

DYING GIRL CURED

Recovers After 37 Doctors Had Given Her Up.

Tuberculosis-Diabetes Patient Sees Light and Hears Voice Say: "Dorothy, Your Sufferings Are Over. Arise, You Can Walk."

London.—Saved by an angel who met her at the gates of death and bade her turn back to mortal life, Miss Dorothy Kerin, who has been a bedridden invalid from tuberculosis and diabetes, is today running about her home, 204 Milkwood road, as though she had never been ill a day in her life.

Miss Kerin, who is a beautiful girl twenty-two years old, had been given up to die by 37 doctors. Saturday they announced that she would die before midnight. Sunday morning she suddenly opened her eyes. Her mother bent over her.

"Dolly, do you know me?" she asked.

"Of course I do mamma," replied the girl. "I am to get up. The angel told me to. An angel from heaven met me at the gates of death and brought me back."

And the girl did get up, seemingly under a mysterious influence, and ran downstairs. A friend of the family, an atheist, at sight of her fell on his knees, praying to God.

Not less remarkable than the restoration of her physical health is the effect of her inexplicable experience on her mind. She came forth from her visit to the valley of the shadow with a serene faith in an infinite power, a belief in a spiritual law, a clarity of mental view and an eloquence of expression usually acquired only after years of hard study.

Miss Kerin has written an open letter in reply to the many queries which she has received as to her recovery. In this letter she says:

"I was conscious yesterday for the first time in several days. It seemed to me that I was slipping out of life. I heard the whispers and sobs and prayers of those who love me best. Everything grew black. I did not even think; I just drifted without an effort, without a thought, into deeper blackness."

"Suddenly I saw a light—dazzling—brighter than any fire I had ever seen. Stretched from out the great golden flame I saw two hands. Then I heard a sweet voice say clearly, 'Dorothy, your sufferings are over. Arise. You can walk.' Then I heard mother asking me if I knew her."

"There is a science of religion as well as a science in every phase of the material universe. We live in the midst of wonderful lands. In my own case I realize that my long illness and quietness prepared me to receive a message from the voice, which health and success and ambition sometimes stultify."

"I do not feel that the anchorite, the dreamer or any of the ultra-religionists are nearer God than any man or woman today who accepts the truth, and who opens the windows of the soul to the light of the spiritual world."

SMELLS GAS; STRIKES LIGHT

Julius Bone, a Watchman, Upholds the Tradition of His Family Name.

New York.—Julius Bone, a watchman in a stone factory, upheld the tradition of his family name.

The factory which was intrusted to Bone's care is at 765 Stone avenue.

OLD SEA RIDDLE SOLVED

Survivor of Arctic Tragedy of 1902 Returns to Tell the Story of Wreck.

Tacoma, Wash.—Nine years ago next October the steamship Discovery, bound from Nome, Alaska, for Puget Sound, was lost off the Southern Alaska coast. About seventy persons, including a dozen residents of Port Townsend, Wash., perished.

Until yesterday the manner of the Discovery's loss remained a mystery. It was supposed she foundered in a storm off Yakutat. The only clue was the one life preserver on the shore of 'Kokdiak island. Now comes Capt. E. C. Weaver, 75 years old, and proves that he is the sole survivor of the Discovery.

Weaver says the Discovery weathered a storm off Yakutat and reached the icy strait near Juneau, where, during a heavy snow storm, she struck an iceberg and sank in five minutes.

Weaver's escape resulted from his previous misfortune of losing one hand. With a steel hook permanently fastened to his wrist, he drew himself upon the floating iceberg. The next day Indians picked him up and took him to their camp. While on the iceberg he quenched his thirst by breaking off pieces of ice with same steel hook. The exposure caused partial paralysis. For ten months the natives cared for him. He then went into the mountains prospecting. Eighteen months later he came back to Puget Sound and Eastern Washington.

His silence regarding the Discovery's loss was broken only after the British steamship Ikella last week struck and wrecked his fishing boat, the Dove, off Cape Flattery. He has

WIFE OF MILLIONAIRE BUT UNHAPPY

THIS is Claudia Carlstadt, former actress, now the wife of Albert Gallatin Wheeler, Jr., the young millionaire, who sighs and offers to give all she has for a real home, and for children to climb upon her knees, and who thinks the fates have conspired against her by giving her everything but what she desires most.

Brooklyn. While making his rounds he smelled gas. The whole second floor of the building was permeated with it. He couldn't imagine where it came from. Finally, greatly perplexed, he sat down to ponder the matter. In due time an idea seeped into the head of Bone. It was strange he hadn't thought of it before. It was certainly a snappy idea.

Groping in his pocket he found a match. He'd find out where that gas was leaking. He scratched the match. Whang-o!

Sam Perky heard the explosion a block away and turned in a fire alarm. When the firemen came another alarm was sounded. The blaze did $5,000 damage and routed 100 families from a row of tenements in the rear of the factory.

Bone was rescued by firemen. He had been blown head first through a concrete wall. The wall will be repaired. Bone hastened home.

LIGHTNING STRIKES FAITH

National Monument to Forefathers at Plymouth Badly Damaged By Bolt.

Plymouth, Mass.—The national memorial to the forefathers on Monument Hill was struck by lightning and badly damaged. Several large stones at the waist of the heroic figure of Faith, which is the central one of the group, are displaced.

A granite tablet inscribed with the names of the Pilgrims who came over on the Mayflower was blackened by the lightning. It is thought that the giant figure of Faith will have to be taken down and repaired at great expense.

1911, Mrs. Mallory was a widow with two grown children. According to Mallory, he was always nagged and his wife encouraged her two children to assault and mistreat him.

In the petition he also said that when he went to his trunk he found it had been broken open and his revolver taken.

