

"I Have Been Advised to Buy My Diamonds at DIXONS."

This was the statement of a gentleman who purchased a hundred and twenty-five dollar diamond on Thursday of last week. He came to us because he said he knew nothing about a diamond himself but did know of our reliability. It took less than twenty minutes to make the sale and our new customer went away not only delighted but perfectly secure that he had gotten the fullest value possible.

As a matter of fact it was not only the protection against poor value the customer received here, but we doubt if he could have purchased the same diamond elsewhere for anywhere near the same price. We buy our diamonds direct from the cutters thus getting the very lowest prices obtainable. We want every sale to make new friends and new confidence for us. Under no circumstances will any one purchase a diamond without knowing absolutely the truth about it. Whether it is a $10 diamond or a $500 one you can depend on our diamond stock and our reliability to give you perfect satisfaction. We invite you to inspect our superb stock of loose and mounted diamonds. Remembering we do our own diamond mounting in our own shop.

Prenuptial Shower.

An elaborate social function was held at the Masonic hall last evening when Misses Edna Sullivan, Anna and Josephine O'Hare entertained the members of the Catholic girls' club and a number of other friends at a prenuptial miscellaneous shower for Miss Mary McGovern, a September bride.

The sixty guests were received at the head of the stairs by Miss Anna O'Hare and conducted to the dressing room by Mesdames Joseph Roddy and Harry Murrin after which they were received in the main hall by Misses Josephine O'Hare and Edna Sullivan. Miss Alice Sullivan presided over the fortune bowl and gave each lady a heart containing the date of her wedding.

The hall and reception room was decorated with cut flowers, Japanese parasols, bells, paper hearts, streamers and candies in colors of red and white and the same colors predominated in the refreshments, favors and umbrella tally cards. Progressive high five was played until 10:30, the winners of each game being presented with white motto hearts, an amusing man hunt following the card games. The beautiful collection of shower gifts were displayed on decorated tables in the reception hall. Dancing was indulged in until midnight when lunch was served on a large decorated table which extended the length of the hall. The affair closed with a toast and shower of rice on the guest of honor.

The tables were arranged in the order of a romance and light was furnished during lunch from red shaded candles.
