The Printzess Garments!

Distinction in Dress.

Half the satisfaction of owning a Printzess Coat, is knowing it is the best style. The Printzess garment is not necessarily costly, while you may rest assured of style and workmanship.

Yet, despite the high quality of materials, the care and fineness of finish, you may obtain the Printzess garments at very moderate prices. For as little as or even less you can buy a Printzess Coat that is equal to unknown garments at $25.00 and $30.00.

$18.50

It is the efficiency of production which gives you the advantage when you buy a Printzess garment.

Try on a Printzess Coat. Let the mirror tell its own story of how you look in the new fall fashions. Now on display.

E. T. Tramp & Son.

A North Platte lady who returned from Kansas City, Mo., the latter part of last week says "The Rose of Panama" Co., which plays at the Keith next Friday evening, was playing at the Shubert theatre there and regardless of the fact that it is a very large theatre, the entire seating capacity was sold out for the whole week, and people scrambling on the streets for a chance to get tickets for the attraction. It made the greatest hit there of any production in a long time. Manager Stamp considers himself very lucky to be able to give the patrons of The Keith such a treat as the foregoing would indicate, especially when the only places played since leaving New York were St. Louis, Kansas City, Omaha and Sioux City before coming here. If the Keith seating capacity is not taxed next Friday night we miss our guess.

A Natural Query.
The late General F. D. Grant, when discussing military neatness, used of ten to tell a story about his father.

"My father was talking to General Sherman in his tent one day," he would begin, "when a third general entered, a brigadier notorious for his slovenliness. After the brigadier left my father blew forth a cloud of smoke and said:

"Sherman, I wonder whom that man gets to wear his shirts the first week?"

Naming a Book.
It is not generally known how Kipling chose the title "The Light That Failed" for the book that helped to make him famous. He had almost decided to call the novel "The Failure," although he was somewhat dissatisfied with this rather prosaic title. One evening as he was sitting in his study reading by lamplight the light went down suddenly, when Kipling exclaimed:

"By Jove, I've got it! 'The Light That Failed!'"

Cure For Hypochondria.
A young lady of Cardiff who fancied she was allag went to the surgery of the local doctor and commenced the feverish with, "Doctor I'm dying."

"Oh, indeed! I can recommend a very respectable undertaker," blandly responded the doctor. She felt quite well after that.—Cardiff Mail.
