

The North Platte Semi-Weekly Tribune.

TWENTY-SEVENTH YEAR.

NORTH PLATTE, NEB., SEPTEMBER 27, 1912.

No. 69

KIRSCHBAUM
GUARANTEED
Clothes
Suits
Overcoats
Hats

Copyright, 1912, A. D. Kirschbaum Co.

IF THERE'S any one article of clothing that makes a man look distinctive—or sloppy—it's an overcoat.

That's why it is so important to have the overcoat correct to the smallest detail.

The cut must just suit the figure. The fit must be perfect. And style must be authoritative.

These Kirschbaum great coats

$15 to $45

fit well—look well—wear well. The

KIRSCHBAUM SPECIALS AT

$15, $20 AND $25 are the Greatest Values in America.

They are strictly hand-tailored.

No drag on the shoulders, no binding across the back or chest.

But roomy, full and easy. The fabrics are absolutely dependable.

"All-Wool," every bit—as proved by the acid-boiling pot.

Kirschbaum overcoats are for hard wear, as well as style distinct.

They will keep their shape and look dressy for many a Winter.

Weingand, THE QUALITY PLACE.

TOWN AND COUNTY NEWS

R. D. Herzog, of the Davis garage, left this morning for Omaha to spend a week on business.

Apples, 50 and 75 cents per bushel at the N. B. Spurrier farm.

Con Scharman came up from Omaha this morning to visit with his mother for a few days.

Mrs. Henry Mylander, of Maxwell, returned home Wednesday after visiting with her sister, Mrs. Chas. Haner.

Alonzo McMichel returned last night from Missoula, Mont., where he had been visiting friends for several weeks.

Mrs. Fred Letts who had been visiting in town left for Sidney this morning to make arrangements for moving to this city.

Misses Stella and Dorothy Mills, of Albion, Neb., who spent the past month with their brother E. R. Mills, left for home this morning.

Mrs. N. McCabe, Mrs. C. O. Wiengand and Mrs. John Murphy will entertain at a Kensington on Wednesday and Thursday afternoons of next week at the McCabe residence.

Weather Forecast—Local showers tonight and Saturday, with no change in temperature. Maximum temperature yesterday 62; a year ago 78. Minimum temperature last night 42; a year ago 50. Rainfall yesterday .05 of an inch.

Chas. Reign Scoville, of Chicago, one of America's greatest evangelists with whom Mr. H. G. Knowles has been associated in evangelistic work, in speaking of him says: "He is an earnest, zealous young man." Able to do good work for our largest churches. Hear him at the Christian church next week, 69-2

While enroute to Stapleton yesterday the car driven by Lawrence Carpenter turned turtle and the occupants were thrown out but not seriously injured. The car was traveling about twelve miles an hour when the accident occurred. The damage to the car was temporarily repaired and the trip to Stapleton continued.

The engineers in charge of the fernal improvements in this city have opened an office on the third floor of the Walmath building. The contract for the erection of the round house has been awarded, and work will begin as soon as the material arrives. A spur track to the round house site for handling the material will be laid in a day or two.

The initial session of the 500 club held Tuesday evening at the Halligan home with Mrs. Halligan and Mrs. Osgood as hostesses, was attended by nearly the full membership and a delightfully pleasant evening at cards was passed. The refreshments were elaborate and much enjoyed.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Fikes left for St. Louis Wednesday night after visiting friends for three days. Though their visit was short, they met many of their old friends, and were honored guests at informal gatherings held at the Bonner home Tuesday evening and at the Douglas home Wednesday evening, forty or fifty being present on each occasion.

Misses Mary and Alice Cunningham were guests of honor at a farewell seven o'clock dinner and card party given last evening by Mr. and Mrs. Roy Cottrell. A delightful evening was spent by all present. The guests included the employees of the Wilcox Department Store and a number of other friends who presented the young ladies with beautiful gold locket and chain. The presentation was made by J. Q. Wilcox. In the progressive card games Miss Villa Whitaker and C. H. Spicer tied for the first honors, the former winning in a cut. The consolation emblem was given R. E. Davis who tied with Arthur Boyd and cut for the prize.

Mrs. Will Balcock will entertain the Young Ladies' Kensington club this evening.

Charles Ware, of Omaha, is spending a few days here on business for the Union Pacific.

The Indian Card club will be entertained by Miss Nell Bratt Wednesday afternoon.

Mrs. Roland Malmstein and baby left yesterday afternoon for Grand Island to visit friends.

C. A. Howe came down from Oshkosh last evening to look after his interests here for ten days.

Mrs. R. V. Stuart will return this evening from Columbus, where she spent ten days with relatives.

Mrs. Henry Gilfoil, mother and daughter will return tonight from California where they spent the summer.

Charles E. Hamilton and Miss Daisy Lindsey, of Wellfleet, were married at the court house yesterday by Judge Grant.

Misses Della and Lillian Hollowell, of Odessa who had been visiting their sister Mrs. J. Rosenblum, left this morning for Lodgepole.

The board of directors of the Chamber of Commerce and the board of directors of business men will hold a joint meeting this evening to elect a secretary.

