Local and Personal.

Mrs. Thos. Doolittle returned Wednesday night from her visit in Minneapolis.

Miss Marjory Den returned the first of the week from Arapahoe where she visited relatives last week.

Wm. Powell left Wednesday evening for Denver to spend two weeks or longer enjoying the sights.

Don Clabaugh returned Wednesday from a month's visit in Seattle, Portland and other western cities.

The Lord's supper will be celebrated next Sunday at the Lutheran church, both morning and evening. At the evening service several new members expect to unite with the church.

Mrs. F. G. Hoxie, of Ogallala, has been in town for a couple of days, completing arrangements for the erection of a five or six thousand dollar residence on a lot on the block west of the Dr. McCabe residence on west Fourth St.

Arthur Boyle who recently came here from Denver to accept a position in the Leader Shoe department left last evening for Denver to purchase machinery for the new dry cleaning and pressing rooms which he will open shortly in the Cunningham building on East 4th St.

Miss Anna O'Hare closed her dancing school on Tuesday evening by giving a social dance to her forty pupils and their friends in the Masonic hall. Stamp's orchestra furnished a program of popular dances and the young folks spent the hours very enjoyably. Punch was served during the evening.

In referring to the promotion of P. J. Norton at Denver, we stated that he had been employed as machinist, when it should have read round house foreman. This correction is due for the reason that if he had been employed as a machinist it would be as a non-union man or strike-breaker, which of course P. J. is not.

Thos. Fugh, a local railroad fireman, and Miss Martha Lunkwitz who has made North Platte her home for some time, were married Sunday at the home of the bride's parents in Birdwood precinct. They have been "honeymooning" in Colorado and upon their return will make North Platte their home.

The James Babbitt barn on west 6th street was damaged by fire Wednesday afternoon and several smaller adjoining sheds burned. The fire was caused by the explosion of an incubator lamp and the blaze had reached the walls and roof before discovered. A large number of small chickens were burned and a chest of tools destroyed. The barn carries insurance. By the promptness of the hose companies the fire was prevented from reaching the house, several windows of which were cracked by the heat.

The Platte Valley Cattle Co. purchased a half section of land on the island southwest of Maxwell last year and broke out 180 acres of it. Last fall they put it into wheat and this field is certainly one of the best of its size in this end of the state. Manager W. P. Byron, C. O. Soules, A. G. Wambach and J. C. Holmes made a trip by auto Monday to see this wheat. It will be ready to cut next week and threshers will tell the story, but it is expected that this field will average 25 bushels per acre. Several sections of hay land adjoining is leased by the company, their interests being looked after by A. C. Combs. He resides on the land and is raising a fine bunch of pigs. The company's range land lies several miles north of this, where they own about eighty sections and lease some. Their total holdings in Lincoln county are about 55,000 acres and they own the most extensive ranch outfit in the state.—Gothenburg Times.

Clark-Tucker Wedding.

The home of Mrs. Mary Elder on west 7th street was the scene of a pretty wedding Tuesday evening when her youngest daughter Ina Marcelina Clark was united in marriage to John Wilson Tucker.

Sixty relatives and friends witnessed the ceremony which was performed by Rev. Charles B. Harman who used the full Lutheran ring service.

Nicholas Klein the bride's grandfather played Mendelssohn's wedding march while the bridal party entered and during the ceremony played Rink's Prelude.

The hall and stairway was decorated with potted plants in white stands and masses of asparagus fern tied with bows of yellow satin and white chiffon. In the parlor the color scheme of yellow and white was beautifully carried out the immense bouquets of cut flowers, electric bulbs and on chiffon streamers from each corner of the room to the chandeliers where hung showers of yellow knotted ribbon and under an arch of ferns the young people took their vows.

The bride wore an elaborate gown of white satin under a drapery of white embroidered voile trimmed with imported lace and fine net. She carried an arm bouquet of lilies of the valley and ferns with a shower of white ribbon bows and wore sprays of lilies of the valley in her hair. Her going away gown was of brown silk serge. Miss Jessie Baker a cousin of the bride was maid of honor and wore a gown of blue embroidered chiffon over blue messaline with trimming of silk cord and white net. She carried a beautiful basket of yellow daisies, white snap dragon and ferns tied with large yellow chiffon bows.

The groom was attended by George Weinburg.

After the congratulations an enjoyable lunch was served on the lawn where the tables, refreshments and strings of electric lights revealed the yellow and white color scheme. Six young lady friends of the bride assisted in serving.

Among the beautiful wedding gifts were cut glass, silver, furniture, linen and currency. Mr. and Mrs. Tucker left on the midnight train for a honeymoon trip to eastern cities and later will be at home at 911 East 5th where a cozy home awaits them.

