this capital city paper when you can secure it at such a price. Send $2 to the Lincoln State Journal today and the paper will come to you regularly the remainder of this year. It will be a lively year, too.

The committee will appreciate the hearty support of the citizens generally in aiding Mr. Carpenter in his work.

FOURTH OF JULY COM.
A barn valued at $300 on south Vine street, which belonged to Willis Hansen, was destroyed by fire at midnight Friday evening. Hugh Bird had $100 worth of carpenter tools stored there which were completely destroyed. So great a headway had the flames gained before discovered, that they spread to the Derryberry barn across the alley and threatened to destroy it. The cause of the fire is unknown as it was kept locked and no one had entered for some time.

A man about thirty five years of age was killed at Gannett Friday afternoon by the engine on train No. 8. His body was brought to the Maloney's undertaking rooms where it was kept until yesterday waiting to be identified. The man was walking near the track and just as the train approached attempted to cross the track. He was struck on the head and instantly killed. His clothes contained no letters or cards by which he could be known or relatives notified.

Ten years of Advancement of the Union Pacific Railroad

Ten Years Ago This Month

As clipped from the newspapers of that date
Announcement was made at the Union Pacific headquarters that the double tracking of the line from Omaha to Valley was to be completed in the near future.

A comparison of double tracking figures between the year 1902 and 1912 shows a vast and interesting growth. Prior to 1902 the Union Pacific had a total of only 74.41 miles of double track. Today there is an unbroken stretch of double track of 364 miles from Omaha to Julesburg, Colo.; while there is a total of 694 miles of double track on the main line and branches—not including 130 miles now being laid.

While reviewing the above figures, note a few of the improvements and extensions other than double-tracking that have been brought about during the last decade:

The equipment of the entire line with a automatic electric block safety signals affording protection to patrons and employes.

The ballasting of its roadbed with Sherman gravel disintegrated granite insuring the traveler freedom from all road dust.

The straightening of sharp curves, the elimination of steep grades, the shortening of distance by cut-offs, the tunneling of solid granite mountains, the filling in of deep valleys, the bridging of wide expanses of water and the making of various other improvements that contribute to the comfort and safety of its patrons.

Mr. and Mrs. George Donehower went to Sutherland today to visit their daughter.

Miss Helen Koontz returned last evening from Maxwell after visiting friends for a week.

A Nebraska who has returned from the Chicago convention says that the nomination of President Taft was almost a foregone conclusion after the first skirmish which resulted in the election of Mr. Root. He did not form a very favorable opinion of the Roosevelt leaders as a general rule. They were a little too much along the line of a rule or ruin policy and did not appear to be near as gentlemanly in their conduct as did those who were lined up for the other candidates, and in their talks rather turned sober thinking men against them. They were especially insulting when Taft men were speaking, while on the other hand as a general thing the Roosevelt speakers were not interrupted in any great degree. It was the general opinion that a great deal of the sentiment against Mr. Taft would subside after people had had time to think the matter over.

E. D. Hamilton, a Julesburg banker, a member of the Knights Templar of this city, and well known to many of our people, died at his home at Julesburg Sunday. Death followed an operation for acute appendicitis.

Indigestion

causes heartburn, sour stomach, nervousness, nausea, impure blood, and more trouble than many different kinds of diseases. The food you eat ferments in your stomach, and the poisons it forms are absorbed into your whole system, causing many distressing symptoms. At the first sign of indigestion, try the old, reliable, vegetable liver powder, to quickly cleanse your system from these undesirable poisons.

Mrs. Riley Laramore, of Goodwater, Mo., says: "I suffered for years from dyspepsia and heartburn. Theford's Black-Draught, in small doses, cured my heartburn in a few days, and now I can eat without distress." Try it.
