Westervelt Says Two Years. 14 Elsewhere the Burlington railroad, hough its agent O. E. Elder, offers for sale fifteen houses on its right-of-way between First and Second streets. This might indicate that the Burlington desired to use the land in this city for a railroad track, round house and other terminal facilities in the near future, but Mr. Westervelt, the right-of-way man, who was here the early part of the week, assured one of our citizens atives. She was accompanied by her that he didn't see how the Burlington would get into North Platte within two years. "Before the Platte valley line can be built," said Mr. Westervelt, there is work to be done in Wyoming. "For instance there is a big hill near Guernsey that stands in our way. We can't go over it nor around it; hence it must be tunneled, and this work will one of Cohan & Harris' success. it is a cost a million and require more than a year's time. We are anxious to get into North Platte; its a good town and I by the sight of a five hundred dollar notice, since my last visit here, that it bill, to part with his uniform for a brief has grown rapidly. The Burlington is period, thereby starting a series of the Burlington wants to annex North Platte to its list of stations at the earliest possible time. DICKEY'S SANITARY LAUNDRY. "Your Bosom Friend."

"Officer 666" is a fascinating farce. It is a play that radiates all the mystery of "Sherlock Holmes" and the fun of "Charley's Aunt," yet which may be enjoyed without creating that uncomfortable feeling of obsession that compels an apologetic glance at one's seat mate. On the contrary, "Officer 666" of 4 rooms, pantry and closet. Nice is redolent with the atmosphere of clean poarch. Built only two years ago thoughts woven through a highly in-House completely furnished, including teresting plot, the tense moments of which excite the imagination, at the same time compelling laughter that is all the more honest because called forth without the slightest suggestion of coarseness or ambiguity.
