

IT SOLVES THE PROBLEM

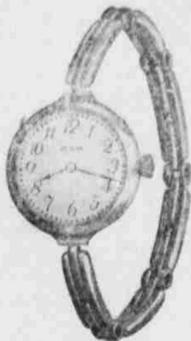

HOW shall a woman wear a watch? This has been a vexed question. Some have carried their watches in hand-bags, some have used chatelaine pins, others have employed neck chains. No one of these methods answers all the purposes of convenience and adornment.

The Wrist Watch

Solves the problem of how a woman should wear a watch. It's decorative, convenient, practical and stylish. Buy your wife one for Christmas. Solid gold Elgin like illustration

Rev. Knowles to Become Pastor.

Contracts have been made whereby Rev. H. G. Knowles of Elm Creek becomes pastor of the Christian church on Jan. 1, 1913. Mr. Knowles needs no introduction to North Platte, as he has become quite well acquainted, being very highly spoken of as a preacher of the gospel. The church here feel very fortunate in thus securing the services of Mr. Knowles. He is a graduate of Cotner University, the state school of the Christian church, located at Bethany, a suburb of Lincoln. He comes on a two-year contract.

Boxing Exhibition.

A fifteen-round boxing exhibition with "Kid" Lange, of Omaha, and Tom Smith, of Sidney, as the principals, is announced for Thanksgiving evening, November 28th, at the Lloyd opera house. Lange has a reputation in the mid-west as a very clever mitt man, one who has had ring experience covering a period of several years. Smith is known here in North Platte and his science and ring generalship is commended. A side wager of $100 has been posted by the contestants. The contest promises to be exceptionally good. An admission of one dollar will be charged.

Married at Kearney.

At the Catholic church at Kearney at eight o'clock yesterday morning Charles T. Whelan, of this city, was united in marriage to Miss Hilma Anderson, formerly assistant in the office of Dr. H. C. Brock. The bride was attended by Gertrude Herrod, of Columbus, and the groom by Walter O'Connor, of this city, and the ceremony was witnessed by about a dozen intimate friends of the contracting parties. Following the ceremony a six course breakfast was served at the Midway hotel, and later Mr. and Mrs. Whelan left for Omaha to visit friends and will return to this city next week and occupy the home on west Fourth street which has lately been remodeled and refurnished.

This consummation will not come as a surprise to the friends of the couple, though not until Wednesday did Mr. Whelan divulge the date, and then only to a few of his more intimate friends. Mr. Whelan has linked life and fortune with a splendid woman; one who is pleasing in address, striking in appearance, congenial in association, an adept in domestic science—and these characteristics won for her during her residence in North Platte the esteem of all acquaintances.

Charley Whelan is one of the "good Indians" of North Platte, with a heart as big as his statue and with a large circle of friends who value him highly because he is always deserving of friendship.

May their marital life be ever and always as bright and cheery as the noon-day sun of a cloudless day.

At an egg laying contest that closed two months ago at the poultry experimental station of Missouri located at Mountain Grove, the Rose Comb Rhode Island Red hens easily took first prize; five hens in ten months laying 899 eggs or an average of almost 180 eggs each. There were 24 breeds entered in the contest; 24 eggs less was the nearest that any breed came to the Reds. Farmers, you well know the layers are the payers. Fresh eggs are now worth 35c. I can start you in this prize winning kind of chickens. I have some choice roosters that I will sell, but they won't last long, so come early.
