Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Fikes, of St. Louis, arrived in town yesterday afternoon and will visit friends for a few days. It is needless to say that the friends of these former North Platte people are mighty glad to meet them again, for while residents of this city they were extremely popular. Mr. Fikes is engaged in business in the Missouri metropolis and is doing well. It is a source of regret to their friends that their visit here will be for so short period.

C. F. Temple will sign Your Bond for the Maryland Casualty Company, of Baltimore, Mr.

C. J. Pass Wins Tournament.

For the past two weeks the athletic members of the Knights of Columbus, have been engaged in a tennis tournament. The first, second and third rounds were well contested and the following players qualified for the semi-final:

F. Gleason vs. Albert Schatz, winner Schatz.

Chas. J. Pass vs. Joe Schatz, winner Pass.

The game between Pass and Schatz was the most exciting one of the whole tournament. At one time the game stood 5 to 2 in favor of Joe. Charlie then rose to the occasion, and by playing really brilliant, pulled the game out of the fire and took the set. Score 8 to 6.

In the final, C. J. Pass won two straight sets 6 to 3 and 6 to 3 from Albert Schatz and is now the possessor of a beautiful tennis racket.

Temple Getting His Share.

Sunday evening Dr. Twinem had his car filled with gasoline and then asked the boy at the garage to light his tail light. As a result Temple (who carried his auto insurance) has to buy him one new tire and have the car repainted. He thinks he is quite lucky at this, however, as it took two chemical fire extinguishers to save the car.

Last night the McGowan property on east Fifth street caught fire from a lamp exploding. Temple pays the loss.

There is nothing like holding one of Temple's many forms of policies of insurance, so that he will have to pay for your bad luck.

Habits of the Moose Family.

A thoroughbred bull moose is master of the herd for two terms, he is then relieved by the younger and more vigorous bulls.

A genuine bull moose knows when the herd has enough of him and wanders off into pleasant valleys with the old cows and young calves and does not pretend to run the herd. A thoroughbred bull moose knows how to behave.
