Entered at North Platte, Nebraska, Post office as Second Class Matter.

TUESDAY, OCT. 29, 1912.

It is quite natural that the thousands of republicans and iemocrats who have felt the venomous sting of Roosevelt's tongue, should in return give him the blistering he deserves. It's a weak and friends, cowardly man who will not defend himself, even if his slanderer is so great a man as Theodore poses.

I. L. Miltonberger so well tilled the office of sheriff while an incumbent and isso well acquainted with county affairs, that he would seemingly make a most valuable member of the board of county commissioners. When a man has been tried out and not found wanting, as has Mr. Miltonburger, he is a pretty good man to tie to and vote for.

Out in California those who desire to vote for Taft electors must write the names of the electors on the ballot. This is practically a disfranchisement, and it is not strange that the Taft men in that state declare they will vote for Wilson. The bull moosers in Nebraska attempted to work the same scheme in Nebraska, but failed.

The memory of the stockmen and farmers of Lincoln is defective if it is forgotten that in the last year of Cleveland's last administratioe choice steers sold at from $3.00 to $4.25 per 100 pounds, hogs from $3.20 to $3.30 and sheep from $2.00 to $3.00. Compare these prices with the present

Senator Hoagland will have no oppo-sition for re-election, the regular nomines having resigned. An attempt was made to place a candidate on the ticket but it was so plausibly illegal that Senator Hoagland had no trouble in checkmating the acheme. It is just as well for the democrats that they have no candidate, for Senator Hoag-land would sweep the platter clean no matter who might be his opponent.

Morton Smith, a large stockgrower of Broadwater, transacted business in town yesterday. In line with many others living along the line of the North Piver branch, Mr. Smith is very de-sirous that the Union Pacific give better passenger service on the branch. Platte chamber of commerce has taken up with the company and is working upon as expeditiously as possible.

Some cheerful liars are circulating the report that Congressman Kinkaid voted against the eight hour labor law. The fact is Mr. Kinkaid not only voted for the eight hour law, but also for the employers' liability law, the child labor law, the aixteen hour limit for railway employes, and all other bills approved by labor organizations. Laboring men, and particularly railroad men, have aland particularly railroad men, have always had a firm friend in Congressman Kinkaid, and they certainly should feel kindly toward him.

In its last issue the Wallace Winner says: The stand the Winner takes is that Gov. Aldrich, of all the candidates on the ticket, deserves the least consideration at the hands of republicans for his persistent course in support of the movement that has disrupted the republican party, nationally, is chiefly due the situation of the republican party in the state at the present. A dignified position of 'hards off,' which was all that was required of him, would have put a united party behind the whole state ticket, with a reasonable assurance of a sweeping republican victory for republicans in Nebraska.

More building has been done in North Platte during the past four years, than in any other four years since this writer landed in North Platte over thirty years Not only is this true, but the land values have made a greater in-crease and there is every indication of crease and there is every indication of prosperity among the people of Lincoln county in both the towns and on the farms. This being true, do you really believe it is best to have a political of Doan's Kidneys Pills. I procured Isn't this a time to let well enough alone? It was an act almost unbelievable in the domain of partisan politics. Traditional political practice had been to keep all prospective office seekers, whether for appointment or reappointment, actively gaged in the campaign. But with characteristic disregard of political precedent and partisan advantage, president swept all these offices into the protected area of the civil service. A total of 90,000 positions in the Postoffice department has been removed from the sphere of patronage to the protection of the civil service regulations since Mr. Taft became president.
