Mrs. Bresnahan Passes Away.

Saturday evening death claimed Mrs. Bresnahan who had been ill with kidney disease at the home of her adopted son Fred Ouimette, Mrs. Bresnahan's health had been failing for a year past, and four months ago her illness assumed a serious nature. A though she was conscious at all times her condition was such as, to cause anxiety to the relatives and the end was not unexpected. Death came peacefully without pain in the presence of near friends and relatives who watched by her during her illness. The deceased was widely known and highly respected in this city having lived here since 1877. She was a good christian woman and had numerous friends who will mourn the loss of a comforting friend and helper. Born in New York Oct. 20th, sixty-three years ago, at the age of fifteen she went to Fort Scott, Kans., to reside with a brother and latter came | big print. A better educated class of to Cottonwood where she was married in 1872 to John Ouimette who died twenty-four years ago. The following year she was married to Timothy Bresnahan, of Cheyenne, at Butte, Mont. Mr. Bresnahan survives her; and is at the Soldiers Home in California. Other surviving relatives are a sister Mrs. Eliza Burt, of Powell, Wyo., two brothers J. B. Dimon, of Mt. Pleasant, Mich., and Justice Dimon, of Beauvista, Colo., who are advanced in years and were unable to attend the funeral this morning. The burial service was held at the St. Patrick's church by Rev. Mc-Daid and the remains laid to rest in the Catholic cemetery. The floral offerings were very beautiful.

The Abuse of Mail Boxes.

North Platte, Nebr., Dec. 2, 1912. Editor of Semi-Weekly Tribune:

Sir: I am just in receipt of a complaint from the Acting Superintendent them he would remark, "That is a of the Railway Mail Service at Omaha, of the abuse of the privailege of depositing mail matter at the Depot Letter

Attention is called to the fact that these boxes are only for emergency mail that cannot pass through the Postoffice, and that if the abuse is continued, the boxes may be removed, for the resson that railway mail clerks are not prepared to handle large quantities of Bond Election Today.

A special election is being held in the North Platte school district today for the purpose of voting on the proposition of issuing $20,000 bonds for the construction of an eight room school claiming: building in the First ward. The polls opened at eight o'clock this morning 'J-o-s-e' spells 'Hozay,' but they needn't and will close at six o'clock p. m. Up tell me that 'P-a-j-a-r-o' spells Watsonto noon the voting was light and the number of ballots cast is not likely to exceed fifty per cent of the voting strength. There is practically no opposition to the issuance of the bonds.

Wilson got 6,156,748 votes at the November election, Roosevelt 3,928,140, leased what would happen? They Taft 3,376,422. Roosevelt leads Taft slightly but the combined Roosevelt liquid; they would coalesce like two and Taft votes is about one million one great drops of water, and the highest hundred thousand greater than Wilson's. The rale holds good as to the test of the electorial] vote also. The Wilson vote was not as great as the Bryan vote four years ago and can not be construed as a vote of confidence by the democratic party. - Kearney Hub.

Washington dispatches say that an effort will be made to suspend "President Taft's executive order of October 15, whereby about 36,000; fourth-class pestmasters were placed, under the civil service, became known today when Representative Cordell Hull of Tennessee said the democrats in congress who are already in Washington have conferred informally on the subject and that there was an overwhelming sentiment in favor of having the order revoked. This is just another evidence of how hungry the democrats are for " pie," even though the slices are small.

Governor Woodrow Wilson is willing to take the cath of office as president of the United States without ostentation on March 4, and that the formal ceremonials that every fourth year attract thousands of citizens to Washington be postponed until the last Thursday in April. To that extent he has endorsed the propaganda in favor of a later inauguration which has been advocated in and out of congress in order that the event might be conducted at a time when the weather usually is propitious | been some kind of lullaby. at the national capital.

Marrying Her Debts. It sounds strange to talk of marrying the wife's debts, but that was a common practice in England years ago. It was before the married women's property act of 1882. In contemplation of law the husband and wife were one, and the busband was that one. Then if the bride owed any debts before marriage they devolved on the newly married husband, and be had to pay the piper. This led to some extraordinary farces being enacted. Women who were overloaded with debts actually got rid of them by marrying some poor bankrupt, imprisoned for debt. These men did not mind or thousands, and the "wife" usually paid the "husband" a few pounds for the protection of his name, and then she would snap her fingers at her baffied creditors and gayly set about incurring fresh debts. The law which settled and removed this sort of thing deserves a better title than the colloquial one of "a hass." - London An-

Baseball is Business. Professional baseball is a business and millions of dollars are invested in it by business men. They make fortunes out of it, but they pay their players higher salarles than 999 out of every 1,000 of them could earn at any other line of work during a similar number of months each year. From a baseball player nothing is required but that he be able to play a good game and keep in condition. Many stars in the old days were able to do little more than sign their names and read men are in the game today, but they are getting more money for their services than they could earn if they followed any one of hundreds of different professions. And remember that many of them stepped right out of college into good paying baseball positions. Could they have done as well financially had they entered banks or tried their hands at the law or medicine?-Ed A. Goewey in Les

Frederick and Joseph II. During Frederick the Great's visit to Joseph II. of Austria at Neustadt be came into personal touch with some of those Austrian generals to whom be "had only spoken hitherto through the roar of cannon." When Loudon entered to take his place at the table Frederick called out to him: "Come and sit near me, M. Loudon. I much prefer you by my side to facing you." Fred erick had several busts of the emperor at Sans Souci, and when he looked at young man on whom I must keep an eye." The Austrian sovereign was ambitious, and Frederick distrusted him. He put it this way: "The Emperor Joseph has a head. He is capable of much. It is a pity he always takes the second step before he has made the first."-"A Mystic on the Prussian Throne."

Broke the Spell.

Judge E. Rockwood Hoar, remarking on President Lincoln's dry humor, said that on one occasion a delegation of negroes had waited on Mr. Lincoln and were evidently at a loss to know just what to say. The president waited awhile and then remarked:
