Newspaper Announcement.

There never was such a time in the history of this country for newspaper reading, and it is important to read a paper of impartial views—one that is free from any office-seeking or office-holding influences. The important thing to a great newspaper like The Lincoln State Journal is to get trial readers, as it has no trouble holding them by its quality. The cheapest way to get new readers is to make a special price, which we now do—only $2 for the daily and Sunday paper until January 1, 1913—much less than the regular price. At that time the paper will stop coming unless you order it continued and pay in advance for it. You really cannot afford to be without this capital city paper when you can secure it at such a price. Send $2 to the Lincoln State Journal today and the paper will come to you regularly the remainder of this year. It will be a lively year, too.

Maloney-Horrigan.

A beautiful morning wedding occurred at St. Patrick's church Wednesday morning at nine o'clock when Miss Genia Margaret Maloney was married to John J. Horrigan, of Boone, Ia., at nuptial high mass, Rev. McDaid officiating as clergyman. The altars of the church were banked with clusters of white carnations and potted ferns and in the chancel stood tall araucarias, palms and pink oleanders. One hundred invited guests witnessed the impressive ceremony.

Just before the bridal party entered the church Miss Sadie Trovillo sang "I'll Wait for Thee" after which Miss Josephine O'Hare played Mendleson's wedding march and the flower girls, Misses Francis and Florence Loudon, gowned in white embroidery, strewed the aisle with rose petals from pretty baskets. Miss Nell Dye, who acted as bridesmaid, was the first to enter. The bride on the arm of her father William Maloney, Sr., was met at the altar by the groom and his brother Dennis Horrigan. During the mass solos were taken by Charles J. Pass, Misses Sadie Trovillo and Loretta Murphy. The ushers were Louis Tobin and George Ell. All the gentlemen wore conventional black and buttonhole bouquets of lilies-of-the-valley.

The bride wore an elegant gown of white satin, with long court train, under an over drapery of silk flowered shepard net caught up with silk flowers. The bodice was trimmed with rich lace and white silk applique. Her veil was held in place with lilies-of-the-valley and she carried a rainbow bouquet of the same flower and a white prayer book. Her maid wore pink crepe metouer over pink messaline with trimmings of shadow lace and pink for-get-me-nots. Her bouquet was pink My Maryland roses and ferns. She wore a large white hat trimmed with pink roses.

The reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, where congratulations were extended and the costly gifts displayed after which the guests were taken by auto to the home of the bride's brother William Maloney, Jr., where the breakfast was served in four courses in pink and white. The bridal table and smaller tables were beautifully decorated, as was the house, in asparagus plumosa, adaintum fern and La France roses. Assisting in serving were Misses Alice Sullivan, Lucy Dunn, Orra Hall, Marie Stack, Mary Tighe, Evelyn Daly, Elizabeth Weinberger and Ethel McWilliams.

Mr. and Mrs. Horrigan left on the afternoon train for a two months' visit in New York and Pennsylvania after which they will be at home at 1611 5th St., Boone, Ia. The bride is not one of North Platte's daughters but having resided here the greater part of her life this city claims her. She holds the friendship of all who know her by her sincerity and unaffected manner and was very popular in social circles.

The groom is employed as machinist in Boone to which place he went last fall after residing here for two years. He is known as an exemplary young man, valuable employe and a staunch member of the Catholic faith and is a general favorite with all whom he associates in his work and daily life. Out of town guests were Dennis and Frank Horrigan, of Susquanna, Pa., Mrs. Dye and Miss Nell Dye, of Saline, Kans., Miss Vivian Foley, of Boone, Ia., Vincent Mallin, of St. Joe and Elizabeth Barry, of Omaha.

Huntington-Gideon Wedding.

Miss Hazel Huntington and Mr. Clyde Gideon were united in marriage Wednesday evening at the home of the bride's sister Mrs. Jackson on South Dewey. The ceremony was performed at eight o'clock, in the presence of thirty invited guests, by Rev. Charles Harman. Miss Pearl Weeks played the wedding march.

Pink and white cut flowers, ferns and white bells were used in the decorations and the marriage service was read in a bower of ferns and palms in a corner of the parlor.

The bride was attired in tan imported messaline under a lace dress with trimmings of ecru lace and net. She was unattended. The wedding supper was served on flower decked tables by several young lady friends of the bride. Mr. and Mrs. Gideon were the recipients of a beautiful collection of wedding gifts. They left at midnight for Doniphan to spend their honeymoon after which they will be at home at 303 E. D street. The bride is the second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Huntington, a very amiable and domestic young lady who has a large circle of friends.

Mr. Gideon is employed as locomotive fireman, has resided here for a couple of years during which time he has made many friends.

FLANDERS 20 Automobiles E-M-F Two Models

If You Were an Expert, What Car Would You Buy?

The time has passed when automobiles can be sold to you on their appearances or claims. This is a day when you and every purchaser must be shown what the car for which you pay your money will actually perform; what it will do. Beware of an automobile salesman who attempts to beguile you with a pleasing story. Tell him to show the goods and prove to you that his cars are worth the money. Find out whether his car is a real car or only an assembled automobile built to sell.

You have a right to your money's worth, but it is up to you to see that you get it. Deeper than all appearances, there are a few expert tests which ought to be applied to every car.

Who makes the car? Is it an assembled car or made from top to bottom by one manufacturer? What kind of a guarantee is on it? Does the manufacturer respect his own product with a real guarantee, or does he want you to take the chance? What do parts cost you and how conveniently can you get them? How many cars of this make are in service and how many are giving satisfaction? Questions like these go deep into the heart of the case, and if you put them rigorously upon any car you will find out with a certainty whether or not that car is worth its price.

We are selling Studebaker E-M-F "30" and Flanders "20" cars because we know that, dollar for dollar, their equal is not sold in the market today. The records of many thousands of cars in all kinds of service have convinced us absolutely. Studebaker E-M-F "30" and Flanders "20" cars are built to run, and because they run they sell. If we cannot prove to you under the most searching test that Studebaker cars are absolutely the best automobile values in the market, we do not want your business; but we can prove it, and your neighbors who drive these cars will tell you the same thing.

Be an expert when it comes to buying a car. You can, by getting from us some further ideas on real tests of an automobile. Clip the attached coupon and send it to us now because we have something new to tell you which you ought to know, whatever car you have in mind.
