Chautauqua Notes.

Lawrence Carpenter has been secured for grounds superintendent and will have headquarters at the Chautauqua grounds beginning this week. Orders for tents for camping may be given to him or to the secretary.

Ed Dickey took his new laundry delivery wagon and filled it with Chautauqua advertising and made the trip to Hershey and Sutherland one day last week. He pasted fence strips all along the way and made it known that North Platte is to have a Chautauqua.

Complete program for the Chautauqua will be in the second number of the Chautauqua Herald. Detailed program will be in the third number. If you do not get a Chautauqua Herald send word to the secretary by mail or phone and he will see that you get the copies as they are out.

The administration tent on the grounds will be headquarters for three officials, the secretary, treasurer and grounds superintendent. Not all of these officials will be there all of the time but usually they can be located by inquiring there.

Camping during the week is a pleasure and surely does away with the burden of going back and forth when the distance is great. A number of our best families are planning to spend the week on the grounds.

Associations, lodges and societies are invited to hold picnics on the grounds at any time. The same offer is made to all societies that was made last year. Serve supper on the grounds without cost. See the secretary.