Both young people are well known in this city and count their friends in large numbers. The groom is one of the trusted employes of the local post office and has faithfully performed his duties there for the past three years. The bride is an amiable, domestic young lady who will make a happy home for the man of her choice.

City Council Meeting.

Library Building, Lecture Room, July 2nd, 1912. City council met in regular session with the following members present, Mayor Patterson, Councilmen Brock, Crosby, Frazier, Hoagland, Herminghausen, Owens and Sullivan. Also Clerk Temple, Acting Attorney Mothershead, Engineer Meyers and Water Commissioner Welch.

A communication from J. H. Fonda asking permission to set his curbing on a line with the C. F. Iddings curbing, being the only other curbing on that side of the street and which curbing is a little further out than the curb line, was read. After careful consideration, the council decided it would be better to have them on line, and set the curb line on east side of Maple street in line with the Iddings curb.

The usual monthly reports of the Clerk, Treasurer, Police Judge and Water Commissioner were presented and received.

The treasurer's report showed the funds in good condition for this time of the year, and the police judge report was accompanied by check in the sum of $93.36 being fines and fees collected in his office. This shows that the bicycle riders are contributing to the support of the city.

The estimate of the expenses for the city for the coming year, was presented by the finance committee. The estimate is some $5,000.00 less than it was last year, which looks promising for lower taxes next year. For full copy of this estimate, see published copy in this paper.

Edward Walker, John E. Pile, Ashley Peters and A. G. Hultman were granted licenses to lay sidewalks, curbing and cross walks.

The ordinance brought up under the initiative petition, for the repeal of the telephone franchise, was read the first time.

An ordinance regulating the riding of bicycles on the sidewalks was read the first time. (The present ordinance forbidding riding on any of the sidewalks has not yet been repealed and is still in force.)

All bills on file, including bills on water fund, were allowed.

The street committee and street commissioner were instructed to get prices and investigate the buying of a street trimming machine or light grader, with power to act.

There being no further business before the council, they adjourned.

Ora Heiser, of Ogallala, was among the visitors here on July 4th.

Ralph Linville, of Summer, is visiting the Hemphill family this week.

Mrs. Harry Moore entertained a number of friends at dinner on July 4th.

HOLD BIG SUNDAY SCHOOL CONVENTION

Two Hundred and Twenty-five Present at the Gathering at Jack Morrow Flats Sunday, June 30th.

The day was ideal and people present had come as far as fifteen miles in almost every direction. When the roll of the Sunday schools present was made, it developed that delegations from seven schools were present and were glad to make reports as to what is being done in their schools. The program was carried out by all who had been assigned subjects, except one or two, with that degree of interest and earnestness that convinced all that were present that they were wholly absorbed with the work which they are engaged in. The program provided that the exercises should start at 10:00 a. m. and those in control were there on time and the day's work commenced. The large choir of young men and women who so heartily rendered the music are to be complimented, likewise Robt. G. Pattison, who is leader in the music and also superintendent of the Fair View Sunday school.

The announcement of the dinner at the noon hour brought the people together with lunch baskets, boxes and wash tubs filled with every conceivable good thing to eat. Two large tables, something like 35 feet each, under a bowery providing shade was then spread and visitors and neighbors sat down to as sumptuous a spread as can be found or furnished anywhere. To say these people were all acquainted before the day was spent would be stating the facts.

The afternoon session was called at 1:30 p. m. and after music and prayer service, which was indeed inspiring, the convention got down to the discussion of the many live questions on the program, which was indulged in by a large list of Sunday school workers whose names did not appear on the program and made of it a very interesting afternoon.

The list of names of those present and taking part in the discussions not being residents of that locality were O. O. Woods, representative of the American Sunday school Union, Fred Warren, Mrs. Garrison, E. W. Crane, Dundy Kerr, Sec. of the Y. M. C. A., J. D. W. Lincoln and J. H. Edmisten all of North Platte.

Adjournment was taken at 4:30 until 7:30 when the evening session took place. There remained at the school house over forty people to be sure they would be on hand in time to get a seat when the last session was called. They however, had enough of the dinner left over to provide the second feast, which all enjoyed.

The evening session was certainly full of spirit, which had been in evidence during all of the services of the day.

The two subjects then discussed was that of the "Adults in the Sunday School" and "The Winning of the Scholar for Christ," which was led by Fred Warren with much earnestness, and at the conclusion of his address an invitation was extended to any wishing to come forward, when two young ladies from the choir presented themselves.

This closed the day exercises and it was pronounced by all to be one of the greatest conventions ever held in Lincoln county by Sunday school people. PRESS REPORTER.
