Library Notes.

In addition to the magazines on file in the reading room at the Public Library the following daily papers are always on file: The Omaha Bee-World-Herald, Chicago Record Herald and the State Journal. The Tribune is also always on file.

"The Street Called Straight", one of the late novels which has attracted considerable attention while running as a serial in Harper's magazine, is on the library shelves.

Just at present when the marvelous changes being wrought in the fabric of the Chinese government are attracting every one's attention the library is pleased to offer its patrons an unusually strong, well written book on the Chinese affairs: "Changing Chinese" by Prof. E. A. Koss. Critics who are very familiar with Oriental nations and affairs have pronounced this book one of the very best books on the Chinese nation that has ever been published.

The biography of Alice Freeman Palmer written by her husband, Prof. G. Palmer, is one of the most attractive biographies that has ever been written. Mrs. Palmer was one of the pioneers in the cause of higher education of women and her husband's story of her life and its aims is a very beautiful tribute to the life and work of a remarkable woman. This biography is on the library shelves.

American citizens, when they stop to think of the matter at all, are a little apt to be worried about our power to properly assimilate the swarms of foreigners who come to our shores each year. In "The Promised Land" by Mary Antin we have the story of what this country has come to mean to one of these foreigners, a Russian Jew, and it is a wonderfully fascinating tale. This book is also in the library.

Studebaker Cars Nickeled Plated.

Hereafter all cars manufactured by the Studebaker Corporation will have the lamps, wind shield and all parts, which were formerly finished in brass, nickeled plated. The painting of the Studebaker (Flanders) 20 has also been changed and this car is now painted entirely blue-black with gray wheels. The nickeled plated trimming require far less care and attention than the brass. Prices of the two cars remain as heretofore, no extra charge being made for the nickeled plating. Studebaker (Flanders) 20. $950; Studebaker (E. M. F.) 30, $1265. Both fully equipped and F. O. B. North Platte. JOHN L. BURKE, Dealer.

James Hartman is expected home today from an extended visit in Ohio.

While coming in from Gandy Sunday evening Mail Carrier Carter, Joe Mahaffy and Simon brothers were thrown from the car by an accident to the wheels, caused by striking a big mud hole in the road. A couple of the wheels were badly broken and the car was brought in by a relief car from Stapleton.

Up to yesterday Chief of Police Otten had disposed of twenty-eight unlicensed dogs. He says many dog owners who have not paid the license are keeping the animals tied up, with the expectation that after a time Otten will cease his warfare. In this they harbor a wrong impression, for the chief will continue his hunt daily until time to buy Christmas presents, and even after that time. Dog owners might as well look pleasant and pay the license—that is if they expect to save their dogs, as Chief Otten plays no favorites.