Mrs. Engburg Okirsen died last evening at the home of her daughter Mrs. H. P. Henckel on west Second street at the age of sixty-five. The remains will be taken to Holdrege tonight.

Clark LeDoyt, who had been employed in Needles, Cal., for several months, has been reinstated in the service of the Union Pacific at this point and returned home this morning.

For some time the residents of the southeast part of town have been bothered by a peeping Tom who has been seen staring into windows of several houses in that neighborhood. A few nights ago one lady fired a couple of shots at the prowler who immediately fled and has not as yet returned on his nightly rambles.

In the exciting episodes of the day at Stapleton yesterday, North Platte citizens figured to a reasonable extent. An infuriated bull that was brought out to be ridden attempted to climb into Claude Weingand's car, and later knocked down and tramped Joe Mahafey, who was umpiring the ball game.

The young people of the Baptist church will hold a newspaper social this evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Loudon, 214 So. Chestnut. Each guest is requested to bring a five cent package of one article of lunch and a newspaper clipping from the funny column. All young people of the church and congregation, married or single, are invited.

About 125 North Platte people including the military band attended the celebration at Stapleton yesterday, the attendants making the trip in thirty automobiles. The Stapleton people fully appreciated this courtesy on the part of North Platte and are ready at any time to return the favor. The visitors express themselves as highly pleased with the treatment accorded them.

In a letter to The Tribune C. F. Scharmann, of Omaha, says: Our son started going to the public schools for hearing children in Omaha on the 9th inst and we are glad to say his record shows that he will make good. We are doing this on the advice of a number of expert teachers in Philadelphia, New York and Boston, who saw our boy last spring. While in the east he attended school for several months in Boston.

Bargains.

9x15 Bale Ties, per bundle ..... $ 1.15
Barb Wire per 100 pounds..... 2.80
Wide Tire Wagons..... 70.00
At Hershey's corner Fifth and Locust streets. Phone 15.

Ready to Wear

Most women know, but every woman who will investigate, can satisfy herself that nowhere else—the larger cities of the state not except—can ladies ready to wear apparel be bought so advantageously as here at this store. The assortment to be found in this department are as broad and satisfying as the most exacting could demand, the styles shown are the most ultra and exclusive; the workmanship shows the best skill of the tailor craft, the materials are the finest that can be put into garments of the price, because of these advantages, and because women find here always values better than other stores offer at equal prices, our garment business has grown to immense proportions.

Wilcox Department Store.

The Printzess Garments!

Distinction in Dress.

Half the satisfaction of owning a Printzess Coat, is knowing it is the best style. The Printzess garment is not necessarily costly, while you may rest assured of style and workmanship.

Yet, despite the high quality of materials, the care and fineness of finish, you may obtain the Printzess garments at very moderate prices. For as little as or even less you can buy a Printzess Coat that is equal to unknown garments at $25.00 and $30.00.

$18.50

It is the efficiency of production which gives you the advantage when you buy a Printzess garment.

Try on a Printzess Coat. Let the mirror tell its own story of how you look in the new fall fashions. Now on display.

E. T. Tramp & Son.

Printzess
DISTINCTION IN DRESS

O. W. Viset will leave tomorrow for Kansas city to spend two weeks.

Mrs. Clyde Giddeon left yesterday morning to visit friends on the branch road.

The Knights of Columbus will give a dance and card party in the Masonic hall on or about Oct. 9th.

D. A. Lowler, living south of Paxton, has seven hundred acres of corn which it is said will average thirty bushels to the acre.

Clyde J. Wright, socialist candidate for governor, spoke at the Lloyd opera house last evening on "The Threats of Socialism" to a fair sized audience.

The nine year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Gerkin, of Wellfleet, fell from a horse Wednesday and sustained a broken ankle. When one mile and a half from home the horse was stricken with spinal meningitis and fell throwing the girl several feet. She was obliged to crawl home on her hands and knees. Physicians from town were summoned who report the young lady to be doing nicely.

GRANITE Harvester Oil

Best for all heavy farm machinery. Clings to the bearings and greatly reduces friction. Heat or moisture do not affect it.

Put up in barrels, half barrels, one and five gallon lithographed cans.

Read our "Easier Farming" booklet; free, prepaid. Call or write, any agency.

Standard Oil Company
NEBRASKA Omaha

ED. J. VAN DERHOOF.

The above photo Stands for quality, price and a square deal. This is the store and this is the man that gives you more for your money than any other store in western Nebraska. If you don't want to pay a big price to be well dressed buy a suit or overcoat of us and pay us $17 for it and look like a $50 dressed man.

Styleplus

STAR CLOTHING HOUSE

Mrs. Francis James, aged fifty-one, died at her home eight miles northeast of Maxwell September 20th, leaving a husband seventy-seven years of age to mourn the passing away of a christian wife.

R. W. Allison was sent here from Denver a few days ago to assist with the clerical work in the U. S. land office. The applications to make final proof under the new three year law has flooded the office with work.

Edward Clutter, general evangelist for the Christian church, says of Harry G. Knowles: "He is a deep student of the word of God and a reliable preacher of the same. He is a hard worker in and out of the pulpit."