Taft Wins.

Saturday night the republican national convention at Chicago, after a long and tumultuous session, renominated Wm. H. Taft for president and James S. Sherman for vice-president. Taft received 561 of the 1,078 votes in the convention, or twenty-one more than a majority. For twenty-four hours before the vote was taken, the Taft leaders were confident of victory, in fact after the first day's session it was evident that Roosevelt was in the minority and that the Taft leaders, confident of ultimate success, conducted the fight with a view of creating as little friction as possible, but at times, owing to the "rule" or "rule" policy of the Roosevelt followers, found it necessary to "tighten the screws." Yet at no time were the Roosevelt men shut off from a fair and full hearing; in fact in all the contests they were given more time than is usually allowed.

Three hundred and fifty Roosevelt delegates declined to vote when the nominations were made, and following the convention met at a different hall and pledged their support to Roosevelt on an independent ticket—in other words they formed a new party, whose cardinal principle Roosevelt said, was to be, "Thou shalt not steal."

It is proposed to organize this third party at once by calling conventions in each of the states the latter part of July or the early part of August.

There is a variance of opinion as to what this third party will amount to, the preponderance of views being that it will not cut much figure. Should it assume much strength it is certain to result in a victory for the democrats, for while the purpose of the new organization is to draw both republicans and democrats it is certain that few democrats will be attracted.

This proposed new party is not based on principles; its existence will be due to the bitterness coming through the defeat of Roosevelt, whose followers as well as himself are willing to see the republican party wrecked rather than have Taft triumph.

Governor Will Say Nothing.

When told yesterday afternoon that he had been selected to represent Nebraska by the Roosevelt bolters Governor Aldrich refused to talk.

"I don't know anything about it, and I won't talk about it," said the governor. "When I have been notified that I have been selected then I may have something, but now there is nothing doing in the political business."

Samuel Gompers, Frank Morrison and John Mitchell, the labor leaders, were yesterday held guilty of contempt of court by the supreme court of the District of Columbia, in connection with a court's injunction in the Buck's Stove and Range boycott case. They will attempt to appeal again to the supreme court of the United States, which reversed their former conviction. Justice Wright sentenced Gompers to one year, the same as upon his previous conviction, and sentenced Morrison to six months. John Mitchell was not present and sentence upon him was deferred. His first sentence was six months.

The sessions of the democratic national convention began at Baltimore today. At a meeting of the national committee Judge Parker was chosen as the candidate for temporary chairman of the convention, receiving thirty-one of the fifty-three votes. His selection was over the protest of W. J. Bryan, and the first fight of the convention will be over the election of Judge Parker.

Walter L. Houser campaign manager for Senator LaFollette, says: "Senator LaFollette expects to continue active work in the ranks of the republican party. He believes that through this party will be carried out the progressive idea."

Some North Platte People Have Learned that Neglect is Dangerous.

The slightest symptom of kidney trouble is far too serious to be overlooked. It's the small, neglected troubles that so often lead to serious kidney ailments. That pain in the small of the back; those headaches and dizzy spells; that weak, weary, worn-out feeling, may be nature's warning of kidney weakness. Why risk your life by neglecting these symptoms? Reach the cause of the trouble while there is yet time—begin treating your kidneys at once with a tried and proven kidney remedy.

Doan's Kidney Pills have been successfully used in thousands of cases of kidney trouble for over 50 years. Doan's Kidney pills are used and recommended throughout the civilized world. Endorsed at home. Read North Platte testimony.

Hans Johnson, 815 Walnut St., North Platte, Neb., says: "For a number of years I was troubled by kidney complaint due to heavy work in the blacksmith shop. I have frequently taken Doan's Kidney Pills, procured from McDonell & Graves' Drug store (now Sells & Co's) and their use is all that is necessary to rid me of backache, amenorrhea and other disorders arising from my kidneys. I recommend Doan's Kidney Pills as a remedy of merit."