Mallory states that when he asked for his revolver his stepson told him he would be killed with his own gun if he was not careful. Mrs. Mallory, according to the petition, then announced that she did not care to have her second husband around the house and ordered him to leave. When he started to leave the house Mrs. Mallory would not let him do so.

He then called a policeman and was permitted to depart in peace. He further stated that he treated his wife with the best of care. The children fought him whenever Mrs. Mallory gave the word. They separated in June of 1912.

TRAPPED BY CASH ON ROPE

"Black Hand" Writer's Scheme Fails to Fool Sleuths in New Jersey.

Trenton, N. J.—After being arrested as a "Black Hand" man, John Lengnan of Hackensack declared to the government inspectors that he got his idea of crime from the moving pictures. Lengnan was arrested for sending a "Black Hand" letter to John Banta, a wealthy farmer, living near Hackensack. He demanded $500, under pain of death.

Banta turned the letter over to the government authorities and they set a trap for the writer. Banta was told to put the money under a specified tree, in a canvas bag to be placed there by Lengnan, and then the inspectors placed themselves in hiding to wait for Lengnan. The latter almost escaped, as he had cleverly rigged an aerial rope tramway extending 800 feet from the tree to carry the money to him. The prisoner confessed.

Bee Stings Mule, Oh Yoi! Yoi! New York.—A mule plunged through the wind shield of a touring car and severely injured William A. McLean of Lewisboro, a chauffeur.

Charles Bodurtha of Greenville was leading the mule by the halter. A bee lit on its nose and the frightened mule shied in front of McLean's car. It was knocked down, but jumped up quickly. It fell through the wind shield on to McLean. The mule was shot.

FOREIGN BELIEFS ARE QUEER

Spanish Wedding Is Ruined If One Person Appears Entirely in Black—Some Other Signs.

In Spain the wedding is spoiled if one of the guests appears entirely in black, or if the bride looks into a mirror after orange blossoms and yell are fast in her hair.

When a person's hair ends split, it's taken by the superstitious for a sign that she is either a witch or has been bewitched. As blond hair splits more readily than dark hair, all witches, spirits and sorceresses have blond or red hair, according to popular belief. Likewise, according to the standard of art.

On the marriage there is often much good-natured rivalry between the groom and the bride in the Slav countries as to who shall blow out the candle, for the person who does will be "first to die." It is impossible to trace the origin of this superstition, yet it prevails in aristocratic society as well as in the peasant's hut, even as like this, that "to insure the life and health of the children" the woman must occupy the right side of the bed. In addition, she must not smoke before her forty-fifth year.

There is a superstition in this country and many others against burning a broom. The bud of birch broom is used in southern Germany as a preventive against erysipelas. These buds, a piece of yellow wax and some other articles are enclosed in a pink silk bag, secured with red silk and worn on the back of the neck. The person must change his shirt every Friday.

BURNED AND ITCHED BADLY

539 Lincoln Park Blvd., Chicago, Ill.

"A year ago I received a very severe burn on my left arm. I caught cold in it and it was all sore and ulcerated. The sore was as large as a silver dollar. It was all red and inflamed and had pus running out of it. I suffered terribly from burning pain; could not sleep for two weeks it burned and itched so badly. I applied—Salve—Salve and a salve my druggist recommended as his own, but got no relief. I then commenced using the Cuticura Soap and Ointment. I bathed the burned parts with Cuticura Soap and applied the Cuticura Ointment on a linen bandage. I got relief from the first, and my arm healed nicely. I was soon able to be at work again. Had I used Cuticura Soap and Ointment at first I would have avoided lots of suffering." (Signed) Harry Junke, Mar. 9, 1912.

Obliging. A young man who had never testified before was called before the court as a witness in a certain case. He was somewhat flustered over the attention that was being paid him, and mumbled his words so that the young woman stenographer could not hear them distinctly. He was told to speak plainly and to turn toward the stenographer.

"Speak to the stenographer," said the prosecutor.

At that the young man arose and with a deep bow to the lady said, "How do you do?"—Satire.

American Tools Preferred.

A favorite sport in New Zealand, as also in Australia and Tasmania, is competition in wood chopping and sawing; and in these contests, which attract a great deal of interest, the championships are always won through the use of American tools. In fact, the expert woodman working for a prize would never think of using any other kind of tools.

English Honors Cost Money. The letter patent granted for the dignity of a baron cost £150, and for that of a baronet £100, payable to the board of inland revenue. Other expenses to be incurred by the newly-honored include crests or new coats-of-arms, while some wish to have their "genealogical trees" properly made out. Consequently the Herald's college is busy after the issue of a list of honors, and the total expenses of a baron are not far short of £400, and those of a baronet exceed £200.

A WONDERFUL DISCOVERY. In this age of research and experiment, all nature is harnessed by the scientist to the service of man. Science has indeed made great strides in the past century, and among the by no means least important—discoveries that were formerly the domain of the occult—there is one that has been used with great success in French Hospitals and that is worthy the attention of those who suffer from kidney, bladder, nervous, chronic weakness, rheumatism, skin eruptions, piles, etc., there is no doubt. In fact, it is evident from the big stir created among specialists, that this discovery is destined to meet into oblivion all these questionable remedies that were formerly the sole reliance of medical men. It is of course impossible to tell in advance all we should like to tell in this short article, but those who would like to know more about this remedy that has effected so many—we might almost say, miraculous—cures, should send addressed envelope for FREE book to Dr. Le Clerc Med. Co., Havemeyer Road, Hampton, London, Eng. and decide for themselves whether the New French Remedy "THE RAPID" No. 1, No. 2 or No. 3 is what they require and have been seeking in vain during a life of misery, suffering, ill health and disappointment. The book is sold by druggists or mail $1.00. Fougere Co., 50 Hickman St., New York.
