The Situation in Nebraska.

Nebraska republicans may as well face the situation that confronts them. With Woodrow Wilson as the demccratic standard bearer, and William Jennings Bryan professing complete without serious division. For the republicans of Nebraska to divide while the democrats are united (and we may be certain that the democrats will omit nothing to foment discord within the republican fold), would be invita. tion to defeat and loss, not only of the electoral vote, but of all the offices on the ticket down the line. If the republicans of Nebraska are not ready to go out of business, and turn control over to the democrats for an indefinite period, cool and far-seeing heads will have to devise ways and means to adjust difference-hold the forces together and solidfy the ranks for a fight against the ancient enemy.-Omaha Bee.
